Local School Head Is Appointed on N.E.A. Committee

John Lund on Group to Confer on Education Outlook

John Lund, Superintendent of Schools of Newton was appointed on Wednesday a member of the committee on a national outlook on education. The appointment was made by Paul C. Stetson of Indianapolis, president of the Department of Superintendence of the National Education Association. This committee will meet and report at a convention to be held in Cleveland from February 24 to March 1.

The appointment of this committee is an important item in a fundamental reorganization of the convention plan followed by the educational leaders in their national professional organization for many years. The change was made to extend greater responsibility to individual members in the Department's attempt to plan more effectively for meeting the current crisis in education.

Seven such committees have been appointed by President Stetson. These groups will give their attention respectively to problems of teacher training, a comprehensive program of public education, financing the schools, education for the new America, public education and public welfare, a national outlook on education, and the interpretation of the schools to the public.

Truck Collides With Austin Car

A diminutive Austin car driven by Beatrice Macomber of Overbrook rd. Wellesley, and a 1-2 ton truck driven by Raymond Bradley of Watertown, collided at Watertown and Eddy sts., West Newton, on Tuesday. The small automobile was put out of commission and towed to a garage. Miss Macomber received cut on her hand and knee. Mrs. Minnie Jones of Overbrook rd., who was riding with her, received an injury to her head.

Ex-Ald. Earle Seriously Ill

William E. Earle of 18 Maple ave., Newton, was taken seriously ill Saturday morning and rushed to the Newton Hospital where he was operated on for a perforated ulcer. He is now making satisfactory progress towards recovery. Mr. Earle was for a number of years Alderman from Ward 1, and he has been prominent in the Elks and Masonic fraternities.

Jefferson Club Annual Meeting

The Jefferson Club of Newton will hold its annual meeting at the Newton Centre library on Friday night, October 13 at 8 o'clock. The election of officers will be held. A speaker from the Democratic State Committee will address the meeting. Persons interested in the success of the Democratic party in Newton are invited to attend.

Catholic Club To Conduct Big Party on Monday

Chizzell Whizzell First of Kind in Vicinity

On Monday evening the Newton Catholic Club will sponsor a Chizzell Whizzell Party in their Auditorium on Washington st. This is the first time a party of this nature has been conducted in this vicinity.

Interest in this affair is reaching high enthusiasm and is expected to be a sell-out. The party will take the form of a huge vaudeville show. Only professional talent will appear. Mr. Louis Taboldi is giving personal supervision of the entire program.

Mr. Al Lemons, winner of the last Madison Square Garden Endurance Dance contest, will act as Master of Ceremonies.

John Graham, formerly of Somerville, and heard weekly over one of the radio chains, will bring his entire set of noise-makers.

Miss Julia Gonsalo, known in theatrical circles as the second Kate Smith, will entertain with songs and stories. Champagne and DeGrasse have a balancing act.

Fontecchio and Arduino will show their acrobatic and banjo act.

One of the highlights of the evening's entertainment will be the appearance of the Lowell Six Steppers. This is a juvenile act and is considered one of the best child acts obtainable.

Boudreau and Bagley, the only local act on the entire program, will appear in a number entitled "Tune-Tapping."

Louis Taboldi and Joe Antonelli will be the comedians of the evening. Anyone having heard this pair over WBZ on the New England Coke program know the calibre of their work.

This show marks the formal opening of the Club's Silver Anniversary Year. Organized on Jan. 14, 1909, the emblem of the Newton Catholic Club has represented twenty-five years of fraternal progress, particularly among the young men of the community.

In conjunction with its program to furnish one major activity each week, the club has likewise reduced the subscription charges to all its affairs. The drawing of the Auto Radio will be held during the intermission.

Seek State Aid to Repair Beacon St.

At a hearing held yesterday afternoon at the State House before the Department of Public Works, Street Commissioner Stuart and City Engineer Morse, representing Mayor Weeks, asked for State aid in resurfacing Beacon st., Newton Centre. The County of Middlesex will also be asked by the City of Newton to contribute to the cost of repaving the street. It is proposed to resurface the street from Winslow rd. easterly. The type of surface will be reinforced concrete, according to plans.

Disarmament Meeting Oct. 10

In line with similar meetings which are being held all over the U. S. during the coming week, as well as in England, France and other countries citizens of Newton will be given an opportunity to gather at the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday evening, October 10 at 8 o'clock, to formulate an expression of their attitude on the Disarmament Conference soon to convene in Geneva.

The speakers at this meeting will be Prof. Ruhl J. Bartlett of Tufts College on the "Fight for Disarmament" and Francis H. Russell on "Can There Be Peace?"

The Mass. Committee for Peace Action cordially invites you to be present.

Dividend Checks For Bank Depositors

Unclaimed dividend checks due to depositors of the Nonantum Bankers and A. Pescosolido Company await those presenting proof of claim at the office of Frederic Stewart, C.P.A., at 31 State st., Boston, who asks that those persons who hold such claims call at his office.

Talks on Wireless Telephone at Rotary

The Newton Rotarians at a meeting presided over by Vice President Lyson Bruce, Jr., in the absence of President Harry Hanson, were on Monday given an insight of wireless telephony. Mr. Percy Spencer, a resident of Newton and connected with M. I. T., was the speaker.

Mr. Spencer with the aid of a co-worker located in an automobile several miles distant, ably demonstrated that the two way wireless telephone; as yet an infant, would in the near future become an important factor in the police work of the country.

The speaker from the Rotary meeting at the Brae Burn Country Club sent out a voice call to his roving partner and in a few seconds a voice came back over the ether announcing that the call had been picked up. The voice from the air spoke to the assembly for several moments. It was truly a remarkable demonstration of two way telephone conversation without wires or known location of stations.

Mr. Spencer who has given much to radio in the nature of ideas and inventions both delighted and enlightened his audience by the thorough manner with which he handled a subject that so few persons have more than a slight knowledge of.

It was intimated by a prominent Newton resident that perhaps this form of radio would be quite effective in forestalling bank robberies. He suggested that the banks be equipped in the same manner as police automobiles.

The listeners of Mr. Spencer had no hesitancy in predicting that when two way wireless telephone becomes perfected, a Newton resident will have played a most important part in its progress.

Claflin Club To Hear Max Yergin

Max Yergin, the champion of the cause of the native African black man, is to be the speaker at the opening meeting of the Claflin Club October 20, 1933, according to an announcement made by Carl C. Davis, Vice President of the Club and Chairman of the Committee on Program. Mr. Yergin first served with the colored troops of the Allies in East Africa during the World War and later returned to the Union of South Africa to work in the interest of his own race.

Mr. Yergin knows the virtues of the black tribes, the ordered family ties, the tribal strength and simple community life. He is to speak on "Black Africa."

served at 12:15. Speakers will come from the National Organization and from the local Chapters represented at the Conference.

Dr. Thomas E. Green, Director of the Speakers' Bureau of the American Red Cross will open the afternoon session with an address. Dr. Green, who is well known in political, masonic, university and church circles, has since 1917 devoted all his time to the American Red Cross. Probably no other man is more familiar with the work of the organization in America and throughout the world, or better qualified to discuss it. For his services abroad during and after the war he was elected Chevalier in the Legion of Honor in France as well as Chevalier in the new Honor Legion in Poland.

Mr. Walter Davidson, Assistant Manager of the Eastern Area of the American Red Cross will conduct a Forum at 2:00 P. M. on the subject "Red Cross Service in Relation to Changing Conditions." Mr. Davidson has been connected with the organization since 1916 and has had an important part in its rapid growth. The topics will be discussed by representatives of participating Chapters.

There will be several exhibits including garments made by Red Cross members and Roll call material under the direction of Mrs. George M. Angier, chairman.

Officers of the Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross are: Mr. Donald Angier, chairman; Mr. Joseph B. Jamieson, Jr., treasurer; Mrs. James Dunlop, secretary.

The committee in charge of the Conference includes: Mrs. Marcus Morton, Mrs. James Dunlop, Mr. Hen-

Long Prison Sentences In Finelli Assault

In the Superior Court at Cambridge on Tuesday Judge Collins imposed heavy prison sentences on two men found guilty of murderous assault on John Finelli of Ashmont ave., Newtonville, a Nonantum lawyer. David Cornell of Fitchburg, 26, was sentenced to serve from 15 to 18 years in State Prison; Pasquale Cetrone, 44, of Winchester rd., Newton was sentenced to serve from 12 to 15 years in State Prison. He was found guilty of having been an accessory before the fact. His attorney petitioned for a stay of sentence as he intends to take the case to the Supreme Court. The stay was granted and Cetrone's bail was set at $50,000; either in cash or bond sureties.

Finelli was a trustee in bankruptcy of Cetrone and they disagreed. On June 12, in the evening, Cornell, who had been friendly with a daughter of Cetrone, telephoned Finelli, and posing as a prospective purchaser, lured the lawyer to an empty house on Watertown st., Watertown. He and another man murderously attacked Finelli in the cellar of the house and left him unconscious there. Finelli recovered his senses and managed to crawl out. He was taken to the Newton Hospital where he remained for two weeks. Cornell was arrested at Providence by Watertown police. According to their testimony he confessed that Cetrone had promised him $40 to attack Finelli. The charge against Cornell was assault with intent to murder. He denied intending to kill Finelli.

More Candidates In Ward Six

In addition to the Mayoralty fight, the Alderman-at-Large in Ward 7 and Ward Alderman in Ward 6 seem to be attracting aspirants. Four candidates are already in the Ward 7 contest, and four are now entered in the Ward 6 contest. The latest to announce their candidacies in the Newton Centre Ward are Anthony J. of 49 Langley rd., and Philip R. Kneeland of 70 Bowers st. Oliver ran for this office in 1932. He is well known in Newton Centre and conducts a barber shop at 53 Langley rd.

Kneeland is a life long resident of Newton Centre and is associated with his father, Frank E. Kneeland, in the building business. He is chairman of the Ward 6 Democratic Committee, and treasurer of the Democratic City Committee.

Keefe To Run Against Farrell

John J. Keefe of 26 Wiswall st., West Newton, will be a candidate for the office of Ward Alderman from Ward 3. He will oppose Bernard J. Farrell, Jr., the present incumbent. Mr. Keefe is a life long resident of West Newton and is Past Commander of Eugene Daily Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

China Discussed At Kiwanis Club

The Newton Kiwanis Club met at the Charles River Country Club Tuesday, October 3. Dr. Tshieh Hsieh of China was the guest speaker.

A rising ovation was given to James Gallagher. He and Dr. F. H. Paul, Jr., reported on the St. Johns bury convention.

R. J. (Dick) Davis introduced Dr. Hsieh, noted lecturer, Cornell University graduate, writer and Chinese authority, who took as his subject "Man churia Inside Out."

Dr. Hsieh, brilliant and witty, discussed Chinese and Japanese relations in Manchuria; pointed out vast resources of that country, the gold the revenues, customs and taxes collected by the Japanese. He emphasized that China had no vengeance either personally or nationally. The New China, now 22 years old, did not need to borrow money and was able to balance its own budget.

Dr. Hsieh commented vigorously on Japan's disregard for treaty under standings, Japan's dumping of merchandise in the markets of America and thenceforth. He made the prophecy, however, that the conquerors will be swallowed by the conquered; that biologically, the Chinese are stronger than the Japanese.

George L. White, president, Charles A. Mahoney, immediate past president, and vice-president Wilfred Chagnon and Thomas L. Ryan endorse not only a square deal for the underprivileged child, but assert that "Kiwanis as an organization is entitled to the Blue Eagle and ask that each individual member make whatever sacrifices are necessary to come under the emblem as the only method that gives reasonable promise of pulling us out of the depression. Pledge yourself to the Blue Eagle!"

The following directors also endorse the Blue Eagle: Frank Avantaggio, Charles Barrows, Thomas H. Burns, Richard J. Davis, William E. Pike, Burt M. Rich, and Giles Mosher.

City To Get Coal At Contract Price

Recently the City of Newton was notified by the Commonwealth Coal Company of Somerville that its contract for supplying anthracite coal to the city would be broken because the NRA code will cause an increase in the price of coal. On Wednesday the company notified Mayor Weeks that it will supply the coal at the price stipulated in the contract, as the NRA code affects bituminous and not anthracite coal.

Many Complaints About Newton Water Received

Condition Due to Pitometer Survey; Too Much Chlorine

Complaints by the score poured in to City Hall on Monday and Tuesday of this week about the condition (or conditions) of Newton's water. For a number of weeks past the local water has not been like that of a mountain brook, either in crystal clearness, agreeable taste, or freedom from odor. It has, a number of times, in various parts of the city, been murky in color, disagreeable to taste and emanates a slightly boggy smell. The cause of these conditions in the water has been the pitometer survey which has been underway for the past couple of months. Borings have been made in mains throughout the city for tests, and these borings have caused the sediment in the water mains to become detached, with resultant unpleasant effects on the water issuing from house faucets.

But, the complaints the first of this week were caused not alone by the murky water resulting from the pitometer tests. They arose also from the presence in the water of an unusual amount of chlorine. The drinking fluid was so chlorinated that this element could be both tasted and smelled. The result was — that on Sunday and Monday many Newtonians had to drink substitutes for water.

White Opens Headquarters

Thomas W. White opened Campaign Headquarters for Mayor of Newton at 419 Centre st., Newton, on Monday of this week, with P. C. Newell of Newton Highlands in charge of the office.

As provided under the General Laws, his committee has been filed with the City Clerk and consists of: Henry J. Nichols, West Newton, as Chairman. He was closely connected with former campaigns of the present mayor.

Hon. Edwin O. Childs, ex-Mayor of Newton.

Joseph A. Bryant, Newtonville, as Treasurer.

George J. Martin, Chestnut Hill (of the Martin Mfg. Co.).

Thomas J. Lyons, Auburndale (ex-Alderman of Newton).

Charles F. Johnson, Newton Highlands.

Paul D. Howard, Newton Centre, as Secretary.

This list is representative of the type enlisted under the White cause.

Woman Driving Car Collapses

Monday night about 11 o'clock as Mrs. Katherine Makanna of Sherborn was driving her car along Washington st., Newtonville, she collapsed. She managed to bring the car to a stop and a man who was one of the passengers riding in the car drove it to a drug store at West Newton, where the woman was treated by Dr. Kaitwinkle. He ordered her removed to the Newton Hospital. Mrs. Makanna was able to proceed to her home after a short time.

Mather Class To Begin Season

The opening Fall meeting of the Mather Class will be held in Library Hall, Newton Centre, on Sunday morning at quarter before ten o'clock. Dr. Kirtley F. Mather will have for his subject, "The Voice of Jesus Midst the Modern Din."

Chest Slogan Is: "Rebuild Lives—Maintain Morale"

Newton Community Chest Prepares for Campaign

"Rebuild Lives! — Maintain Morale!" will be the slogan this year of the Community Chest Campaign, to be conducted from Nov. 1-10, and for which preparations are proceeding rapidly. With committees already formed in West Newton and Newton Centre, other villages this week are preparing to select local chairmen and to commence the formation of a team organization.

In Auburndale, Edward J. Frost heads a group who will appoint a village chairman, and in Waban, Newtonville, and Newton Highlands the initial steps will be taken under the direction of C. Adrian Sawyer, Jr., Fred M. Rust, and Edwin L. Brown, respectively. A meeting of the Speakers' Committee, of which Mrs. Virginia Hutchinson of Newton Highlands is chairman, was held last evening at the Brae Burn Country Club, and it is hoped that the message of the Community Chest for the coming year will be brought before every organization in Newton prior to the opening of the campaign.

The secretaries of all clubs and associations holding meetings during the month of October are requested to communicate with Mrs. Hutchinson at 169 Allerton st., Newton Highlands.

The immediate objective of Chest headquarters and the local chairmen is to have team captains and majors all appointed in time for the key instruction meeting of the campaign, which will be held at Brae Burn on Tuesday evening, Oct. 17. At that time plans will be outlined in full to the captains and the basis of the Chest's appeal will be explained.

The budget committee, headed by William B. Baker, held an eight-hour session on Sunday last, but announcement of the goal of the campaign has been postponed until next week, pending further study.

St. Com. Stuart Is Reappointed

On Wednesday Mayor Weeks reappointed Street Commissioner George E. Stuart for another term of one year, this term to start on October 19. Mr. Stuart, the dean of Newton's officials, has been associated with the Street Department for 53 years. He was appointed Assistant Superintendent of Streets in 1879 when Hon. William B. Fowle was Mayor of this city and William E. Fuller was Superintendent of Streets. He served eleven years under Mr. Fuller and fourteen years under Charles W. Ross, who succeeded Mr. Fuller. In 1914 Mr. Stuart was appointed Street Commissioner by Mayor Edwin O. Childs. Despite his advanced years he is still quite active. Because of the humane attitude he has manifested towards his subordinates, he enjoys the esteem and respect of those who work under him.

Reckless Driver Gets Jail Sentence

Joseph B. Hennebury, 18, of 217 Crafts street, Newtonville, was ordered committed to Middlesex County jail by Judge Brown on Tuesday. Hennebury was found guilty in the Newton court a couple of months ago on two charges—driving after his license to do so had been suspended, and driving so as to endanger the lives and safety of the public. He was fined $50 on each count and given time to pay. In the intervening period the youth paid nothing on the fines. As he will have to serve one day in jail for each 50 cents he fines due, it means an extended stay unless the money will be paid.

ARCHERY TOURNEYS ON HOLIDAY AT N. C. PLAYGROUND

The City of Newton Playground Department has issued a permit to the

Newton Archers for the first Massachusetts State Championship Archery

Meet on the Newton Centre Playground, October 12th. This will be a very notable affair since over 100 archers are going to compete. Newton has always had national champions and is well known as the first city to encourage, in a municipal way, archery on a public playground. The archery court on the Newton Centre

Playground is constantly in use by the local archers. On October 12th, during this first State Championship

Meet, some of the most outstanding archers in the world are going to compete. Among them are Mr. Russ

Hoogerhyde, who holds all the American records; Mr. Carl A. Thompson,

a past champion and record holder;

Mr. W. Evington Long, the best shot

in New England; Mr. Donald A. Mac-

Kenzie, champion of the world; Miss

Dorothy Duggan, who holds most of the American ladies records; Miss

Madeleine L. Taylor, who is the present American champion; and Mrs.

Dorothy S. Cummings, a native of Newton who has been sometimes National Champion and holds many reords.

The regular archery court and the large football field will be laid out in proper distances for this meet. The fields will be roped off and constantly patrolled and supervised. If the weather is favorable it will be a most attractive meet. If unfavorable the meetings will be postponed until Saturday, Oct. 14th.

The State archery championship will be held in conjunction with the annual championship tournament of the Newton Archers. The club championship is confined to members and the State event to archers living in the State. Three rounds will be contested in the morning; the national round for women, the York round for men and the first junior American round for juniors. A business meeting will be held at noon. In the afternoon the American round for seniors and the second junior American round for seniors will be held. Many trophies are being offered in the various events.

Opens League Season

The Sacred Heart School eleven opened its season in the Greater Boston Catholic High School League last

Saturday and was defeated by St.

Mary's High of Brookline at the winners' field, 19 to 0. All three scores came in the final period after the Brookline team had worn down the Newton Centre team's defense.

Country Day Wins

Country Day School opened its season last Saturday at Cabot field with a 6 to 2 victory over Tabor Academy.

The Newton private school used but twelve players in all and took no time out for substitutions. Country

Day meets Mechanics Arts High of Boston this afternoon on the local field. Among the newcomers on the Country Day eleven this year are Bill

Bennett, Ed Nilsson, Dan Mulloney,

Dick Everett and Ed Tucker.

Powers and Bennett Score

Both "Ike" Powers and Bob Bennett, local youths on the Dartmouth varsity, shared in the 41 points scored by Dartmouth in its opening victory over Norwich last Saturday.

Powers went in about the middle of the third session and raced 22 yards around end for the Green's second touchdown of the game and the only one of the period. Powers also threw a pretty pass to Stangle but dislocated his finger when his hand hit an onrushing Norwich player and had to take the rest of the afternoon off.

Bob Bennett kicked a point into the score on a try after a touchdown.

Bob McGuire, right tackle on the Norwich team who played the whole game was outstanding. He comes from Chestnut Hill.

NEWTON PASSES BRING 15-0 WIN OVER CAMB. LATIN

Newton high opened the Suburban league season at Dickinson Stadium

last Saturday with a 15 to 0 victory over Cambridge Latin. A strong passing attack in which eight out of ten were completed for substantial gains was the outstanding feature of the Newton attack. Half-way through the first period, Newton got its first opportunity to score by recovering a fumbled punt deep in Cambridge territory. Three plays after the ensuing kick-off a blocked Cambridge punt bounded outside the end zone for an automatic safety, putting two points more into the Newton score.

Finally midway of the fourth period a steady march from near midfield resulted in the final Newton touchdown.

During the game the play of Captain Charley Thompson of Newton was outstanding. He was in almost every play and his defensive work was the turning point of the game.

It was Thompson who recovered the first fumble by the visitors on their 15-yard line to set the stage for the first touchdown. Thompson led two other mates through into the Cambridge backfield and blocked a kick which resulted in the safety.

And it was he who made several timely tackles to prevent Cambridge ball-carriers from getting anywhere.

Newton won the toss and Ronzio of Cambridge Latin kicked off to Flagg, starting at fullback for Newton in place of Bob Whitney. Flagg got five yards to the Newton 35-yard line before being downed. Mascia fumbled and Cambridge Latin recovered at the same point. The Cambridge offense could make but five yards in two plays and two incomplete passes gave Newton the ball. The first of these passes was almost intercepted by Sanderson Sloane, Newton halfback, playing in place of Louis Miller. Newton could not gain materially and on third down Sloane punted.

After a scramble for the ball which had been handled by the Cambridge safety man, Thompson recovered for Newton on the visitors' 15-yard line.

Mascia picked up two yards

THE "PIN-IT-UP" LAMP

$1.35

COMPLETE with 10-inch shade
8-foot cord
60-watt bulb

In the interests of better home lighting, the Edison Shops present the new "Pin-It-Up" — a handy and original portable wall lamp; costing so little that it can be used wherever more illumination or decorative light is wanted.

The "Pin-It-Up" is a charming combination of hand-crafted wrought iron and neutral-toned parchment, harmonizing with any color combinations or decorative schemes.

A small push pin holds the "Pin-It-Up" Lamp securely to your wall or woodwork. It can be put up in an instant and moved at will from place to place. The tiny pin leaves a hole that you can hardly see, and does not disfigure the finish. Socket, cord, and plug are made by General Electric, and approved by the Fire Underwriters. The bracket is a soft-tone black (or green, if you prefer) with a neutral-tone, amber-tinted standard shade.

COMING EVENTS

Newton Highlands C. L. S. C.

Miss F. Mabelle Hurd will be hostess at her home 1574 Centre st., for the meeting of the Newton Highlands
C. L. S. C. on Monday afternoon, October 9th, at 2:30 o'clock, when the program will be presented by Miss Cora Stanwood Cobb, this being Frank Carpenter's book "Alaska, Our Northern Wonderland." Current Events will be given by Miss Marion B. Morse and Mrs. Emory Clark.

Auburndale Woman's Club

Miss Anne E. Bunker, of 176 Grove street, will open her home for the first meeting of the Business and Professional Group of the Auburndale Woman's Club. This will be a "Get Together" meeting and will be held on Monday evening, October 9th, Miss Bunker and Mrs. Rufus Estabrook being the hostesses on this occasion.

West Newton Junior Women's Educational Club

The first meeting of the West Newton Junior Women's Educational Club will be held in the West Newton Library, on Tuesday, October 10th, at 7:30 p. m.

The Juniors of which group Miss Elizabeth Hoss is president and Miss Betty Mills is secretary, are looking forward to an interesting program for the coming year. Among the speakers will be Miss Gertrude MacCallum, whose subject is "Why We Have the West Newton Community Centre," Miss Priscilla Hay, Mrs. Ernest A.
Dockstader, Reader; Miss Harriet
Hadd, and Mrs. William I. MacCaulay.
The first project for raising money will be a rummage sale to be held in the near future. The date of which and the place at which it will be held will be announced later.

Newtonville Woman's Club

Plans are under way for interesting events for members of the Newton-ville Woman's Club during October and the first of November, beginning with October 17th, when the annual Reception will be held that afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock, with music, at the Club House, opening the season.
There will be the annual Scholarship Bridge the last of the month, and an equally attractive affair, an all-day Bazaar, early in November.

Woman's Club of Newton Highlands

For the benefit of the Club Workshop an Exhibit of Old and New Patch work Quilts will be given by the Board of Directors of the Workshop, Mrs.
Albion H. Brown, president, assisted by the Art and Music committees of the Club Tuesday, October 10th, at
p. m. in the Congregational Parish House. The entertainment will consist of a musical program; songs by the Club trio, Mrs. John F. Westrel Mrs. Frank A. Shute, and Mrs. Carl-ton S. Blanchard; solos by Mrs. Kenneth Waite; minuet, Mrs. Dorothy Goddard and Mrs. Alexander French; accompanist, Mrs. Rupert Sircum; a quilling party, and a speaker, Mrs.
Sarah Lee Whorf, of Winthrop.
Tickets may be purchased from members of the Board.
Club members and friends are asked to co-operate in lending quilts, and to see that the name of the owner is on each quilt.

State Federation

FALL MEETING. The Thursday Morning Club of Great Barrington will be hostess to the State Federation for their Fall Meeting, on Tuesday, the 10th, entertaining the delegates and visiting clubwomen in the Mahaiwe Theatre. Many of the speakers have already been announced but the principal ones are noted once more, as a reminder of the type of program offered for this opening meeting. Congressman Allan T. Treadway will address the morning session, and welcome the clubwomen to the Berkshires. Miss Margaret Weisman, executive secretary of the Consumers' League of Massachusetts, and the only woman appointed by Governor
Ely to serve on the State Recovery Board, should have much of interest to present under her chosen topic "The New Deal For Women Workers." Mrs.
Frederick Glazier Smith, a former State president, and one of the committee in charge of the compiling and publication of the State History, will report items of interest and progress of this volume.

Luncheon will be served at the Berkshire Inn, and reservations may be made directly with the inn if club-women so desire.

In regard to train reservations or overnight accommodation clubwomen may communicate with State Headquarters, 115 Newbury street, Boston Tel. Kenmore 8658, or with Mrs. Phillip Tirrell, 225 Main st., Reading, tel Reading 1073.

The address of the afternoon will be given by Stanley High, Educator, and author of books on International Relations.

The morning session opens at 10 o'clock; the afternoon one at 2 o'clock, and many clubwomen arriving early, hoping for good weather to make an automobile trip into the glorious autumn foliage of the Berkshires, one of the most delightful features of this day.

RADIO. The program for the Saturday morning broadcast, arranged by the Radio director, Mrs. Charles L. Fuller, of Brockton, for tomorrow the 7th of October, over station WBZ will include Mrs. Fred L. Pigeon, chairman of the Education of the General Federation, a well-known Boston club-woman, to the topic "Educational Targets"; Lucille Brown, Soprano; an Mrs. Clarence H. Staples, president of the Old and New Club of Malden, to the topic "Desirable Club Qualifications."

Clubwomen should note the change in time of this State broadcast—11:15
a. m.

General Federation

MOVING PICTURES. According to the Preview Committee, on which is the representative of the General Federation, the best pictures seen during the month August 15th to September 15th, which soon will be released, are "Berkeley Square," a remarkable version of a remarkable play; in charm and technical excellence it stands among the best of the year; "Ever in My Heart," an exquisitely produced, powerful and moving story of the tragic conflict introduced into an idyllically happy German-American marriage
by the World War; and "The World Changes," a remarkable story of the past three generations of America as seen through the rise and fall of one family, from emigrant days in Dakota to the fine young grandson who returns to the soil. This last is the only picture listed as for the family, the others being better suited to adults and possibly young people.

"Beauty for Sale," while a smart and clever picture is on the edge of vulgarity by numerous wise-cracks and broad hints.
The worldly wise type, is assuredly for ADULTS ONLY. A musical picture,
"Footlight Parade," is for Adults good of its kind—its selection as entertainment will depend upon audience reaction to the cast and enjoyment of its type—unconventional often rough.

A better musical one is "My Weakness," rhythmic, amusing, but still with unfortunate suggestive inferences.
Stories that will be entertaining and interesting FOR ADULTS are YOUNG PEOPLE include Brief Moment, Chance At Heaven, and One Sunday Afternoon, and FOR FAMILY
there are Midshipman Jack, Turn Back the Clock, Car Number Seven teen, Charlie Chan's Greatest Case (a bit exciting for children), Flaming Gold, and "one of the best of detective stories," The Kennel Murder Case (plot probably too complicated for children). Other stories not of such high grade entertainment, but fairly good, are Broadway to Hollywood, Saturday's Millions (drinking scenes), Shanghai Madness (stock picture of a stock story, usual Chinese type), and FOR ADULTS, Walls of Gold (one more story of the matrimonial complications of people not too well bred).

meeting, held last Monday, of the Newton Women's Educational Club.

About thirty-eight members and guests enjoyed a picnic lunch on the spacious verandas of the large house, at which Miss H. E. Vincent acts as hostess, after which two very worthwhile talks were given by Mr. John Chadwick and Mr. Richard Fraser, Amherst College graduates. These talks dealt with the care of house plants, shrubbery and bulbs. There was also an interesting display of pottery, hanging baskets, plants of various kinds, and perennials.

Mrs. Alfred E. Thayer, chairman of the American Home Class, and Mrs.
Percival Waters collaborated in presenting an amusing little talk, "Personality Readings."

Newton Circle

The first fall meeting of the Board of Directors of the Newton Circle was held at the home of Mrs. E. P. Brown, in Swampscott, on Friday, Sept. 29th, at 11 o'clock.

When the business was finished,
Mrs. Celia Wellman gave a very full account of her summer's work. She told of the needs among the unemployed, of the usual court cases, and of the adjustment of various family troubles that have come to her as social service worker and probation officer.

After the meeting luncheon was served.

Woman's Club of Newton Highlands

Mrs. Theron B. Walker, president of the Newton Highlands Woman's Club, opened the first meeting of the year last Tuesday afternoon in the Congregational Parish House by announcing the names of twenty-four new members.

William Yandell Elliott, chairman of the Department of Government at Harvard University, spoke on "The Peaceful Revolution of 1933," describing it as the most important Revolution since the Civil War. He commenced with the farm problem, stating that the farmers were partly responsible for their present condition, due to over production, mentioned the fast growing bureaucracy at Washington, and warned the audience to support the President and his policies, or they would have a new Dictator at Washington with the old Roman form of Government.

Mrs. Malcolm Green, State Federation secretary for the Club, gave a pleasing and interesting report of the State Federation Meeting at Swampscott last May.

Tea followed the afternoon program.

NEWTON WATER PROBLEMS

While Newton may have a modern water pumping plant the water, as it was the past week, is the subject of frequent complaint. It is continually being demonstrated that the growth of the city will mean a tie-up with the Metropolitan system, if not for the entire supply, at least to a far greater extent than we are doing at present.

LIQUOR LEGISLATION

A special session of the Legislature in order to frame liquor legislation will be called soon in all probability. The question of local option and of the return of the saloon are two points of paramount importance. Local option should be retained as in pre-prohibition days, and the return of the saloon should be prevented.

Congratulations to Street Commissioner George E. Stuart on his reappointment. He has served the city long and faithfully.

Shade Trees Cut Down to Widen Dedham Street

Work on the widening and surfacing of Dedham st. at Oak Hill was started on Monday. This project is being done under the General Law, which means that its cost will be borne by the taxpayers of the city. Considerable new real estate development is planned in the area served by this street and at a recent meeting of the Board of Aldermen appropriated $8655 for this work which will start at South Meadow Brook and continue for several hundreds of feet up the grade to the angle on the street.

The street will be widened from 49½ to 50 feet; but the actual widening of the traveled way will be much more as the street at the stretch to be improved has been surfaced for only about half its width. In the process of the work it will be necessary to cut down twenty-one shade trees.

Recent Deaths

FREDERIC W. LEATHERBEE

Mr. Frederic William Leatherbee, who died Friday, Sept. 29, at his home, 54 Oxford rd., Newton Centre, had been a resident of Newton for the past 30 years. He had been in the lumber business nearly all his business life being the third generation of his family and name in that occupation.

He was the son of William Bradford and Cecilia Shorey Leatherbee, formerly of Allston, the former being a civil war veteran.

On his father's side he numbered among his ancestors William Bradford, Governor of Plymouth Colony; Isaac Drew and Capt. Samuel Bradford of Duxbury, both of whom fought in the American Revolution, the latter having been with Washington at Valley Forge.

On his mother's side he was descended from Wentworth Lord who was at Ticonderoga with Ethan Allan and with Washington when he crossed the Delaware; also from Cutting Moulton who fought in the trenches at Bunker Hill. The Rev. Thomas Wells from whom Wells, Maine, was named was also one of his ancestors.

Mr. Leatherbee was a life member of the Columbian Lodge of Masons, Boston.

He is survived by his widow, formerly Alice Wetherbee of Boston; three daughters, Mrs. S. Frederic Martin and Miss Carol Leatherbee of Newton Centre; Mrs. Raymond Jensen of Arlington, N. J., a granddaughter, Marilyn Martin and by a sister, Mrs. J. W. F. Kennedy of Chestnut Hill.

The interment was at Evergreen Cemetery, Brighton, the Rev. Dr. John S. Lowe officiating at the services.

DONALD A. FERGUSON

Donald A. Ferguson of 40 Pelham st., Newton Centre, died on October 1. He was born in Cape Breton 69 years ago and had been a resident of Newton Centre for 45 years. He had been in business as a carpenter and builder. He was a trustee of the Newton Centre Methodist Episcopal Church and a member of Newton Lodge, I. O. O. F. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Steele Ferguson; a son, Norman E. Ferguson; and a daughter, Margaret A. Ferguson. His funeral service was held Wednesday afternoon at the Newton Centre Methodist Episcopal Church; Rev. John E. Winget officiated. Burial was in Newton Cemetery.

FRANCIS F. ROGERS

Francis F. Rogers of 315 Franklin st., Newton, died on October 2. He was born in Cambridge in 1876, and had resided in this city for years. He had conducted a large painting and decorating business in Boston. He was a member of the Boston City Club, the Cambridge Club, the Charitable Irish Society, Master Builders Association, Holy Name Society and Mt. Benedict Council Knights of Columbus, of which he was a past Grand Knight. His funeral service was held Wednesday morning at Our Lady's Church. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Louise Barnes Rogers; eleven children; two sisters, Margaret M. and Louise G. Rogers; and a brother, Dr. Leo A. Rogers of Somerville.

JOHN HUSBAND

John Husband of 95 Bellevue st., Newton died on October 2 at the Newton Hospital. He was born in Fife, Scotland, 74 years ago and had lived in Newton for the past 15 years. He had been employed as gardener by Charles E. Riley. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Anna (Aitken) Husband; and a daughter Mrs. Mildred McDonald of Boston. His funeral service was held Wednesday afternoon at his late home, Rev. Vaughan Dabney of Newton Theological School officiated. Burial was in Belmont Cemetery.

MRS. MARY E. PATERSON

Mrs. Mary E. Paterson of 449 Highland avenue, Newtonville, wife of Alexander Paterson, died on October 4. She was born in Newtonville, 68 years ago, the daughter of John and Elizabeth Irving. She is survived by her husband, and five sons—Lester Paterson of Newtonville, Norman Paterson of Lower Falls, Maxwell, Stewart and Ralph Paterson of Newtonville. Her funeral service will be held this afternoon at 3 at her late home, Rev. Randolph Merrill will officiate. Burial will be in Newton Cemetery. She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

HARRY L. SAWYER

Harry L. Sawyer of 628 Watertown st., Newtonville, died on Oct. 1. He was a native of Bradford, N. H., and had resided in Newtonville for nine years. Mr. Sawyer had been employed by the Commonwealth as an assistant bank examiner. He was a member of Central Congregational Church and his funeral service on Wednesday was conducted by Rev. Randolph Merrill of that church. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ella F. Sawyer, and one daughter, Natalie Sawyer.

MRS. MARGARET M. GREER

Mrs. Margaret M. Greer of 22 Waverley ave., Newton, wife of Thomas W. Greer, died on Oct. 3rd at St. Elizabeth's Hospital following a short illness. She was in her 61st year and had been a resident of Newton for about 20 years. Mrs. Greer was a native of Kilkenny, Ireland. She is survived by her husband; three sons, John Greer, Sherborn, David Greer of Newton and Thomas W. Greer, Jr., of Cambridge; and three daughters, Misses Margaret and Ellen Greer and Mrs. Mary Carlton, all of Newton. Her funeral service was held this morning at Our Lady of Presentation Church, Brighton, and burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham.

ONE THING AND ANOTHER

By L. D. G. Bentley

The principal crop remaining to be harvested are votes for Mayor and Aldermen, some of which are still under careful cultivation.

Oddments

Meeting a genial and obliging village postmaster in one of those delightful although remote corners of our beloved Berkshire Hills, I thought of the fortunes of politics and wondered if such an efficient man would be ousted because he belonged to that which is no longer the dominant party. When my host and I had driven some distance from the postoffice, I remarked, "Of course he will lose his job under the new administration." The reply was, "No, he's safe. No body else in town will take the job. I am still wondering whether to call such a Government official lucky or unlucky."

A full Summer in any vacation resort is certain to give one an intimate knowledge of the native residents and often produces some everlasting friendships. If the local people approve of you as a temporary guest they can make it pleasant indeed. Some friends of mine at a seaport town report glowingly of the kindness of the natives. The incident that topped all was the pausing of the rural letter carrier at the front gate long enough to fix the fishing tackle of the young master of the house.

"Cheaper to Move—"

"You must have missed me on the cars mornings so I feel I should drop you a line in explanation and also give you my new address," writes L. H. G. "We really decided to move very suddenly, which suddenness probably accounts in part for the breakage. My wife saw this new house and nothing would do but we must hire it and move in right away. I tried one whole night to argue her out of it but it was useless. In my mind, I like the country myself, in a way."

"So the next morning, after I had gone to work, she went out and hired the place and then called me up at the office and told me to get a furniture mover right away. Having a couple of trucks in the family, as I was, I got one of the drivers to help me out. My brother-in-law and I made up the rest of the crew."

"Well, to make a long story short, we're moved anyway and I don't think we lost anything by doing the job ourselves either. After all, furniture is cheap now and the stuff that got broken and can't be repaired, well, it probably was just about ready to fall apart anyway. I do wish I'd sent the pictures out by parcel post or something, though, but even that could be worse, because you can hang them up temporarily without glass and as long as we didn't break any mirrors, I guess we haven't anything to worry about. My wife held me personally responsible for those and, in fairness to myself, I must say that I didn't lose any of them."

"It was kind of too bad about the radio though. You see, I thought I'd be careful and so I took the tubes out and carried them separately, all wrapped up so they wouldn't break. They didn't either, but when I put them back in I must have got them in the wrong sockets, because the radio doesn't work any more."

"And, oh, yes, I forgot to mention. You know that quart I got last Christmas? Well that got broken. My brother-in-law dropped it, and while I think he's an uncommonly nice brother-in-law, I hardly think that was necessary, do you? But, well, you might as well be philosophical about those things. I must have got rid of it long ago, anyway."

"Well I got to go now and listen for the express train to whistle because I know then it's time for the local to come along so I can go to town. You see the clock doesn't go anymore, on account of getting dropped, so we sort of have to take our time and we find it I think I hear the whistle now. Will write again soon."

Don't Laugh at "Hicks"

Jocose references, illustrated and otherwise, to little theatre groups and their use of cattle and hay barns for playhouses have amused me by their wit and profusion this past Summer, although I am in sympathy with the stage and amateur acting and would not for the world utter a word of ridicule. But I was forced to laugh at the picture of the cow and her calf, driven from their warm and comfortable shelter to make way for a stage and auditorium. Also at that drawing depicting a friendly pig circulating among the fashionably dressed men and women who had stepped out for an entree cigarette at a barn performance.

Nevertheless, and I might add, notwithstanding the humor that amateur acting may inspire I beheld recently something that convinced me that cartoonists and jokesmiths in this line are a place where I spent several delightful days with a yearning for the little theatre—a youth, just turning 20, who hops out of bed at 5 o'clock every morning to milk 10 or 12 cows and after a day of hard work goes through the same thing at 5 p. m., with Sundays and holidays included. I chatted with him on day at milking time (afternoon session, you may be sure) and saw that in his hip pocket he had thrust a paper copy of a three-act play. I found him bright and engaging. Others assured me he was a first rate amateur actor.

Now if a young man who performs hard, rough and important farm work for long stretches every day of the week can find an interest in amateur dramatics—well, all I can say is that I'll bet he has his lines thoroughly learned and never misses a rehearsal. The people who have every minute of their lives crowded with something useful are much more apt to possess

Letters To The Editor

WANTS "NEW DEAL" ON WATER
October 2, 1933.

To the Editor,
I am compelled to express myself regarding the City of Newton water supply, because I know that many of our citizens are aroused by the very apparent breakdown in our water service and the inability of the administration to handle the situation. During the past week or ten days, especially over the past week end, members of my family have been attempting to satisfy their respective thirsts with ginger ale, milk, orange juice, 3.2 and other commercial beverages, due to the fact that our drinking water supply, although perhaps commercially pure and harmless to health, has been so disagreeably vile in odor and taste as to preclude its use for drinking purposes.

I have been a resident of the City for fourteen years and during that period there have been countless occasions when the water was unfit for human consumption and even unfit for cleansing purposes. I can almost say that at least once a week we, in our home, have experienced the sensation of witnessing a stream of chocolate-colored water come from the faucet intended for human consumption and cleansing purposes.

No doubt millions of gallons of water have been run by the patient and long-suffering tax payers, in search of clear, clean and wholesome water for which said tax payers have certainly, in the past and are at the present, paying a tremendous price.

Although we have been seriously inconvenienced many times by the collapse of our water service, I have never received any rebate or allowance on my water tax bill. I am informed that the current trouble is due to the fact that the water was inadvertently "over treated." I wonder how long a doctor or a business man would last in our City if the patients were "over treated" and/or the customers were "over treated" as often as our water tax paying citizens have been and are "over treated."

Having in mind the age of our City, its population of about 65,000, its valuation according to the assessor's figures, its proximity to the City of Boston and the availability of the Metropolitan Water supply, is it not time, if we intend to maintain the City as an attractive and healthy residential community, to seek a more modern and intelligent water supply administration?

I think that many citizens will agree that we are entitled to the best water available and that no longer should we attempt to use water obtained from obsolete and unsanitary supply sources, especially in view of the fact that the Metropolitan Water Supply rates extremely high and is available to our City.

A pioneer going into uncleaned territory pitches his tent near a supply of pure water. All travellers confine their wanderings to parts where pure water may be obtained for drinking purposes.

We, in the City, have experienced the delightful sensation of pure and palatable water on occasions when connected with the Metropolitan water supply, but for some unknown reason, we have been and are forced to use unpalatable and unsanitary water, possibly because it can be supplied at "bargain counter prices", although the tax payer sees no reflection of "bargain counter prices" on his water tax bill.

I suggest for myself and for those who are suffering in silence, "a new deal" regarding the City of Newton water supply.

Very truly yours, W. H.

LIQUOR SELLER GETS SUSPENDED SENTENCE

John Lawlor, who conducts a second-hand furniture store at 10 Pearl Court, Newton, was found guilty in the Newton court on Monday of making an illegal sale of liquor to Patrolman Hunt of the Newton police, and of keeping liquor for sale. On the first charge he was given a suspended jail sentence of three months, and on the second charge a suspended sentence of six months.

NEWTONVILLE MAN FINED $800

Ronald H. Hartley of Lowell ave., Newtonville, was fined $800 in the Superior Court at Portland, Maine, on Wednesday when he was found guilty after having been indicted on a charge of manslaughter. A jail sentence of eight months was suspended and he was placed on probation. Hartley was the driver of a car which was involved in a fatal accident at New Gloucester, Maine on September 7.

The necessary qualities for amateur dramatics or any vocation worth while. At any rate I'm not laughing at the rural theatre.

PARAMOUNT THEATRE, NEWTON

The Paramount Theatre at Newton announces for the coming week two of the screen's greatest stars and two wonderful pictures, namely Marlene Dietrich in "Song of Songs" the first half and Katharine Hepburn in "Morning Glory" the last half with two good co-features to accompany them.

Miss Dietrich who has hitherto appeared as a sophisticated worldly woman, is revealed in her new production as an innocent young country girl of rare beauty who goes to Berlin and is flitted by a handsome young sculptor, Brian Aherne who has been referred to as the most romantic actor in New York plays of years past.

Never has there been a star climb the ladder of success in filmdom as Katharine Hepburn. Success after success has been her good fortune and now in "Morning Glory" is another step to further stardom. Miss Hepburn seizes the opportunity to display an appealing, natural warmth as an actress, keen technique and a versatility which we almost missed in her other pictures.

The management announces vaudeville to begin Saturday evening, Oct. 7, featuring five acts of very high class entertainment and Hal Freed and his orchestra in the pit. Last season the vaudeville was very pleasing and was well attended. The vaudeville will open the Saturday Night performance at 7:45.

About Town

By Edward H. Powers

With the opening of headquarters by Thomas W. White at 419 Centre st., Newton, the mayoralty campaign in this city enters on another phase. Mayor Weeks' forces have been in the field for several months. His engineers and pioneer companies have been quite active. During the next two months the artillery of the Weeks and White armies will get into action. There will be some real bar battles during November. General White, a veteran political warrior, will, undoubtedly, use high explosives in the attack on the Weeks citadel and the staff of the reigning ruler of Newton is preparing a counter attack.

Although there are already five combatants in the Newton mayoralty fight, it is not a battle royal. Only two of the contestants, Weeks and White, have any real chance of winning. Of the other three candidates, Mr. Hodgson is the only one who has an extensive acquaintance in this city. He is a native and life long resident of Newton, served in the Board of Aldermen for two years, in 1926 and 1927, and in the latter year had the courage (or rashness) to run against Hon. Edwin O. Childs for the office of Mayor. In the election of 1927 only about 50 per cent of the registered voters in Newton went to the polls. Of the 11,826 votes cast, Mr. Childs received 8840; Mr. Hodgson 2562. The vote obtained by Mr. Hodgson in 1927 cannot be taken as a criterion of the vote he will receive this year, if he does not withdraw. He received in 1927 many votes from citizens who were not friendly, politically, to Mr. Childs, and who will vote this year for either Mr. Weeks or Mr. White. On the other hand, Mr. Hodgson would receive this year votes from some of the former supporters of Mr. Childs. But, in our opinion he will receive fewer votes, if he runs, than he received in 1927. We do not say this in a disparaging manner. Mr. Hodgson is a likeable, deserving young man who showed commendable independence while a member of the Board of Aldermen. But, the great majority of the voters of Newton realize that the real battle will be between Weeks and White and they will vote for either one of these two.

The fourth and fifth candidates are Paul Harris Drake of Pembroke and Newton and Frank H. Sullivan of Neshobe rd., Waban. Neither one, in our opinion, will be a serious factor in the contest. Neither is widely known throughout the city. Mr. Drake is a comparative newcomer; having resided here for several years. We have the pleasure of knowing Mr. Drake. He is a college graduate, a former clergyman, a man of intelligence and sincerity. He is an idealist and very radical in his political views. In fact, he is so radical that he will be considered impractical by most of Newton's voters; this being a quite conservative city. Mr. Sullivan registered as a voter in Newton on September 28, 1926. He is little known throughout the city and, in our belief, will receive but few votes.

There have been rumors and reports that there will be a six candidate in the mayoralty contest. A candidate who will run as a dyed in the wool member of the Democratic party, although city elections in Newton are conducted on a non-partisan basis. With such prominent members of the Republican party as Weeks and White opposing one another, there are Democrats in the city who honestly believe that there is a chance for a member of this party to slip in, provided he would receive the bulk of the Democratic vote. These Democrats justify the injecting of partisan politics into the coming fight on the ground that the Republican City Committee for some years has been taking an active part (on a partisan basis) in our city elections. But, in our opinion, there are other Democrats in Newton men who are enrolled members of the party, who have been suggesting a Democratic candidate because of ulterior motives. These men have been, and are very friendly to one of the two leading candidates for the office of Mayor. They would like to see a Democratic candidate because they believe such a candidate would obtain many votes that might otherwise be cast for the other of the two leading candidates. We believe they are mistaken.

Two of the men frequently mentioned as being most likely to run as the Democratic candidate reside in Newton Centre. Neither has resided in Newton for many years. They are not well acquainted with Newton's past political history. If they were, they would realize how remote is the chance of either receiving a majority of the Democratic votes at the coming city election. They would remember what occurred in 1901 when William H. Baker opposed John W. Weeks for Mayor. Mr. Baker was an energetic eloquent lawyer, the moving spirit in the organizing of the then Jefferson Club of Newton. Old timers remember the enthusiasm he instilled into that organization at its meetings in the old Congregational Church building at Newtonville. He waged a vigorous campaign against Mr. Weeks and he lost the election by 911 votes. And one reason he lost that election was the fact that shortly before election day a large percentage of the supposedly loyal members of the then Democratic Ward and City Committee deserted Mr. Baker and worked in the interest of his Republican opponent. With two such strong candidates running this year as Weeks and White, any other candidate who would be led to believe that he could depend on solid Democratic support, would be sadly disillusioned on December 12, 1933.

There are some men in this city who are quite embarrassed because of the fact that Mr. Weeks and Mr. White are opponents. These men have been the recipients of favors from both these mayoralty candidates. They are, up to the present time, endeavoring to appear neutral. It is going to be difficult for them to keep up this appearance.

Auto Breaks Pole On Franklin St.

An automobile driven by George V. Bryson of 10 Wiltshire court, Newton, hit a pole at Franklin street and Watertown rd., Newton, on Tuesday night at 8:50. The pole snapped off near its base and fell across the street dragging electric wires with it. Police guarded the street until Edison workmen removed the pole and wires. Bryson was forced to drive his car towards the sidewalk when another car crowded him.

Request Sermon At Lincoln Park

In response to the interest shown last Sunday morning by the Lincoln Park Baptist Church congregation on the subject of the Christian way of meeting suffering, the pastor, Rev. John Shade Franklin, will preach a second sermon on that topic under the title, "Bearing Versus Using," this Sunday morning.

MORSE—GEORGE

On Tuesday evening at a ceremony in Trinity Church at Newton Centre Miss Doris George, daughter of Mrs. Janet B. George of 21 Clark street, Newton Centre, became the bride of Carlton Lorin Morse, also of Newton Centre, son of Mrs. Etta B. Morse of Branch Hill, Milton.

The bride, who wore a gown of ivory velvet with a veil wreathed in orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley, was attended by Mrs. Andrew N. Simpson of Swanton, Pa., as matron of honor, Miss Elsie E. Wilkie of Newton Centre and Miss Eleanor Morse, sister of the groom, were her bridesmaids. Mrs. Simpson wore pearly blue velvet and carried tulleman roses and the bridesmaids wore gowns of capucine velvet and carried brown chrysanthemums.

Wallace A. Morse, a brother of the groom, was his best man. The ushers were Mr. A. George and Kenneth P. George, brothers of the groom. Edward V. Garbo, a brother of the groom, and after a wedding trip to Bermuda Mr. and Mrs. Morse will be at home at 61 Halcyn road, Newton Centre, after Oct. 23rd.

The above described land is shown on a plan filed with said petition and all boundary lines are claimed to be located on the ground as shown on plan No. 12961.

If you desire to make any objection or defense to said petition you or your attorney must file a written appearance and an answer under oath, setting forth clearly and specifically your objections or defense to each part of said petition, in the office of the Recorder of said Court in Boston (at the Court House), on or before the thirtieth day of October next.

Unless an appearance is so filed by you or for you, your default will be recorded, the said petition will be taken as confessed and you will be forever barred from contesting said petition or any decree entered thereon.

Witness the hand of said Court, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this fourth day of October in the year nineteen hundred and thirty-three.

Attest with Seal of said Court.

CHARLES A. SOUTHWORTH, Recorder.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Charles L. Buckman to William H. White, dated October 17, 1925, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 4094, Page 449, of which mortgage the undersigned is the present holder and owner, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction on the parcel of land first hereinafter described on Monday, the 30th day of October, 1933, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, to-wit:

The following parcels of land with the buildings thereon in that part of Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts called West Newton, and bounded and described as follows:

First. A parcel of land situated on the Easterly side of Dunstan Street, and being lot 3 as shown on a plan of the Jernam Estate in West Newton made by E. S. Snille, Surveyor, dated November 7, 1917, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Plan Book 94, Plan 33, as bounded and described as follows: Westerly by Middlesex South District Street, fifty-six and 7/10 (56.67) feet; Northerly by Chesapeake Brook one hundred thirty-one and 7/10 (131.7) feet; Easterly by land now or formerly of Jennison eighty-two and 1/2 (82.4) feet, and Southerly by lot 7 as shown on said plan one hundred twenty-nine and 5/10 (129.5) feet, containing 3990 square feet, be all or any of said measurements more or less. Being the same premises conveyed to me by Richard H. Hunt et al. by deed dated February 8, 1917, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 349, Page 349, and being hereby conveyed subject to and with the benefit of the provisions of an agreement dated April 1, 1924 and recorded with said Deeds, Book 4716, Page 411.

Second. A parcel of land situated on the Easterly side of Dunstan Street, being lot 3 as shown on the above mentioned plan, bounded and described as follows: Westerly by said Dunstan Street sixty (60) feet; Northerly by lot 9 as shown on said plan one hundred twenty-nine and 5/10 (129.5) feet; Easterly by land now or formerly of Jennison sixty (60) feet, and Southerly by lot 5 as shown on said plan one hundred twenty-nine and 5/10 (129.5) feet; being the same premises conveyed to me by Richard H. Hunt et al., Trustees, by deed dated December 10, 1920, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 4431, Page 582.

Third. A parcel of land situated on the Easterly side of said Dunstan Street, being lot 5 on the above mentioned plan, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point one hundred and five (105) feet Northerly from Washington Street on said Dunstan Street and running Easterly by land formerly of Henry H. Hunt and in part by land now or late of Ellen F. C. Tabot one hundred thirty and 7/10 (130.71) feet to land now or formerly of Furubush, thence turning and running Northerly by said land of Furubush sixty (60) feet to other land formerly of said Hunt one hundred twenty-nine and 5/10 (129.5) feet, and thence turning and running Westerly by said land mentioned land one hundred twenty-nine and 5/10 (129.5) feet to the Easterly line of said Dunstan Street; thence turning and running Southerly by said Dunstan Street sixty (60) feet to the point of beginning. Being the same premises conveyed to me by Marguerite Mary Hussey by deed dated July 23, 1924, and herewith to be recorded. Said premises are conveyed subject to a prior mortgage given by me to Fredrick L. Olmsted et al., Trustees, for $10,000.00.

Said premises will be sold subject to all outstanding tax titles, unpaid taxes, municipal liens and assessments, and $500.00 will be required in cash at time and place of sale; other terms announced at sale.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Charles Azab, of Boston in the County of Suffolk and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, single person, to the Marlborough Savings Bank, a corporation duly established under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and having its usual place of business in said Marlborough, Middlesex County, Massachusetts, dated June 8, 1928, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 5249, Page 532, for breach of the conditions of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same will be sold at public auction on the thirtieth day of October, 1933, on the premises hereinafter described, all and singular, the premises substantially described in said mortgage, to-wit:

"A certain parcel of land with the buildings now or in the process of construction thereon, situated on the Easterly side of Fellsmere Road in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts and being shown as lot No. 19 on a plan drawn by Rowland H. Barnes and Henry F. Beal, C. E. dated January 1928, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Plan Book 370, plan 12, and bounded and described as follows:

Southeasterly on Fellsmere Road eighty-five (85) feet.

Northeasterly by Lot 20 on said plan one hundred (100) feet.

Northwesterly by Lot 12 on said plan one hundred (100) feet.

Southwesterly by Lot 18 on said plan one hundred (100) feet.

Containing 5,500 square feet, more or less.

Being the same premises conveyed to me by Harry A. Johnson by his deed dated February 1, 1928 and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds Book 4193, Page 1045.

Said premises are subject to any and all restrictions and rights of record now in force and applicable. For reference to the same see Book 5173, Page 356."

Said premises will be sold subject to any and all unpaid taxes, tax liens, tax titles, unpaid water rates and municipal assessments thereon, if any there be.

Wherefore, I, the undersigned, Treasurer of the Marlborough Savings Bank, do hereby give notice that letters of delivery of the usual foreclosure deed within ten (10) days thereafter at the banking house in the Marlborough Savings Bank, 32 Mechanic Street, Marlborough, Massachusetts.

Fined $85; Speeded And Lied to Police

It cost Henry Prince, Jr., colored, of Worcester $50 to lie to Traffic Officer Dowling. He was fined that amount in the Newton court yesterday by Judge Bacon. Henry was also fined $25 for driving without a license and $10 for speeding. Mr. Prince was stopped on the Worcester pike by Dowling and posed as Harry B. Elliott of Worcester, whose license he was using. He was given three weeks to raise the $85. A summons was also issued for Elliott to appear in court. It was stated that he is at present in Virginia, and he will be ordered to appear at West Newton on December 23 to tell the judge why he allowed someone else to take his driving license.

Mayor Withdraws Recommendations On Reservoir Plan

A regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held on Monday night. The only absentee was Alderman Cordingley. The meeting, scheduled to commence at 7:45, started at 8:15. About a half dozen citizens were present. Hearings were announced on petitions of the Telephone Company for a pole location on Montrose st., and the Edison Company for permission to place poles on certain streets and replacing the overhead wires by underground conduits. The locations where these changes are to be made include—Beacon st., between Collins rd. and Woodward st.; Windsor rd., between Beacon st. and Kinross rd.; Highland st., between Margin and Washington sts. Alderman Holden inquired regarding whether the locations specified are in residence or business zones. Where electric service is placed underground, householders have in some cases been put to considerable expense paying for the installation.

Other hearings announced were those on the widening of Dedham st., grading and accepting Cushing st., Newton Highlands; Stuart rd., Newton Centre; and laying sewers in Stuart rd. and West Boulevard rd., Newton Centre. No opposition developed against any of these petitions.

At 8:25 the usual recess was taken to permit the Board to go into secret session regarding the building of the proposed incinerator. The Aldermen were in conference with Harrison P. Eddy of the firm of Metcalf & Eddy, who will be the supervising engineers on the project; City Solicitor Bartlett, City Engineer Morse and Building Commissioner Hageman. The secret session lasted for about an hour and a half and the open meeting was resumed at 10 o'clock.

A communication was received from Mayor Weeks withdrawing his recommendation that the water reservoir at Waban Hill be enlarged; this project to be financed by a loan from the NRA. Another communication was from the School Committee approving of the three school projects to be financed by the NRA. These are a new grade school at Nevada st., Newtonville; and additions to the Bigelow and Day junior high schools. Other petitions were from L. J. Will to make Standish st. a one-way street; George S. Wilbur for a renewal of the permit to use machinery and equipment at the gravel pits on Wiswall rd., Oak Hill; Mrs. Tillie Karol, claim for injuries by falling into a hole in Woodland rd.; Newton Centre Women's Exchange, damage caused by a water pipe bursting. Four more claims for alleged damages to houses, caused by blasting in the new sewer, were presented. They are from James P. Donovan, 249 Tremont st.; William J. Daly, 59 Playstead rd.; Anna Gustafson, 32 Winchester rd.; Emma Menge, 9 Mount Ida st.

The Liberty Motor Mart asked for permission to transfer its place of business and deal in second-hand cars from 1203 Washington st., West Newton to 780 Beacon st., Newton (Continued on page 4)

Aldermen Re-Vote For Incinerator; Three Opposed

Project Now Has More Than Two-Thirds Vote Necessary

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night was again voted to build an incinerator which will cost $200,000. This was the second time the Board voted favorably on this matter. The first vote was found to be invalid because only 13 of the Aldermen voted in favor of the project and a two-thirds vote, or 14, is required. Of the twenty members present on Monday night, 17 voted for the incinerator; 3 voted against. Those voting for it were Aldermen Bowen, Chandler, Collins, Farrell, Floyd, Gallagher, Gordon, Grebenstein, Hawkins, Hill, Holden, Howlett, Hutchinson, Jamieson, McKay, Murray, Pratt. The three voting in the negative were—Cronin, Sproat, Temperley.

Alderman Sproat said he had voted against the incinerator when this matter was before the Aldermen a few meetings previous, not because he is opposed to an incinerator, but because more important projects should come before it. He said he was pleased with the Mayor's communication to the Board which stated that he will recommend work on streets, sewers and sidewalks before he recommends the enlargement of the water reservoir in order to provide work for the unemployed. Sproat said these projects should come before the incinerator.

Alderman Cronin said he agreed with Sproat. He said the NRA funds were created to relieve unemployment, that there is no pressing need for an incinerator now, and the $200,000 which will be expended on it should be put to better purposes. It should be used to provide work for unemployed men of Newton to relieve them and their families and enable them to have a little money to buy the necessities of life. Alderman Gordon said the incinerator is not a luxury and will permit clean filling material for the several city dumps. Alderman Gallagher said the incinerator will provide for the disposal of garbage, and this is important in case the State and towns will pass laws and ordinances forbidding the cartage of garbage over highways. This argument of Gallagher's was interesting in view of the fact that it has been stated that no garbage will be burned in the proposed incinerator. Gallagher also said that while he deplored the Mayor's decision not to enlarge the water reservoir, he is having to have this project postponed because of the other projects planned to relieve the unemployed. Alderman Grebenstein also favored the building of the incinerator.

Alderman Temperley said the incinerator project can well wait until the unemployed men in the city have had a chance to earn some money for themselves and their families. By using $200,000 to give some work to Newton's unemployed, the amounts necessary for Welfare and Soldiers' relief will be decreased. Alderman Gallagher who has a proclivity for quoting alleged statistics, said that 50% of the cost of the incinerator will be paid for labor. He asked Alderman Murray if this estimate is not correct? Murray replied that it is, according to the figures of City Engineer Morse. Murray also said that while work on streets and sidewalks cannot be done in winter months, work on the incinerator can. Alderman Cronin asked Murray to give figures showing the estimated cost of material and labor on the incinerator and Murray said he had not these figures.

Alderman Temperley said that much of the labor on the incinerator will be labor other than that of Newton residents, and unskilled laborers here will not get much work. Alderman Murray answered, claiming that much of the labor on the incinerator will be unskilled, and then will come employment for bricklayers and ironworkers. He said that most of the work will be given to Newton men. Alderman Sproat asked where the furnaces for the incinerator are to be built, who is going to build them, and where will they be set up? His questions were not answered other than Alderman Murray said that these furnaces will be constructed of fire brick, with only the flues and doors of iron, thus giving work to bricklayers.

It was not stated where the new incinerator will be located, but, according to such information as has drifted from the secret meetings of the Aldermen on this matter, the plan is to locate the building at the Street Department yard on Elliot st., Newton Highlands.

Many Delegates Attend Regional R. C. Conference

Newton Chapter Host to 100 Mass. Chapters

The all-day Regional Conference of over 100 Massachusetts Chapters of the American Red Cross was held on Tuesday at the Brae Burn Country Club in West Newton with a representative attendance. About two hundred and fifty delegates attended the conference which opened at ten o'clock and which was presided over by Donald Angier, chairman of the Newton Chapter. The committee in charge of the conference comprised Mrs. Vernon B. Sweet, chairman, Mrs. Marcus Morton, Mrs. James Dunlop, Mr. Henry H. Kendall, and Mr. William H. Rice.

"Discouragement among the unemployed is the worst foe at present," declared Thomas E. Green, national director of the Red Cross, in charge of the conference. The speaker at the afternoon session, Mr. Walter Davidson, assistant manager of the Eastern Area of the American Red Cross, was also a prominent speaker in a group which included Mayor Sinclair Weeks of Newton, Miss Charlotte Raymond, nutritionalist of the Newton Chapter, Miss Maudie Lewis, assistant director of the Junior Red Cross, Miss Helen Bean, State Nursing Field Representative, and Mrs. Joel Barnes, Volunteer Service.

Mr. Angier called the conference to order and introduced Mayor Sinclair Weeks as the first speaker.

Mr. Weeks stated that he had had experience of a personal nature with the Red Cross, starting back in 1918, and has a very favorable impression of the Red Cross and its work. He said that many people are doing in their impressions that the Red Cross is an organization functioning in two emergencies; in time of war and great disaster. He went on to say that the average individual does not appreciate the constant work Red Cross is carrying on and in the past year in Newton, 1 1/2 million socks and four or 2 million garments were distributed by the Red Cross. Also, Mayor Weeks stated, the Red Cross has been of great assistance in the preparation of diets and the distribution of food and menus which are available to the people receiving aid from the City of Newton.

Mr. Angier then introduced Mr. Walter Davidson, Assistant Manager of the Eastern Area who spoke on "Planning the 1933 Roll Call." He stated that the American Red Cross cannot function in emergencies unless schooled in acts of service as days go by. He cited cases of different Chapters' ways of systematic methods of making and distributing clothing. He asked the members present to feel free to express themselves on the subject of planning the 1933 Roll Call. He stressed the importance of having competent people to carry on the service, and know where they are heading before they start any undertaking. A few of the many things or services Red Cross has to offer are Public Health Nursing, Home Hygiene, First Aid, Junior Red Cross, Home Service and Ex-Service Men. A national organization might well be planned and operated around any one of the services of Red Cross. We must sample them and take the type of service best for our community. It is necessary to have organizations that will function over the entire country and other countries if needed.

The Red Cross, Mr. Davidson went on to say, is not just another Relief Agency, but has carried on and will continue to carry on and is always there with the service when the need arises. The membership of Red Cross last year was 300,000 and it is necessary to have 5,000,000 members as reserve is about exhausted.

Luncheon was served and the Afternoon Session opened by the Chairman, Mr. Donald Angier at 1:00. He introduced Dr. Thomas E. Green, National Director, Speakers' Bureau, American National Red Cross who spoke on "The Red Cross, a Permanent Asset in Community and Nation."

Dr. Green's speech was of particular interest and he states that there will always be a need of the Red Cross and that in the 17 years that he has worked for Red Cross, wonderful things have been accomplished. He spoke of the work and care of the poor and needy, who perhaps through no fault of their own would otherwise, without the Red Cross to assist them, suffer tremendously. Even way back in the year 413, stated Dr. Green, the King at that time stated after the 7 years' drought had been upon the land of a certain ancient country, that for every poor man to die of starvation, a rich man would be killed. It is said that that year, only one rich man was killed. Now, days there are no such drastic steps taken if the poor are forsaken, but we must strive to keep up the wonderful work which the Red Cross has always and will always do, the caring for our poor and needy. He ended his speech very effectively with the poem that ends with "let me live in a house by the side of the road and be a friend to man."

At 2:00 there was a Forum: "Red Cross Service in Relation to Changing Conditions," led by Mr. Walter Davidson, with a discussion by Chapter representatives.

Mr. Davidson stated that we are living in a different world today than we were three years ago and today Red Cross adjusts itself to the situation as we find it. He went on to say that the British and the Am-

Plans Being Made For School Projects Under NRA Funds

Construction Expected to Start Within Two Months

Plans for the new grade school on Nevada st., Newtonville, and for the additions to the Bigelow and Day junior high schools are being prepared. The architects for these schools have been selected. The architect for the large grade school to be erected at Newtonville is Ralph C. Henry of 86 Nonantum st., Newton. Mr. Henry was the architect of the John W. Weeks junior high school erected in 1930 at Newton Centre. The architect for the addition to the Bigelow School is Hubert G. Ripley of Birch Hill rd., Newtonville. He was architect of the Levi Warren junior high school at West Newton, which was erected several years ago. The architect for the addition to the Day School is James H. Ritchie of Ledges rd., Newton Centre. Mr. Ritchie was the architect of the new district court and police headquarters buildings at West Newton, erected in 1931.

The grade school at Newtonville will be built on a lot of land on Nevada st. between Linwood ave. and California st. The estimated cost of this structure and its furnishings is $248,400 and it will contain 20 class rooms. It will relieve the overcrowding at the Stearns and Horace Mann Schools and cause the abandonment of the Adams School at the corner of Watertown and Crafts sts., Newtonville, is one of the oldest school buildings in the city. The Barnard School, on Shaw st., West Newton, another old building, has been used in recent years to house the classes of backward children. Rooms for these classes will be provided in the new school building. Portable school buildings which have been used at the Horace Mann School for several years will be no longer necessary when the Nevada st. school will be completed. In addition to discontinuing the Adams and Barnard schools, it is also being planned to abandon the Elliot School on Pearl st., Nonantum. Some of the children attending this latter school reside east of Watertown st. and protests may be expected if it is decided to compel these small children to cross Watertown st., a heavily traveled traffic artery.

The estimated cost of the addition to the Bigelow School is $148,800, including furnishings. The addition will be to the present building, the old school building there and Park st. It will be about 30 feet from Park st. It will provide six new class rooms, a cafeteria, locker rooms, stage for the auditorium and a storage room for chairs, in addition to other smaller rooms. The addition to the Day School will be erected at the northwest end of the present building. It will cost $60,700 and will provide four additional class rooms, a large playroom in the basement and auxiliary rooms. Extensive changes to the heating plants will be made both at the Bigelow and Day Schools. Inasmuch as the funds for the erection of the new buildings are being obtained through the NRA, it will be necessary to submit plans to the administration at Washington. It is expected that work on these buildings may start in about two months.

NEWTON GIRL HURT IN CAR CRASH

Cars driven by Fred Dorton of Peabody st., Newton, and Russell Hammond of Waltham collided at Washington and Church sts., Newton, on Saturday night. Phyllis Pingree of 25 Wesley st., Newton, who was riding in Dorton's car, received an injury to her head. She was treated by Dr. Davenport.

Weeks' Workers In Wards 3 and 7 Discuss Plans

Working organizations in behalf of Mayor Sinclair Weeks' campaign for re-election were effected in Newton and West Newton at meetings on Tuesday evening in the Neighborhood Club in West Newton and the Hunnewell Club in Newton. Both meetings, like a number of others which have been held in various sections of the city, were well attended.

Charles E. Hatfield, former Mayor, presided at the organization meeting in West Newton, and urged staunch support of Mayor Weeks. Others who spoke were Aldermen Benjamin J. Bowen, Maynard Hutchinson and Bernard D. Farrell, Jr., of Ward 3; Alderman Charles B. Floyd of Auburn, Richard M. Orr of West Newton, and Mayor Weeks.

At the Ward 7 meeting in the Hunnewell Club, George E. Rawson presided, and Mayor Weeks spoke. There was a general discussion of campaign plans in which Mrs. Ralph C. Henry, Alderman Joseph J. Murray, Alderman Floyd and others took part. Among the Mayor's supporters present was Alderman Frederick A. Hawkins.

Aldermanic Candidates Still Increase

The list of those who will be candidates for the Board of Aldermen at the coming city election has been further increased. In Ward 5 Thomas H. King of 1317 Beacon st., Waban, has taken out nomination papers for the office of Ward Alderman from Ward 5. He is a life-long resident of that section. The present Ward Alderman, James R. Chandler of Ridge rd., Waban, is now serving his fourth term. Prior to Mr. Chandler's term of service the aldermen from Waban limited their tenure to three years, but it is probable that Mr. Chandler will again be a candidate.

In Ward 2 Reuben Kilgman of 456 Watertown st., Newtonville, has again taken out papers. He will be a candidate for the office of Alderman-at-Large, making the fourth candidate for this office. The others are the present incumbent—George W. Grebenstein, W. Clarence Lodge, and John Moorhead. Kilgman was an unsuccessful candidate for this office in 1929.

Arrested While Looting House

Last Friday night Patrolman Riley discovered two men removing steal radiators, piping and other material from the large dwelling on Cotton st., Newton, formerly occupied by the DeWitt Clinton School. This building was badly damaged by fire a couple of years ago. Riley arrested the pair and they were arraigned in the Newton court on Saturday morning. John Grandman, 32, of 24 Newtonville avenue, Newton, was found guilty of larceny of the articles from the house and sentenced to serve 3 months in Middlesex County prison. For trespassing he was fined $25. Charles Miller of Linden Way, Watertown, arrested with Grandman, told the judge that the latter had hired him to bring the radiators and carry away the radiators and other material and that he supposed Grandman had permission to take them. Miller was found not guilty.

Newton Community Chest To Seek Fund Of $213,000 Soon

Calling upon the people of Newton to mobilize for the prevention of human suffering, Mayor Sinclair Weeks yesterday issued a proclamation setting aside the period from Nov. 1st to 10th to be devoted to the cause of the Newton Community Chest. It was also announced yesterday by the Board of Directors of the Chest that the goal of the campaign will be $212,754, or in round numbers $213,000. Of this amount, $79,040 will be devoted to the care of the sick and aged, $78,189 will be used for relief and family welfare work, and $34,525 will be allocated to the character-building agencies. The sum of $12,000 is reserved for possible shrinkage in the collection of pledges, campaign expense amounts to $5,000, and administration of the Chest during 1934 will cost $4,000.

The Mayor's proclamation reads as follows:

"Recovery has not yet come to our Community in full measure and the approach of another winter confronts us again with the human problem of providing more tolerable living conditions for our unfortunate fellow citizens."

"Concerted effort will bring about best results in our campaign against depression, and for that reason the combined strength of the welfare and character-forming agencies of the city has been recruited and organized once more under the banner of the Newton Community Chest. To the people of Newton, the Chest offers an opportunity to invest money in a corporation whose sole aim is for the improvement of Newton, and the prevention of human suffering."

"I, therefore, Mayor of the City of Newton, call upon the residents of this city to mobilize to meet the emergency. First, by making ready to assume responsibilities as workers in the campaign from Nov. 1st to 10th. Second, by spreading throughout the city the news of the approaching crisis, the third, by giving generously, conscientiously and wholeheartedly to the Newton Community Chest."

"And I hereby set aside the period from Nov. 1st to Nov. 10th, to be devoted to the cause of the Newton Community Chest."

"We pray that this may be the last winter of depression. It is within our hands and is our duty to see that no victims are claimed in the coming months from among the more mature of our citizens, or from the children, less able to take care of themselves. The Community Chest points the way to relief and safety."

SINCLAIR WEEKS,
Mayor, City of Newton."

Liquor Raid At Nonantum

James H. Smith of 316 California st., Nonantum, was arrested on Wednesday night charged with making an illegal sale of liquor, and with keeping liquor for sale. Prior to Smith's arrest, the police allege that Patrolman McCormick went to the California st. address in civilian clothing and bought a pint of alcohol from Smith. A squad of police then raided the house and seized 90 quarts of beer and various articles alleged to have been used in the selling of liquor. The police engaged in the raid included Captain Veduccio, Sergeant Moran, Patrolman McCormick and Special Officers Feeley and Mullen. Smith was arraigned in the Newton court yesterday and his case was continued until Oct. 16.

NEWTON PASSES BRING 19-7 WIN OVER WATERTOWN

Charlie Flagg's passes and Jimmy Byrne's catches and Jimmy Byrne's reception of Charlie Flagg's passes was the outstanding feature of Newton High's 19 to 7 victory over a scrappy Watertown eleven last week Saturday at the Dickinson Stadium in Newtonville. The victory gave Newton its second win in three starts. Two of the three orange and black touchdowns were due to the Flagg-Byrne combination while the third was hung up by "Red" McCarthy at the end of a series of rushes after Newton had recovered a Watertown fumble on the latter's 15-yard stripe.

Newton started off in the opening minutes of the game like wildfire and gave indications of literally flying away from the invaders. Charlie Mascia brought the local fans to their feet with a 25-yard gallop through the right side of the Watertown line to put the ball on Watertown's eight-yard line. McCarthy was nailed for an eight-yard loss as he tried to duplicate Mascia's stunt on the left side. Flagg dropped back and tossed a bullet-like pass right into the arms of Jimmy Byrne on the eight yard line and the Newton right and raced across the goal line untouched. The try at point failed.

The Newton score failed to disturb the scrappy Watertown eleven and they went to work with determination to tie up the score. As the two teams battled back and forth near midfield Watertown drew two 15-yard penalties for holding by Newton and then Watertown got possession of the ball again. Caporiccio unfurled a long pass to his left end, Bond, who raced into the open with a clear field ahead. Sandy Sloane, Newton halfback, raced across the space between himself and Bond as the latter began to put on speed and Sloane tackled Newton's left end with a smashing tackle. Bond fumbled and Charlie Flagg recovered for Newton to avert the threatening score.

In the second period Watertown again threatened and after repeated attempts could not be denied after Newton had successfully stalled off the score for several minutes. Two successful passes from Caporiccio to Daughters and Fisk to Caporiccio put the ball on Newton's two-yard line. Captain Charlie Thompson and his mates in the Newton forward wall withstood the Watertown onslaught for three plays. On the fourth rush Fisk carried and fumbled as he was about to cross the goal line. The referee's decision that he had fumbled before going over gave Newton the ball within a yard of the goal line. Y. M. C. A.

The 1933 Open House at the "Y" will be held Wednesday evening, Oct. 18th, at 7:30 o'clock P. M. An interesting program has been arranged. The evening will start off with a squash racquets match between Tom Jansen and Ralph Stuart, two of Newton's star players. Gymnasium events, swimming meet and bowling will follow. This is an opportunity to see the "Y" in action in all its departments. There has been a large increase in membership since Sept. 1st and it is hoped to make a record enrollment before January. In these days of depression and doubt, men find inspiration and strength from the games and contacts at the "Y."

The Y. M. C. A. in all parts of the United States is celebrating at this time the 112 anniversary of the birth of Sir George Williams who founded the Y. M. C. A. in London in 1844. President Roosevelt speaks as follows:

"I am aware of the fact that Oct. 11th will mark another anniversary day of the birth of Sir George Williams, to whom we are all indebted for his vision and inspired effort in founding the Young Men's Christian Association."

"That organization has performed a valuable service to State and Nation in its work of moulding the moral and spiritual character of American youth. The observance of Founder's Day by many branches of the Association is likewise a tribute to all those who have helped perpetuate the underlying principles so that they have come to play an important part in formulating American ideals of fair play and attitude toward our fellow men."

SPORT NOTES

Wears Special Headgear

Perry Elrod, one of several Newton youths on the Brown varsity football squad, is wearing a special headgear because of a broken nose. Elrod and Norman Appleyard in the backfield, Charles Butler at tackle and Bob Chapin at end are all in the running for starting berths on the Brown eleven.

Tuscher in Backfield

Northeastern University lost to St. Anselm's by a 19 to 6 score last Saturday in the Huskies opening game. The first Newton boys, Francis Tuscher at end, Bob Buell at quarterback, and Henry Furdon at fullback all got into the Huskies line-up as reserves. This week Coach Al McCoy, himself a former Newton High athletic star, is trying Tuscher out in the first team backfield.

Yorks Run 80 Yards to Win

Andover Academy defeated the Harvard freshman football team last Saturday at Andover, 7 to 0 when Palmer York, former Newton High star, intercepted a Crimson yearling pass and raced 80 yards for the only touchdown of the game. The score came midway of the final period after Andover had repulsed several threats by the Crimson.

Gulian on Team B

George Gulian, the only Newton youth to start for Harvard in the game with Bates last Saturday was replaced by Frank Crane, former Everett centre, in practice sessions this week. Gulian, a sophomore, has not lost his berth, however, as he was alternating with Crane on Team A during some of the sessions.

Golf Tourney at Presidential

The Eastern Open Golf Championship being held at the Presidential Country Club in Wayland on Columbus Day and continuing Oct. 13 and 14th will attract many local golf fans because of the presence of Gene Sarazan, Johnny Farrell, Jesse Guilford, Joe Turnesa and many other star golfers.

Burr Tennis Club News

The Burr Tennis Club, formerly the Cabot Tennis Club, concluded its second year of tennis campaigning with a string of twelve victories against five defeats. Besides, engaging in tennis matches the boys made an impression in sanctioned tournaments showing that Newton is on the tennis map. To Donald Martin's list of trophies was added the runner-up prize in Springfield, runner-up in singles and doubles in Maine, and the Manchester State tournament; Malcolm Clarke stored away a doubles trophy from Maine, and mixed doubles, against Tedesco and Manchester; the Squire Isle, Wianno, York Harbor, and Vermont prizes now belong to Arthur Noble. After a long tennis season Don Martin goes back to his chesster State tournament; Malcolm Clarke and Walter Taylor are teaching French and mathematics, respectively. Art Noble has gone to Dartmouth; Janell to Harvard; Dunnell to Wesleyan; Ashley to Bowdoin; Skillings to Brown; Wetherbee to Boston University; Henry Jones to his engineering; Red Harris to his insurance; and Harry Sylvester counting people's money.

ENLARGED PROGRAM OF CLASSES

Additional opportunity to invest spare time, with a good chance of reaping a profit in actual dollars and cents, is contained in the enlarged program of evening classes offered by North Bennett Street Industrial School, 39 North Bennett Street, Boston, this fall and winter. The classes will start Tuesday night, October 17. Entries can be made during the following week.

The following classes are planned for the fall and winter: Cabinet making, clay modeling, printing, Italian, English for Italians, art fundamentals, advanced art, drawing, painting, power machine stitching, watch repairing, interior painting, show card and poster display, jewelry making, wood carving, and dressmaking. Other classes may be added.

In addition to the regular classes, clubs and other activities will start during October. Dramatics, social, music, dancing and recreational groups will be organized.

NEWTON-EVERETT GAME TOMORROW BEST ON CARD

Of the many schoolboy games listed for tomorrow the game which should attract one of the largest crowds is that slated for Dickinson Stadium, Newtonville, between Newton and Everett High Schools. Everett is enjoying one of its best seasons in years due to the fact that it has one of its best teams in sometime. Its record to date is three straight victories with that over Salem last Saturday the outstanding. In its opening game Everett trampled Warwick High from Rhode Island, 20-0, the following week it blanked Milton High 21-0, and last week scored a last minute 12-6 triumph over Salem.

That Salem affair gives the tip-off on Everett and brings them to Newton a favored team by a considerable margin. Salem proved that the Everett running attack could be stopped by a fast-charging line but on doing so it gave the Everett passing attack the opportunity to function. Salem tallied its touchdown fairly early in the game and seemed well on its way to a 6 to 0 victory. With six minutes to go in the final quarter Everett woke up and with Joe Schwerdt throwing pass after pass two touchdowns and enough points to win were scored in almost less time than it takes to tell the story.

Thus it would seem that Captain Charles Thompson and his mates have their work cut out to upset the Everett machine which uses a Notre Dame style of offence. But it can be done and it would be a great feather in Newton's cap to turn the trick. Furthermore it is no secret that Everett fears the Newton game more than any other contest on its schedule which in addition to Salem includes such rugged teams as Malden and Medford.

Regardless of what may be said about the abilities of the players who comprise the team and the fact that one team or the other may possess a theoretical advantage on paper it does not mean a thing. It almost seems that there is something psychologically about a Newton-Everett game when they come together it is a nip and tuck battle with the breaks deciding the issue and when both teams get an equal share of the breaks a tie score results. In tomorrow's game both teams should be on a high and it cannot be predicted. Everett has such a potent passing attack that it should score at least once against the orange and black unless the local lads play inspired football to repel the invaders. On the other hand Newton should also tally. In "Red" McCarthy, Charlie Flagg, Charlie Mascia and "Sandy" Sloane, Coach Sanborn of the Newton team has a quartet that would be welcome on any schoolboy football squad. While perhaps not one of the four stands out brilliantly as one of the quartet is better than the average. As a group they compare favorably with the Everett starting backfield of Joe Schwerdt, Pini, Bellafatto and Raimo. To offset the Everett reserve backfield of Johnson, Gentile, Romano and Rosetti the Newton mentor has such players as Myers, quarterback, Peola and Miller at the halves and Whitney at fullback with big Jack Kulesca ready to go in where needed.

The game should depend upon the play in the lines of the two teams. Coach Sanborn has "Teddy" Johnson, letterman and veteran end, ready to go again. This Newton lad has been out of action since before the opening game with Arlington because of an injury in scrimmage. His return has bolstered up the end squad which includes Jimmy Byrne, Ryan, Carderelli, Sheraton, Steere and Finberg with the two first named probably getting the starting call. Johnson will see early action, however. Grow and Swig will be on hand at tackles with the guard choice unsettled. Wisbach, Rohrig, Joyce and Sam Miller have been doing the bulk of the work but minor injuries to the guard candidates have handicapped the Newton line. Immediately before the Newton game will be at their regular post at centre upon which position much depends.

Although the Everett line has several veteran players as regulars the centre berth has been Coach Gildea's biggest problem. Furness at tackle and Little at end are the two outstanding players in the Everett forward wall both on the defense as well as the offense. In weight the two teams should be pretty well evenly matched with Everett having the edge in experience.

One angle to the game which should not be forgotten is that Everett was in a particularly hard-fought game last Saturday and may have been somewhat softened up for the Newton game. And in addition Everett will be playing under the intense strain of maintaining an undefeated season. In brief the invaders have little to gain and everything to lose while Newton has everything to gain and nothing to lose. All in all it should be a great game.

Butler Shows Promise

Coach "Fuss" McLaughry of Brown regards Charlie Butler, former Newton High athlete, as one of the most promising athletes he has ever seen. Butler, a sophomore at Brown, is playing a reserve tackle berth but may shortly be rated as a regular. At any rate he should be a great asset to the teams of the next two years.

Brown's opening 26-0 victory over Rhode Island State only two of the four Newton youths on the squad played. They were Butler and Norman Appleyard, a halfback. Perry Elrod and Bob Chapin are on the injured list.

Capt. Donald Bowen was fifth in the cross-country run between Tufts and Mass. State.

Murray McCabe is playing left end for the Coast Guard Academy, besides being the college's foremost boxer.

erican look at the Constitution differently. With the Britisher it is "as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be," but with the American it is, "as it was in the beginning, is now, but by gosh, it's got to be changed!"

The Red Cross has got more to offer a community than possibly any one single organization.

The first subject under this discussion was that of the Junior Red Cross as a factor in social service by Miss Maude Lewis, Assistant to Director, Junior Red Cross, who gave an extremely interesting talk on the various work which the members do. She said that at the meeting this morning of the Junior Red Cross, held at the Levi Warren Jr. High School, over 70 pupils were present, and very enthusiastic. Miss Lewis believes it is advisable to have the principals of schools on the Board of the Junior Red Cross in order that they may become better acquainted with the work it is doing. There are 6-12 million children enrolled in America and over 12 million members in the world. These members occupy themselves some of the time in making toys for needy children who otherwise might not be able to have them. They are always simple toys which cost nothing to make, such as spool dolls, made of old spools and twine with maybe a face drawn on by pencil or crayon. The children also make small gifts for the veterans in the hospitals which although inexpensive, yet give the men a great deal of pleasure, because they know that back of it is a true feeling of love and kindness.

The Junior Red Cross also, by International Correspondence, gets boys and girls all over the world acquainted with each other. Portfolios are made and sent to different countries with the letters, and these are answered and returned. This gives the children a better idea of the customs of these countries than they would have by just looking at a history or geography book.

Miss Constance Brine, a member of the Junior Session, then read her report of this morning's meeting at the Levi Warren where delegates from various cities spoke to the children.

Mr. Davidson then said that the Junior Red Cross must have co-ordination. It must have the schools' cooperation and the chapters' co-operation.

The next subject discussed was the question of Red Cross in connection and in relation to Health. Miss Helen Bean, Nursing Field Representative for Massachusetts, spoke on this subject and said it is not sufficient to feed a man or clothe him; other things are necessary, health. The basis of the Red Cross Public Health Nursing program is to protect health, and this is carried on by Red Cross chapters all over the country. Last year 555 Public Health Nursing services were carried on by the Red Cross. This service is available to all people, not only poor. Those unable to pay are never refused care. Last year Red Cross nurses made over 1 million visits in the homes. In Massachusetts, 34 nurses, working with 24 chapters, made 25 thousand visits.

Home Hygiene classes are held in order to teach children, young and old, appreciation for health and ways to safeguard it, and to meet normal problems of the homes. This training enables them to care for the sick in the home and to take care of simple ailments. It is up to the woman of the home to take care of a sick member of her family and if she has had the course in Home Hygiene, she can do that much more effectively. Home Hygiene teaches the fundamentals of health. Today 684,000 persons in this country have received the certificate showing that they have completed this course. There are 33 chapters in Massachusetts with a Home Hygiene program, with 90 authorized instructors. There are about 70 classes each year, taught by nurses who are expert instructors. Home Hygiene in Newton has been going along very well, the girl scouts being particularly interested. Home Hygiene should be made available to every member of the community, and to every group in the community.

Miss Charlotte Raymond, Nutritionist, Newton Chapter next spoke on the work which she is doing in helping all who need help. The Newton Chapter of the Red Cross is doing community nutrition work, and intends to do this permanently. Never at any time has there been a greater need for nutrition work. Newton is the only community who has a worker whose services are available for any organization in the city who can use her. Depression has affected the children and now 1 out of every 5 children in the field today, is that of an educator and consultant. Welfare families cannot be considered alone from the problem of heat and rent, but of food and Health.

The next speaker on the program was Mrs. Joel Barnes, who spoke on "Red Cross Volunteer Service at work on a new scale." Mrs. Barnes is Captain Motor Corps, Newton Chapter. She said that motor corps work is not new; it has been carried on since before the war. It is less than two years ago that Newton organized its corps. They started with 10 drivers, but it was not enough. Now there are about 30 to 40 drivers that can be called on. During the last year, averaged 25 drivers a month working. Hospital work is the main thing. Take patients to hospitals and clinics. Last year motor corps served 26 agencies. Cooperates with Boston. Liable to have long hours while working as they never know where they will be sent. Their work on parades is fun, Mrs. Barnes stated, and all drivers are asked to take First Aid. In 1932, averaged 25 drivers, carried 1893 passengers, 495 attendants 2137 hours, driving 18,215 miles.

Mr. Davidson then spoke on the Service to disabled veterans under the Economy Act. The Red Cross helps these veterans in order that they may manage with their adjusted incomes from compensations.

The Conference ended with another general discussion by Mr. Davidson giving a summary and conclusion. Mr. Davidson stated that it is just as important to get the boys out of the trenches of depression as it was to get them out of the trenches of the war.

NEWTON LADIES INSTALLED IN SUPREME EMBLEM CLUB

Mrs. Kathleen McHugh of Lynn was installed as President of the Supreme Emblem Club of America, auxiliary of the Elks, at the convention held at the New Ocean House, Swampscott, October 1st, 2nd and 3rd. Mrs. Helen McHugh of Watertown was the installing officer. Mrs. Etta M. Gordon, past president of the Newton Emblem Club is Past Supreme President. Mrs. Alice K. Burns, past president of Newton, was installed as Supreme Financial Secretary for a second term. The Supreme President appointed Miss Florence E. Gegan of Newton as Supreme Marshal. Other officers represented clubs from Massachusetts, Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Florida, Ohio and California.

W. C. T. U.

Dr. N. Louise Rand and Mrs. M. Millie Beardsley are delegates to the State Convention of the W. C. T. U. to be held in Worcester Oct. 17-18-19.

Newton Dramatic Organizations Planning Season

DRAMATIC CLUB ENTERTAINS

A very large group of young people were entertained Thursday evening, October 5th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Varney, 34 Tyler terrace, under the auspices of the Newton Dramatic Club. The guests came as characters from a play or movie and had ready appropriate lines, dialogue of song, from the play they represented. Among the many noted personages seen in costume were Greta Garbo, Sherlock Holmes, Peg o' My Heart, Mark Antony and Hope Williams. Mrs. Joan Damon Richards came as Rosamond in Beant of Bath, Miss Rosalind Harris and Mr. Jan Gestel were in the role of Camille and Armand.

The Club offers opportunity to all who are interested either in acting or in play production, including scenery painting and properties, to give on a large stage a wall in the play. Twelve one-act plays are given during the season besides the three large plays at The Newton Centre Women's Club House. All interested can communicate with Mrs. E. W. Varney, 34 Tyler terrace, Newton Centre. Mr. William H. Rice is president, Mr. Albert W. Mather is chairman of the Membership Committee.

NEWTON SHOW OF THE AIR

Thursday evening, October 19th brings the fifth of a series of weekly broadcasts to the people of Newton. These programs are under the direction of Estelle G. Marsh. The instrumental numbers include violin solos by Charles S. Goddard accompanied by W. G. Hambleton. Duets will be sung by Eva Moore and Mae Robinson. Mary Barr Snyder and Sylvia Pettys need no introduction to Station WLEY as they have most generously cooperated in making the first four broadcasts a success. Sylvia Church Pettys will be the soprano soloist of the week and will be accompanied by Mrs. Snyder who will also do some solo playing.

Miss Marsh announces that in addition to the many new artists which appear weekly, she is presenting a theme song by Marjorie Chalmers Carleton, well known writer called "The Newton Show of the Air" which was presented for the first time on the program October 12th. It is being sung at the beginning and end of each program by Sylvia Church Pettys accompanied by Mary Barr Snyder. The in Thursday evenings, Station WLEY from 7:15 to 9 p. m.

DRAMATEURS OPEN SEASON

On Tuesday, October third, a very successful performance of Percival Wiles one-act play "The Lost Elevator" was given by the Dramateurs. This amusing comedy occasioned the opening of the eighth season of plays given in Newtonville by this well known group. In the past few years many creditable plays have been added to the repertoire of the Dramateurs and in their opening meeting a pleasant innovation was introduced. Scenes from many favorites were presented by the actors who originally played them. Brief scenes were given from "Three Live Ghosts," "Mr. Pim Passes By," "Outward Bound," "Bird in Hand," "Anthony and Anna" and "Wappin' Wharf."

Plans were outlined for the coming season.

PARISH PLAYERS

The Parish Players of St. Paul's Church, Newton Highlands, will give their first performance of the season on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, October 25 and 26.

The play to be given is "The Youngest" by Philip Barry, and is being coached by Mr. Dan Smith of Watertown.

MORE RECORDS BY ESSEX TERRAPLANE

Smashing seven more records on six California and Arizona mountain courses during the past week, the two-car Terraplane team completed its campaign that started with the Pike's Peak victory. The cars then left for Detroit and home, with the Terraplanes holding every hill climb record listed in the A.A.A. Contest Board Record Book except two.

The two eastern hills not on the Terraplane victory list have not yet been attempted by these cars. Following their successes at Salt Lake City and on the Mt. Baldy, Cushmanberry-Johnson and Wrightwood climbs, the Terraplanes piloted by Paul Bost and Al Miller cleaned up the remaining western records within the space of seven days. Two records on the City Creek Canyon course near San Bernardino, and one each at Rim-of-the-World, Lower Waterman Canyon, Upper Waterman Canyon, Hollow Hill (all in California), and Fish Creek Canyon, near Phoenix, Arizona, comprised the week's work for the cars.

These remarkable cars are sold in Newton by the Newton Hudson-Essex Company at 24 Brook st., Newton. Telephone Newton North 1990 and arrange for a demonstration which will convince you that the TERRAPLANE possesses all the wonderful qualities claimed for it.

WEST NEWTON W. C. T. U.

West Newton W. C. T. U. will be special guest at Lincoln Park Baptist Church, West Newton, Sunday, Oct. 15, at 7:45 p. m. Members be sure to attend.

A regular business meeting will be held on Monday, Oct. 16, at 7:45 p. m. at 228 Highland ave., West Newton. Mrs. J. A. Groves will report on the Milwaukee Convention.

Mrs. Anna Richardson and Mrs. Sarah Jordan are hostesses for the evening.

VILLAGE PLAYERS OPEN SEASON

The Village Players, of Newton Centre, will present two of their "Workshop Plays" on Wednesday, October 18, at the Unitarian Parish House. The first is "Will You Marry Me?" by Fulham. In the cast are: Margaret L. Spear, Beulah H. Francis, Arthur W. Calver, Harriett A. Cousins, Edna W. Hubbard, Mabel Farwell, Ellen Gaisler, Elizabeth Dunbar Chapin, Josephine Tyler and Lorenz F. Muther, Jr. The coach is Mrs. W. H. Brackett. Play is staged by Miss Lola White. Costumes are by Mrs. G. F. Sargent.

The second play is "Model Behaviour" by Essex Dane. In the cast are: Charles L. Pierce, Dorothy Boggs, Catherine Skelton and Celeste Callaghan.

On the same evening the play "Storm Swept" by Elizabeth Lawton, will be given by a visiting artist group of Auburndale Players—Florence Krueger, Loraine Foat Holmes, and Eunice Browning Prellwitz.

These "Workshop Plays" are under the management of Mrs. Edward A. Andrews, assisted by the following: Art Directors, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Noetzel; Scenic Manager, Ralph L. Wheeler; Lighting, C. Roderick Clifford; Properties, Mrs. Norman B. Alford; Make-up, Mrs. Wesley Dynes; House Manager, Mrs. Mabel M. Webster; Refreshments, Mrs. Fred D. Bond; and Eugene Prewett. Mrs. James Mitchell, George Brewer, and Worthing West, Assistants.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC CLUBS

The several musical and dramatic clubs of Newton Centre under the direction of Mrs. Florence Wood Russell have begun their season with unusual promise. The Ne Plus Ultra held a first meeting last week, electing new officers as follows: President, Miss Dorothy Leu; Secretary, Miss Doris Langell; Treasurer, Miss Peggy Macafield; Librarian, Miss Barbara Wilson; Business Manager, Miss Betty MacKinnon. The first offering of this group will be a concert of part songs and solos, with an assisting artist from the honorary membership to be announced later. The group of younger singers known as the "Radio Robins" has much increased its membership, and has several talented little vocalists. The new president of the club, elected by unanimous vote, is Gloria Florin, nine-year-old soprano soloist. The recently organized dramatic club, to be called "The Little Players' Club" is made up of children five to ten years of age who are especially interested in acting. This small club has in preparation three one-act plays of extreme simplicity, to be given in a few weeks in Trinity Parish House.

GARRICK PLAYERS TO OPEN

The Garrick Players' Newton Season, 1933-1934, under the direction of Robert C. Currier and Robert R. Reed, will open October 18th at the Garrick Theatre, 378 Centre st., Newton, with the production of Booth Tarkington's "Twined." This play, in Mr. Tarkington's characteristic style, is a thoroughly American, gently satirical, comedy of manners.

Mr. Currier and Mr. Reed, Director and Manager of the Garrick Players, are well known in the Newtons. They are Directors of the Newton Conservatory of Music and Dramatic Arts and have both had wide experience in amateur and professional stage work. They have assembled a similarly experienced cast, including Miss Muriel Pearce, Miss Miriam Catheron, Mrs. Joan Damon Richards, Miss Sybil Vane and Mrs. Marie L. Harding, all of whom have received popular recognition for their distinctive work on local stages. With this nucleus, the Garrick Players plan to develop a professional repertory theatre for the Newtons.

OLDSMOBILE AT NEWTON CENTRE GARAGE

The Newton Centre Garage, Inc., 792 Beacon st., Newton Centre, have just added the Oldsmobile to their present line of Cadillac and LaSalle automobiles.

They would be pleased to make the acquaintance of the Oldsmobile owners of the locality and also of those who are contemplating trading their present car.

The Newton Centre Garage, Inc., has been under the capable management of Mr. Norman M. Appleyard for the past fifteen years and have made many friends and hope that they may add many more by their entering this smaller car field.

Their service department is manned by factory trained mechanics and your inspection of this branch would be appreciated.

PARAMOUNT THEATRE, NEWTON

That very lovable character Lionel Barrymore will be seen in the main feature for the first half of the week at the Paramount Theatre, Newton, in "One Man's Journey" taken from the book "Failure" by Katherine Haviland Taylor. He is supported by a great cast and it is a picture Newton folks should enjoy. It is in brief a story of a small town doctor who receives many patients but very little pay. Wonderful situations and plenty of good wholesome comedy as well as pathos make it a family picture every member should see. On the same program will be "Madge Evans and Frank Morgan in 'Broadway to Hollywood,' a nice piece of entertainment and an excellent co-feature with the Barrymore picture. For the last half of the week, Spencer Tracy and Fay Wray will be seen in "Shanghai Madness" and Richard Arlen in "Three Corners Moon."

The vaudeville program of last Saturday was well received, and another is promised, equally as good, for the coming Saturday and every Saturday evening during the fall and winter.

LUCY JACKSON CHAPTER, D. A. R.

The first meeting of the Fall season of the Lucy Jackson Chapter D. A. R. was held Monday afternoon, October ninth, at the Chapter House in Newton Lower Falls, Mrs. Edward B. Parker, Regent, presiding.

There was a large attendance of Chapter members and the Chapter House was most attractive, decorated in branches of autumn leaves and evergreen. Decorations were in charge of the Committee of the afternoon ably assisted by Mrs. C. Harold Porter and Mr. Rogers, Newton City Forester.

Brief reports of the State Meeting at Swampscott were given by Mrs. Arthur P. Dana and Mrs. H. E. Johnson.

The Regent then introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Mr. Frank W. Chipman, of Sandwich, Massachusetts, President of the Early American Glass Club, and author of "The Romance of Old Sandwich Glass." Mr. Chipman gave a most interesting and instructive talk on Early Glass and on Sandwich glass in particular. His grandfather and father were both proficient in the art of making Sandwich glass. At the close of the talk Mr. Chipman kindly answered questions on the subject.

Following the program a social hour was enjoyed, delicious refreshments being served by the committee consisting of Mrs. F. S. Sherman, Chairman, assisted by Mesdames Adams, Bancroft, Byers, Cooley, Dow, Fuller, Haskell, Howard, Jones, Macomber, Parker, Richmond, Stewart and Whitteley, and The Misses Farnum, Tower and Webber.

A POLITICAL FOOTBALL?

The approaching municipal campaign has many angles which at the present time are perhaps somewhat confusing and not generally understood by the average citizen who takes little interest in politics other than to perform one of the duties of a citizen—casting his ballot on election day. Election day in Newton is more than eight weeks away and the campaign is just beginning. To be sure, much active work has been done in the past two months by the various candidates but it is only the preliminaries to what promises to be one of the outstanding campaigns in local politics.

Little need be said to those voters who have already made up their minds as to which of the several candidates they believe should fill the office of mayor or alderman. But during the past few weeks we have found indications which lead us to believe that there are a considerable number of citizens who have not yet made up their minds. These citizens, possibly holding the balance of votes in favor of the candidate they finally decide to vote for, will probably not reach a decision until shortly before election day when the real issues of the campaign are more clearly defined than at present.

One of the angles to the campaign which helps to becloud a true perspective is the connection which the local campaign may have to a future Congressional campaign. Congressman Robert Luce issued a statement a few months ago indicating that he would be a candidate for re-election. From a strictly party standpoint it might seem advisable to return the veteran Congressman for another term with the possibility in mind that a return to a Republican majority in Congress would put Mr. Luce into a position of great influence in the Republican party in view of the seniority rankings he would have in committees of the House of Representatives. But in the event that developments take place and Congressman Luce is not a candidate for re-election, which is not too remote a possibility to be ignored, the municipal election here in December may have a real bearing on the next Congressional campaign.

It is no secret that Mayor Weeks had inclinations toward Congress a few years ago and probably still has such aspirations in the event the way becomes open. It is almost a certainty that he would never run against Congressman Luce because of the old ties of friendship between the present Congressman and the Mayor's late father, Hon. John W. Weeks.

On the other side of the picture two possibilities cannot be ignored altogether. Ex-Mayor Edwin O. Childs, it has been repeatedly rumored, might be a candidate to succeed Congressman Luce. Mr. Childs is now a political ally of Thomas W. White, the foremost candidate in opposition to the re-election of Mayor Weeks. Mr. Childs is unlikely to oppose Congressman Luce because of a personal friendship between the two which is of comparative long standing, but the popular ex-Mayor of Newton might conceivably desire to succeed Mr. Luce. The second possibility which must be recognized pertains to Mr. White's political aspirations in the event that he is successful in his attempt to defeat Mayor Weeks. Mr. White is a Congressional possibility even though it meant a campaign in opposition to Mr. Luce. In any event Mr. White could not expect to be successful in a Congressional campaign unless he had a sizable backing in Newton, which city has held the balance of power in Congressional campaigns for some time.

Until such time as the mayoralty candidates who are Congressionally inclined take a definite stand on this indirect, but nevertheless important issue the voters of Newton cannot help but feel that the chair in the Mayor's office may in reality be a political football.

NRA PROJECTS

In a communication to the Board of Aldermen Mayor Weeks withdrew his previous recommendation for enlargement of the Newton water reservoir through the use of NRA funds. Regarding the other projects it is expected that work may begin shortly. The school projects will be started as soon as Federal approval has been received. The State Emergency Finance Board has approved them and Federal approval should be forthcoming. The State Board more recently approved the incinerator project and although delayed a week or two over the school projects there seems every likelihood that it will be carried through. In connection with the incinerator project there has been considerable criticism that it will not provide as much work for the unemployed as would a similar sum expended on the repairing and resurfacing of streets. This may possibly be true but the erection of an incinerator will result in the creation of employment in cleaning up many of the unsightly and unhealthy dumping places now used for the city's refuse. If it is possible to obtain additional NRA funds originally planned to be used for the enlargement of the reservoir, such funds could well be used for the resurfacing of streets.

AMATEUR DRAMATICS

The amateur dramatic season is opening. It is a pleasure to find so many Newton dramatic organizations presenting worthwhile entertainment. For the actors and actresses it provides a use of leisure time that brings a feeling of creation of ideas and a sincere and genuine satisfaction. From the point of view of the audience it provides a use for leisure time that brings enjoyment and pleasure. We can give no better advice to our readers than to urge them to support their local amateur dramatic organizations.

Are you superstitious?—Watch your step. It's Friday the 13th.

PARENT TEACHERS ASSOCIATION TO MEET

There will be a meeting of the Parent Teachers Association of the John Ward School on October 18th at 8 p. m. Mr. John Lund, Supt. of Newton Schools will be the speaker and has chosen for his subject "Education in Character Building." A male quartet will furnish some music. Any one interested in hearing Mr. Lund speak is cordially invited even if they have not school affiliations.

Campaign Complications

People are wondering why the Weeks Campaign Committee has not been announced. The psychology seems to be as follows:—Tom announced his Campaign Committee on September 23rd. Not a bad looking line-up but rather limited in numbers. He missed a trick in his opinion by omitting women. The Mayor will score on White there. The Mayor has apparently decided to let the voters mull over White's Committee at their leisure. Then at the psychological moment the Mayor will spread before the voters a Campaign Committee that will be a knock-out. It will contain nothing else but prominent Aldermen, ex-Aldermen, bank presidents, society lions and lionesses, business giants, etc. The public will thereupon decide that White hasn't a burglar's chance and they will rise en masse and tell him to withdraw.

The city campaign is gradually coming out from under cover. The most significant development last week was White's round robin letter to the seventy-odd members of the Republican City Committee urging them not to function "as a committee" either for or against any one candidate. He made the point that the ex-Aldermen, bank presidents, society lions and lionesses, business giants, etc. The public will thereupon decide that White hasn't a burglar's chance and they will rise en masse and tell him to withdraw.

Well, let's see what this means. Is candidate White making a threat (a prevalent belief) or is he scared? Or both? Personally I think it is a threat but it is obvious that White is appreciating more and more every day what a Herculean task he has set himself to. After all, the Mayor is entrenched behind powerful fortifications—he is in and White is out and the burden of proof is always on the man who is out. Furthermore, it is so very expedient to play ball with the Mayor not merely from a political viewpoint but socially and in a business way. You can't go wrong even if he loses. But, if a man or woman has political or social ambitions in Newton it is going to take a great deal of intestinal fortitude to line up with White. And that is precisely the reason why White's Campaign Committee is not bigger and more impressive.

Now, how about White's strategy in appealing to the individual members of the Republican City Committee? One keen political observer told me today that White may have made a mistake in raising this issue himself. If he had kept quiet and if the city committee had seen fit to butt in in the Mayor's behalf he could have raised the dickens and asked heatedly (and perhaps with reason) "who questions my Republicanism and my record of loyal service to the Grand Old Party?"

Personally, I believe two things very definitely and very sincerely:—1st, that it is none of the city committee's business to endorse either Republican candidate and 2nd, that if the committee does endorse Mayor Weeks it will react against him.

It is a fact, though not generally known outside of political circles, that the city committee, by making a few slight changes in personnel and by altering its title could be made overnight into a highly efficient and enthusiastic Weeks' Campaign Committee.

Local Amateur Photographers Show Pictures

During the first three days of this week the great exhibition of amateur photography ever seen in New England was held at the Hotel Statler, Boston. Six sections, totalling forty three classes of pictures were shown with silver cups and ribbons awarded to those judged the best in each class. The first award winners in each class became automatically entered in the International Enlargement Exhibition to be held in Cincinnati in November.

Many Newton amateur photographers entered the New England Exhibition, among them the following: H. A. Baker, 9 Daniel st. David C. Fecteau, 218 Cabot st. Mrs. Patterson, 36 Webster st. ONE THING AND ANOTHER

By L. D. G. Bentley

The fall weather is likely to be gloomy at times but that is no reason for the introduction of depressing topics of conversation.

Oddments

The frequency of announcement of new candidacies in the coming city election has upset my figuring and I have decided to wait until the ballot is complete before I take up serious contemplation of possibilities. The list is growing so rapidly that the printers are going to have more of a job on their hands than they ever have had in getting out the ballots. Newton's conservatism has always included a minimum of political candidates, comparatively speaking, so that a bumper crop causes no little surprise to those of us who are merely innocent bystanders.

Of course we are bound to have rallies this campaign. Indications point to a large number. I hope to attend for I admire spell-binding when it is well done. Now did you ever see a rally where the principal occupant of the platform, outside the speakers, was not a large pitcher of water? Every hall is equipped with a white pitcher—yet seldom see them elsewhere—and this is invariably trotted out, long before the rally, and the speaker takes this opportunity of making a telling point in his speech. He usually stops to let the point sink in, pours himself a refreshing drink and starts off with renewed vigor. Having read about the unpleasant late in the Newton water supply of late, take this opportunity of expressing the hope that the use of chlorine—blamed as the cause of it all—will be limited. I should hate to see a speaker overcome even in the interests of a purer water supply.

Looks Aren't Everything

Any tale of another's embarrassment, told for laughing purposes, sometimes may seem a bit thoughtless, if not cruel. It may, however, contain a lesson that justifies repetition. Not that I seek this opportunity to sermonize, but rather to pass along a friendly tip to any of my young friends who go in seriously for amateur dramatics. The beginning of rehearsals by groups here, there and everywhere warrants, I believe, another reference this week to the stage and those who tread the boards.

In this case a young man, guilty, I am afraid, of egotism, may move fuss about his costume than about his part. A dangerous thing to do, particularly if committed before a seasoned performer of the professional stage. Nevertheless the younger fellow was clever and did a pretty good job before the footlights. The only out was his self-satisfaction. He was a trifle haughty when he complained to the costumer that he could not do his best "in that kind of a costume." Never would he have made an assertion had he known that the costumer, before giving up the stage, had himself been one of the most popular and accomplished performers of his day.

"Look here, young man," said the old-timer, "if you're a good actor you won't need this or any costume to make a hit. And if you're not a good actor all the costumes in this shop won't make you one."

I am told the young man took the lesson like a good sport and profited by the advice.

Midnight Mystery Exploded

Swapping vacation experiences the other day with a sedate young couple of our home city—fellow citizens of yours and mine of whom we have every reason to be proud—I learned that the highest motives of the purest minded may be misunderstood. It seems they occupied a camp in a rather swank summer colony. Living very much to themselves they cultivated no more than a bare nodding acquaintance with their not-very-close neighbors. To them a satisfactory arrangement.

The husband was one of those lucky fellows whose business began to pick up considerably by mid-July and he was obliged to hop back and forth to the city frequently throughout the season. Many times his wife accompanied him. They always used their car and found themselves arriving and departing at all hours day and night. Beasty inconvenient but necessary.

One day a neighbor called. Finding the husband in the garage alone he at once became secretive. "You cover up pretty well," he bluntly declared, "but I can't see the same 'in on.' The amazed husband, recovering his surprise, demanded an explanation. At first the neighbor was disposed to treat it as a joke, but finally apologized. "I'm sorry," said he, "if I've hurt your feelings but these mysterious trips of yours and the young woman, convinced of her own worth, leggers. Don't get angry, it's O. K. by me. I admire your courage."

Theft Dwindles From $980 to $10

Reginald Cavallo of Oak ave., West Newton, who gave his present address as Deerfield, New Hampshire, was in the Newton court on Wednesday charged with the larceny of $980 from Mrs. Esther Castagnone of 181 River st., West Newton. Mrs. Castagnone complained on Sept. 2 that the large amount of money had been stolen from a bureau drawer at her home. In court, however, she testified that Cavallo had telephoned her that he had just transferred the money from the bureau to a hiding place under the cushion of a dining room chair and that she had found it all there. Captain Goode told Judge Allen that Cavallo had admitted taking $10 from the roll, and the judge found him guilty of stealing that amount. He was given a suspended jail sentence of 30 days.

About Town

By Edward H. Powers

Governor Ely recently criticised the NRA because of its socialistic character. He tolerates it only as an emergency measure. Cheer up, "Joe." The worst is yet to come. We are participants in an epochal period of this old world; in the transition from one form of civilization to another; a transition which necessitates drastic changes in social, economic and political structures. The old order passeth and the sooner persons of high estate realize this (as President Roosevelt already has) the sooner will this country reach happier conditions.

The estimated cost of the new incinerator is $200,000. It was asserted by Alderman Gallagher at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night that 50 per cent of this amount ($100,000) will be paid for labor on this project. It will be interesting to have an accurate record kept of the total of the wages which will be paid to bona fide residents of Newton on this structure and its equipment. There are many in this city who are skeptical. Much of the cost of the incinerator will be paid for materials which will go into its construction. There is no question but that if $200,000 were spent on repairing the streets of Newton, much more of this amount would be given in the form of wages to Newton men; men who badly need employment. And it cannot be denied that a large percentage of the streets in this city can well be resurfaced.

The addition which will soon be erected at the Bigelow School on Park st., Newton, will not enhance the architectural attractiveness of this educational unit of the Newton school system. And it is nothing to brag about in its present condition. When one gazes at the imposing junior high schools at Newtonville, West Newton, and Newton Centre—the Day, Warren and Weeks Schools, one wonders how the residents of Wards 1 and 7 ever permitted such a conglomeration as the Bigelow Junior High School. The junior high school for the Bigelow district was supposed to have been built before either the Warren or the Weeks schools. But, it was sidetracked, and then the old grade school on Park st. was converted into a junior high or an apology for one. Subsequently a wing was added to provide a gymnasium, and now another wing is to be built between the old grade school building and Park st. The result will be in sorry contrast to the magnificent Warren and Weeks Schools, and quite inferior to the Day School. When one realizes that the Bigelow School district includes Ward 7 and a large part of Ward 1, and that these two Wards have had six members in Boards of Aldermen and two members on School Committees, one wonders all the more how meek have been the residents of these two Wards and their representatives in the Board of Aldermen and School Committee.

Another example of the forbearance of residents of the Newton Corner section regarding proper school accommodations for their children is evidenced in the failure of the city to have replaced the old Lincoln and Eliot Schools. For nearly a generation the need of a new building to supplant these two old structures has been discussed. The Lincoln School was erected in 1854. The Eliot School about 50 years ago. It was proposed many years ago to locate a new school building somewhere between these two antiquated structures. But it was never erected. Now, there is talk of abandoning the Eliot School when the new school will have been completed at Nevada street, Newtonville. If the School Department attempts to send children from Precinct 2 of Ward 1 to the Stearns School, thus causing them to cross Watertown st., it can be definitely stated now that vigorous opposition will result. The practical site for the long awaited new school at Ward 1 would be adjacent to Boyd Park playground.

Monday night two Oak Hill boys observed a couple of youths breaking into a small store at the corner of Dedham and Nahanton sts. The store is owned by George Wiswall. The two entered the store by forcing a padlock with an iron bar. The boys who observed the break notified Patrolman Smith who was patrolling the district in a police car. Smith drove along Nahanton st. and caught up with the alleged burglars. Not knowing that it was a police car, the pair thumbed a ride and were accommodated. They were arraigned in the Newton court on Tuesday and held for the grand jury under $500 bonds each. The two, Kenneth Smart, 18, and Boniface DeGregori, 18, of Hyde Park, said they did not know the place was a store as it looked like a wayside stand, and that they had just entered seeking shelter. Nothing was stolen from the place.

Children Are Hit By Automobiles

Last Friday morning a car driven by Paul Remick of 30 Locke rd., Waban, hit Clark Fisher, 8, of 22 Agawam rd., Waban, as the boy was riding his bicycle at the corner of Beacon st. and Locke rd. Young Fisher received slight injuries to his hands.

A car driven by Bertha Potter of 704 Centre st., Newton, hit Sally Potter, 7, of 16 Summit st., Newton, last Friday afternoon on Church st. near Centre st. The child received a scalp wound and possible concussion of the brain. She was taken to the Newton Hospital.

Aldermen Meet

Centre, Ayer & McDonough asked for a common victualler license at 210A Sumner st. Antonio Magni asked for a similar license at 138A Adams st. George Rivers asked for an express truck license at 207 Washington st. Antonio Signore seeks a permit to keep and sell gasoline and oils at 352 Boylston st. Petitions received from persons who want to build one-car garages on premises where there are already two-car garages included—F. H. Rawson, 50 Concord st.; John E. Cannon, 50-52 and 56-58 Washington st.; S. W. Ferguson, 24 Carleton rd.

Appropriations made by the Board included $10,000 for welfare relief for poor outside the city home; $150 for temporary clerks in the Treasurer's office; $50 for expenses of Board of Appeal; $8.85 for temporary matron at police headquarters. The Board voted to authorize the seeking of a loan of $200,000 from the NRA to build an incinerator.

Alderman Grebenstein, as chairman of the Claims and Rules Committee, reported that this committee recommended adversely on the proposal of the Newton Planning Board that new garages and filling stations, and additions to existing structures for such purposes, be prohibited within 400 feet of churches and public buildings. The committee decided that no action is necessary on this matter as the aldermen have used care in the past in granting garage and filling station permits, and such restrictions as are proposed by the Planning Board are not needed.

Alderman Holden informed Alderman Temperley that a fence has been erected on Beacon st., at the Mason School grounds to prevent children from crossing the street, and forcing them to go to the crosswalk at the intersection of Beacon st. and Landley rd., where traffic safeguards are provided. Alderman Temperley said he still contended there should be a traffic signal on Beacon st. to permit pedestrians (including the children) to cross the street opposite the school. Alderman Holden answered by saying that he had already told Temperley that such a signal cannot be installed without the permission of the State Department of Public Works, and that the State officials will not give consent for the signal.

Rotarians Hear Talk on Financial Legislation

Frank Richardson, executive Vice President of the Newton Trust Company, gave an interesting talk on Financial Legislation to Rotary at the Brae Burn Club on Monday. The construction features of the Glass Bill, Home Owners Loan Act, and NRA were explained by the speaker.

Mr. Richardson as a banker, frankly stated that incompetency, dishonesty and greed, had played a large part in the failure of a great number of the country's banks to protect the savings of their depositors. He brought out the fact that these flagrant violations of good banking ethics had compelled the government to insist on banks insuring their deposits as a future protection against depositor losses. Mr. Richardson, in comparing today's bankers with those of earlier periods, felt that there was little if any difference in their competency.

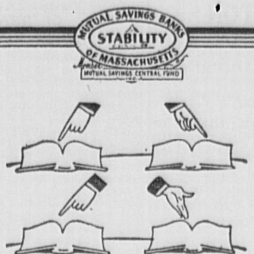

In discussing previous panics, the speaker explained that the reason they did not reach the magnitude of the present one was due to the wrongs and mistakes of banking then occurring piecemeal instead of happening all at once as did the 1929 affair.

Rotarians were surprised to learn that in 400 B. C. the Chinese had a business plan comparable to ours of the present. Remedies such as the elimination of graft, loose governmental expenditures, low tariffs, curtailments of the unnecessary, etc., were suggested to China by their advisers in that period some 2300 years ago.

The capable managing director of the Newton Trust Company paid a distinct compliment to the management and banking methods of all Newton banks when he said: "Fortunately for Newton; among all banks doing business here there has been no evidence of other than conservative, wise and competent banking methods in all transactions."

EX-MAYOR CHILDS TO SPEAK

Ex-Mayor Edwin O. Childs of Newton will be the speaker at the next regular meeting of the Massachusetts Women's Political Club at the Hotel Bradford, Boston, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 17th at 8:15. Mrs. James T. Burns of 53 Cook st., Newton, is vice-president of Middlesex County of the club. Miss Florence Birmingham, the president of the club, will preside at the meeting which will be open to the public.

What is a "Bank"?

THE Standard dictionary gives four distinct definitions of the word "bank", each with several shades of meaning.

One designates, "an institution for lending, borrowing, issuing or caring for money."

But just as you will find "bank" has different meanings, so will you also discover that all banks are not the same.

Only mutual savings banks, like the Newton Centre Savings Bank, have no stockholders and pay all net earnings to depositors.

Clafin Club To Open Its Season

The Clafin Club has completed its program for the year and is to present as its speaker at the first meeting Friday, October 20, Max Yergan who is known as the champion of the cause of the native African. Mr. Yergan has completed thirty years with the natives in Africa and has made a great contribution to the intra-racial relationships.

MAX YERGAN

Mr. Yergan presents in a statesmanly manner an interpretation of the head-on collision of the invading civilization of the white race with the primitive life of the native. He cites the tremendous social problems faced by the native in his sudden adjustment to the economic and social system of the white man which has been built up through centuries of progress.

This first speaker for the Clafin Club is a graduate of Shaw University, Raleigh, North Carolina, a cultured personality and a recipient of the Harmon Award, the award given annually for the best work by negroes in science, education, literature and religion. He was also the recipient of the Spingarn Medal at the Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago in June, 1933. This medal was awarded for extraordinary service to his race.

Mr. Yergan is speaking in Denver, Colorado, October 15, 16, and 17 and comes directly to Newton for this meeting. He is a speaker of rare ability. His subject is to be "Black Africa."

NOTED SPEAKERS TO LECTURE ON RELIGION AT THE SECOND CHURCH

The Committee of Religious Education of The Second Church in Newton, West Newton, has announced an interesting series of lectures, the subject of which is "Faiths That Men Live By." This series of eight lectures will be held on consecutive Wednesday evenings, beginning Oct. 18. The lectures will be held at 8:00 o'clock each Wednesday evening in the Parish Hall of The Second Church. Prof. O. W. Warringtonham, Professor of English Bible, Boston University, will lecture on "The Light of Asia," on Oct. 18. Prof. Warringtonham, an East Indian by birth, is exceedingly well equipped to lecture on Oriental religion. Rabbi Harry Levi of Temple Israel, Boston, will lecture on "Judaism" on Oct. 25 and Nov. 1. Rabbi Levi is a brilliant and gifted speaker recognized in his own faith as a dynamic leader and a truly prophetic voice. Father F. E. Low, S.J., of Boston College, will lecture on "The Roman Catholic Church" on Nov. 8 and 15. Father Low's teaching position in Boston College qualifies him to speak with unusual depth and clarity upon the Catholic Church. Dr. Edwin P. Booth, Professor of Church History, "Protestantism" on Nov. 22 and 29. Due to previous lectures in The Second Church, Dr. Booth already has scores of friends in Newton and the surrounding cities. Prof. Clarence H. Skinner, D.D., Dean of The Cranford Theological School, Tufts College, will speak on "Modern Religious Movements in America" on Dec. 6. Dr. Skinner's position as Pastor of the Community Church, Boston, qualifies him to speak with authority and conviction upon this subject.

The lectures are open to the public with no charge of admission. Dr. Boynton Merrill, the Minister of The Second Church, and Mr. Frank H. Grebe, Director of Religious Education, urge the citizens of Newton to avail themselves of this opportunity. This series of lectures shall accomplish much in the development of religious tolerance and a deeper understanding of the religious faiths of the world.

Women's Club Activities

Edited by EMMA D. COOLIDGE

Woman's Club of Newton Highlands

On of the most distinguished lecturers in America, Anna Coleman Ladd, will lecture on "Art in Relation to Life" at the October 17th meeting of the Woman's Club of Newton Highlands in the Congregational Parish House, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Ladd is one of the few women to have had the honor of individual exhibits in the Corcoran Gallery and the Pennsylvania Academy. In addition she has exhibited in Rome and Paris, and many of her bronzes are owned on the Continent.

Music will be furnished by Mrs. Willard Eaton, Piano soloist. The interesting Drama Readings arranged by the Drama committee will continue this year, the first being for the afternoon of the 20th in the Workshop, at 2 o'clock, Mrs. Robert Allingham being in charge.

Newtonville Woman's Club

The year's activities of the Newtonville Woman's Club will begin on Tuesday, the 17th, when the members will renew their club associations and greet the officers of the new administration at the Annual Reception from 2:30 to 5 o'clock at the Club House on Washington Park.

Those receiving will be Mrs. Edwin P. Crowe, president; Mrs. Bion M. Weatherhead, Mrs. Frank E. Morris, Mrs. Edwin P. McGill, and Mrs. H. Clayton Pearson, while Mrs. Clifford B. Whitney, Mrs. Howard C. Thomas, Mrs. Adam Haug, and Mrs. Fred M. Blanchard will pour. It is regretted that Mrs. J. Mace Andrews and Mrs. Frank Winsor will be unable to meet the Club members on that day.

Music will be provided by The Musette Trio: Miss Florence Strickland, Violin; Mrs. Horace Guild, Cello; and Miss Dorothy Chadwell, Piano.

Mrs. Raymond Tucker is the chairman in charge of the arrangements for this party and she will be assisted by members of the Social committee. The Scholarship Bridge is being arranged for the afternoon of October 27th at the Club House. Mrs. George L. Curtis, of the Education committee, will manage this annual bridge party and tickets may be obtained from members of the committee or at Edmund's drugstore on Walnut street. All Club members are asked to keep the dates of November 15th and 16th in mind as the days for the Bazaar. The Ways and Means committee, whose chairman is Mrs. George H. Tracy, is asking for the hearty cooperation of all Club members, that this undertaking may be eminently successful.

Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club

On Monday evening, October 16th an illustrated lecture on "Sun-Silence Adobe" will be given by Mr. T. A. Fuller, in the Club Rooms at the Emerson School. The lecture which is being given in surrounding towns, and is very much liked, is the story of Arizona and New Mexico. It is hoped that all Club members will take advantage of this particularly worthwhile program.

Auburndale Review Club

The Auburndale Review Club will hold its next meeting on Tuesday, the 17th, at the home of Mrs. George E. Martin on Hancock street. The three papers of the morning will be "Lonely America," by Mrs. Harold W. Knowlton, "Our Stone Pellet Plan," by Mrs. George A. Follett, and "People Worth Talking About," by Cosmo Hamilton, by Mrs. Herbert E. B. Case.

West Newton Community Service Club

The first meeting of the Community Service Club of West Newton under the leadership of Mrs. Henry B. Patrick as president will be held at the Parish House of the Unitarian Church on Wednesday, October 18th, at 2:30 p. m.

The Program committee, of which Mrs. Sumner Robinson is chairman, has arranged a most varied and delightful series of lectures and entertainments for the coming year. The first of these will be Monologues by Miss Helen Howe. Miss Howe was much liked when she came to the Club four years ago. She has since pleased audiences in many parts of the country, and the committee is fortunate in having secured her for the opening meeting.

Tea will be served at the close of the program under the direction of Mrs. Paul Lameyer. The Club is beginning its new year with a splendid membership and with high hopes for a very busy and happy season.

Among the activities are the Current Events lectures, as heretofore, by Mrs. Claude U. Gilson. Mrs. Gilson has traveled during the summer in England, Germany, and Russia, and is well qualified to speak on world affairs.

French classes, in charge of Mrs. Edward Payson Drew, will be resumed, and it is hoped enough will join so that there may be Beginners, Intermediate, and Advanced Classes.

Under Mrs. Kingsbury's efficient leadership, the Club Chorus is planning its third year of work. Mrs. Clifford M. Brewer is in charge. An innovation this year will be classes in the Study of Dramatic Interpretation and Technique under the direction of Hortense Croede Ralback, of which Mrs. E. A. Dockstead has charge.

These classes are not limited to Club members. Mrs. James E. Robertson is in charge of the Exchange for Women's Work and will have a table of jellies, relishes and fancy work on display at the October meeting.

In aid of the Club's Philanthropic Fund, it is planned to hold card parties at several homes on the first Wednesday in November.

Newton Community Club

The Music committee of the Newton Community Club, Mrs. Wallace Wales, chairman, will present to the Club at its first meeting on Thursday, October 19th, the A. B. C. D. Quartette composed of Ruth G. Wrightman, Director; Nellie Akehurst, Piano; Doris Burdick, Charcoal Sketches; Charlotte Davis, Violin and Viola; and Helen Donovan, Cello and Contralto.

The entertainment, called "How Music Grew," deals with the story of music from prehistoric times to the present, in varied, colorful, and informative, but not technical, fashion. As the story proceeds, charcoal illustrations come to life beneath Miss Burdick's clever fingers, while the accompanying musical features include instrumental solos, as well as ensemble numbers.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the program under the direction of Mrs. George E. Rawson.

Shakespeare Club

Mrs. H. E. Durgin will be the hostess for the Shakespeare Club in her home in Norwell, Saturday, the 21st. All the members are invited to luncheon.

The work for the afternoon, Acts I and II of Midsummer Night's Dream, will be in charge of Mrs. F. S. Keith.

Newton Centre Woman's Club

The first solution of the following bridge problem to reach Mrs. Albert Muther, 28 Ballard street, Newton Centre, entitles the winner to a table of bridge at the Newton Centre Woman's Club Card Party, on Wednesday, October 25th, at 8 p. m.

North has the 7, 6, and 5 of Spades; the 10, 4, 3, and 2 of Hearts; the 9, 3, and 2 of Diamonds; and the 9, 4, and 2 of Clubs.

West has the king and queen of Spades; the 9, 8, 7, and 6 of Hearts; the 8 and 4 of Diamonds; and the ace, king, queen, 10 and 3 of Clubs. East has the jack, 10, 8, 4, and 2 of Spades; no Hearts; the queen, 10, 6, and 5 of Diamonds; and the 8, 7, 6, and 5 of Clubs.

South is dealer and plays the hand at four Hearts, having the ace, 9 and 3 of Spades; the ace, king, queen, jack, and 5 of Hearts; the ace, king, jack and 7 of Diamonds; and the jack of Clubs.

This evening Card Party will have as a feature the actual play of the problem hand by four prominent bridge players, their plays being dramatized by "living cards." The cards are beautifully hand-painted, worn sandwich-fashion, and the cast will wear crowns and accessories which will enhance the beauty of the cards, and add a realistic touch to the parts taken. Aces, kings, and jacks will be played by men. Arrangements are in charge of Mrs. Muther and Mrs. Everett Varney. Candy, nuts, and cards will be on sale. Tickets for this interesting affair are $1.00 each.

State Federation

RADIO. On Saturday morning, the 14th, over Station WBZ, at 11:15 o'clock (clubwomen should note change of hour), Mrs. Carl Hils Jr., chairman of Public Health in the General Federation of Women's Clubs, will be one of the guest speakers, taking for her topic "A Good Beginning." Mrs. Thomas J. Walker, first vice-president of the State Federation, is another speaker, on "Suggestions For Your Year Book." The musical feature of the program will be rendered by Mme. Edith Noyes-Green, Composer-Pianist.

MOTHERCRAFT CLUB OF MASSACHUSETTS. Clubwomen who have followed the progress of the committee of Mothercraft of the State Federation, an interest sponsored and founded by May Dickinson Kimball, look upon the Mothercraft Club of Massachusetts as a State Federation activity, and await announcements of its meetings as they would those of any State committee. For this reason, as information to clubwomen, notice is included here of the announcement of the president, Mrs. Kimball, that the Annual Meeting of the Mothercraft Club will be held at the Hotel Vendome, Boston, on Wednesday, October 18th, at 2 o'clock. The various club committees will be heard at that time followed by the report of the chairman of the Nominating committee, Mrs. Walter H. Woods.

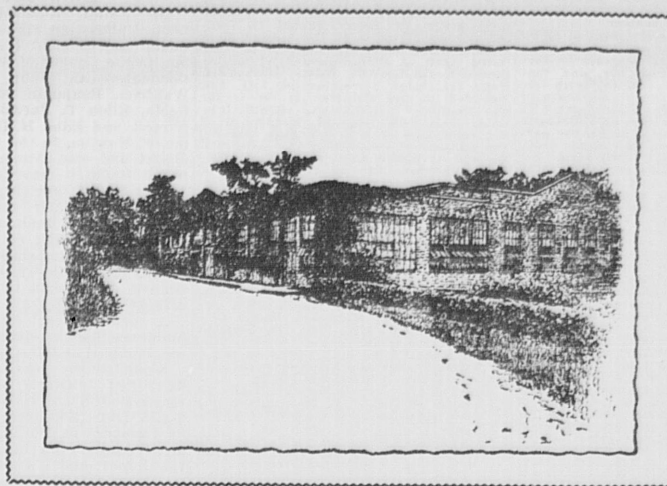

Mr. Harvey S. Gruvor, Superintendent of Schools at Lynn, and Mrs. Fred L. Pigeon of Boston, will address the meeting.

Mrs. Kimball invites all who wish to do so to join the Club at this meeting. There will be a musical program and afternoon tea.

She also makes the interesting announcement that the Club will sponsor an exhibition of old glass belonging to the members of the Dickinson-Baggs Tavern, Amherst, in the early spring. DISTRICT CONFERENCE. The Boston City Federation, Mrs. David A. Westcott, president, will be hostess to the Conference of the Fourth and Sixth Districts of the State Federation in the auditorium of the Boston Y. M. C. A., Clarendon street, on Friday, October 20th, at 10 a. m. Mrs. Frank P. Bennett, president of the State Federation, will address the Conference, and the remainder of the morning will be given to reports of State chairmen. Lieutenant Governor Gaspar G. Bacon will speak in the afternoon, following Mrs. Stewart A. Colpitts and Mrs. David R. Goodin, directors of the Fourth and Sixth Districts, respectively. The afternoon session will close with an address by Miss Margaret Welsman, of the Consumers' League, on the NRA.

It Makes a Difference

It is just a simple one-story building of brick.

Its wide windows are always open to the sun and air . . . it nestles comfortably into the Wellesley woods . . . near the lake that lent its name.

People come from all over the country to see it . . . and marvel to find such a bustle of industry in so rustic a spot.

They praise, too, . . . for it seems fitting that the business of clean clothes should be carried on in such pleasant places.

This laundry is fortunate in more than location. Its list of customers comprises outstanding families in the many communities included in its scope of service.

Those it hopes yet to serve are a discriminating clientele, too.

Just as certain factors make a difference to our friends, so, we believe, will they make a difference to those others we want for friends.

To hearty co-operation with NRA policies, this company adds its own pledge of fair prices . . . of highest quality . . . plus adequate service and proven reliability.

We offer a broad variety of laundry and dry cleaning services.

You are cordially invited to visit the plant at any hour of day . . . to send for our illustrated folder "STANDING OUT FROM THE CROWD" . . . to telephone for further information.

NEWTON W. C. T. U.

The regular meeting of the Newton Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held in the Methodist Church at Newton Centre on Oct. 5th. Mrs. James A. Floyd led the devotional service.

Mrs. John A. Groves speaking on the subject "High Lights of the National Convention" gave to her audience a vivid word picture of the happenings at the Convention of the W. C. T. U. held in Milwaukee in July.

One of the most interesting speakers at the Convention was Whiting Williams, Cleveland social investigator, and student of labor in America and Europe. He has spent many months during the past three years living with the country's unemployed, sleeping on flop house floors or park benches, haunting employment agencies, working in municipal woodyards for his flop house meals, or drifting from one industrial center to another. He believes that the closed saloon of national prohibition, besides serving as a tremendous shock absorber for lessening the impact of depression upon the country's workers has also helped save America from rioting and bloodshed. Mrs. Groves gave her audience the following quotation from his address, "My years of life alongside the workers convince me that, in spite of prohibition's defects, it has nevertheless, taken the weight of the liquor traffic very largely off the necks of our one hundred million workers whose meager incomes force them daily to choose between shoes and booze, and has placed it on the white collar necks of the few odd millions who can afford all the shoes and all the booze they want."

What about the future? What is going to happen?

If the return of beer should bring with it no considerable lessening of individual sobriety and productivity, then this return will merely mean that some hundreds of millions will be spent by the worker on beer instead of as at present for milk, gasoline, tires, electric refrigerators, and such. This in itself will be a loss only slightly offset by the lessening of taxes enjoyed by the country's white-collared people. If, on the other hand the return of beer proceeds to lessen the sobriety, the productivity, and the present magnificent stamina, and resourcefulness of the individual worker, this will cause a further loss to the worker group of such huge sums as will make it a major tragedy not only for this group but also for every manufacturer and business man throughout the land.

So, I believe we have a long and hard period before us, just because there are so few who have taken any thought as to the part John Barleycorn played in the life of the workingman."

NEWTON CENTRE SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

The executive board of the Newton Centre School Association held a meeting at the Mason School on Wednesday, Oct. 11, at 3:30 p. m.

These meetings occur on the second Wednesday of every month during the school year.

—On Wednesday, Oct. 18th, the executive board will entertain the teachers at tea.

Waban

—Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Hatfield of Quinobequin rd. are spending the week-end in Windsor, Conn., where they will visit their son at the Loomis School.

—At the Union Church on Oct. 20, at 6:30 P. M., the first Church Supper of the season will be held, followed by a most interesting program. Dr. Charles H. Tozier of Winchester will show some remarkably fine colored plate photography. The hostesses will be Mrs. Edwin J. Morse's group.

—Miss Margaret Weisman will speak at the Union Church next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Her subject will be "Women in Industry and the NRA."

—Mrs. Nelson M. Wells will render piano selections. Following the program tea will be served. All are cordially invited to attend.

—The first fall meeting for making surgical dressings will be held at the Union Church on Wednesday, Oct. 25th. Mrs. Arthur O. Rinden will speak on "Work with Young Mothers of the New China," and will wear the native costume of the young mother. Mrs. C. L. Favinger and Mrs. W. H. Ryan and members of Group 9 will be hostesses of the floor, while Mrs. Dana M. Dutch and Group 7 will be hostesses of the tea. Mrs. L. A. Estes will play a medley of Chinese music.

—Mrs. Bertha Allen, supt. of Newton Hospital, may greet the assemblage. Members of the Church of the Good Shepherd have been invited to join at this meeting. This will be a splendid opportunity to get together and accomplish a great deal for a most worthy cause.

Bigelow Junior H. S.

Lewis E. MacBrayne, General Manager of the Massachusetts Safety Council, was the speaker at the regular assembly of the Bigelow Junior High School on Friday, Oct. 6. In connection with the safety campaign, Boy Scouts are acting as traffic officers at the intersections at Waverley ave. and Arlington st., Park and Arlington sts., Park and Church sts., and Park st. and the School Drive-way. These boys are being trained by Officer James Kiley of the Police Department.

A Columbus Day Program under the direction of Miss Heloise Chase was put on at the assembly on Wednesday, Oct. 11. It took the form of a radio broadcast with Charles Dolan the announcer. Among those taking part were Perry Gentzel, John Gorst, Thelma Cutter, Stuart Stern, Jean Coleman, Mary Ann Brennan, Jeanette Benyon. Chief among the interesting features was a play entitled "America for Americans." Several selections were rendered by the school Glee Club.

Thelma Cutter and Harriet Tashjian were the representatives from the Bigelow Junior High School at the regional Junior Red Cross Conference at the Levi Warren Junior High School on Tuesday, Oct. 10. Thelma Cutter made a report on her trip to the National Junior Red Cross Conference in Washington last spring.

The staff of the Bigelow Banner, the school magazine, has finally been selected. Virginia Cotton as Editor-in-Chief, and John Ryan, as Business Manager hold the key positions. The editorial staff is as follows: Wallace Leonard, Leonard LeSourd, Catherine McCarthy, Stuart Stern, Alice Tracey, Joseph Campbell, Therese Thomas, Jones Jackson, Elizabeth Briard, William Holmes, Thelma Pingree, Stanley Smith, Alice Dyer, John Carmody, Barbara Ford, Beverly Beard.

Day Jr. High School

In their regular October meeting the teachers had the privilege of hearing Prof. Kirtley Mather of Harvard University who spoke on "New England the New Deal."

Winifred Batty and Richard Mansfield were delegates to the all-day regional conference of the Massachusetts American Red Cross.

Albert Everts, a seventh grader, won the boys' singles tennis championship. The boys' doubles tournament is getting under way this week.

The Day Broadcasting Club will present on October 14th a special Columbus Day broadcast. The entire program was planned by Ruth Carter. A poem about Columbus will be read by Bernard Ericson. Marcella Renard will give a short reading about the conditions which the explorers must have found in the new world.

A three-act play is next on the program with Polly Hughes and Denry Hayes taking the main parts as Queen Isabella and Columbus. A saxophone solo by Mr. Francis Tanner will conclude the broadcast.

The "Daytonian" staff are to act as hosts at the meeting of the League of Junior High School Publications to be held in the Day Junior High on Friday, October 20. A program of unusual interest has been prepared. From 4:30 to 5:30 the business meeting will be in session with the officers of the league and the delegates in charge. At six o'clock dinner will be served in the lunch room. Neal O'Hara, columnist of the "Boston Traveler" will give an address in the evening, followed by "Great Caesar," a farce to be presented by a group from the ninth grade.

The Student Council elected its officers on October 4th. The president is Richard Whitney; vice president, Elliston Whitmore; secretary, Betty Jaffar; captain of girls' Student Patrol, Marcella Renard; captain of boys' Student Patrol, William Kinney.

Radio activities this year take the form of a club directed by Mr. Alden Read. The first broadcast was presented during the home room period on Friday under the call letters WBBC, which mean Day Broadcasting Club. Marcella Renard was the introducer; Marilyn Fairfax presented school news; Theodora Klein, local news; Richard Mansfield, New England news; Carlos Cook, national news; Bernard Ericson, world news. Elda Dignini said a few words about the program to be given next week.

Arrested For Drunken Driving

Edward Almeida of 28 Main st., Somerville, was arrested last Friday night on Beacon st., Chestnut Hill, by Patrolmen Chadwick and Murphy charged with drunkenness and driving while under the influence of liquor. Almeida's car had collided with three other automobiles and had hit a tree. He was arraigned in the Newton court on Saturday and the judge was told that Almeida had been convicted once before for drunken driving. His case was continued to October 16.

Police News

Michael Vassalotti of 45 Melbourne ave., Newtonville was fined $10 in the Newton court on Monday for attempting to rescue a prisoner. Patrolman Walsh testified that he arrested a man in Nonantum on Sunday night for drunkenness and that Vassalotti tried to pull the prisoner away from him.

Thomas F. Day of 18 Shorncliffe rd., Newton was in the Newton court on Monday charged with going away after doing damage to property without making himself known. Patrolman Hunt testified that he had discovered a broken gas light pole on Wesley st. and he followed a trail of water from it to Day's yard, over a half a mile away. The water came from a broken radiator on Day's automobile. Day admitted having hit something with his car, but that he was unaware it had caused any damage. He was found guilty and his case was placed on file when he agreed to pay for the damage he had caused.

James T. Sheehan of 4 Hovey st., Newton was in the Newton court on Tuesday charged with driving a car while under the influence of liquor. Judge Lloyd Allen fined Sheehan $100 and then suspended the fine because the defendant had spent eleven days in jail since his arrest on the night of September 30.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

joyed seeing many of the best-known contributors to Radio programs, thrown on the screen as they appear when broadcasting.

A social hour with refreshments followed the demonstration.

Woman's Club of Newton Highlands

The Board of Directors of the Workshop, Mrs. Albion H. Brown, president, gave a very successful exhibit of Old and New Patchwork Quilts on Tuesday afternoon, October 10th, in the Congregational Parish House.

The quilt that took the prize out of one thousand shown at the Eastern States Exposition in Springfield recently was on exhibit. This quilt is owned by Mrs. Smith, of Cambridge, and was made in 1854.

The oldest quilt exhibited was dated 1808 and owned by Mrs. Richard A. Cody. The handsomest old quilt was exhibited by Mrs. Comely of Cambridge.

First prize for new quilts was awarded to Mrs. O. C. Mackay and second prize to Mrs. Don J. Edwards. First prize for old quilts was awarded to Mrs. Thompson and second prize to Mrs. Brown.

The Club trio, consisting of Mrs. John F. Westrel, Mrs. Frank A. Shute, and Mrs. Carleton S. Blanchard, sang very artistically "When Twilight Weaves," arranged from Beethoven's Minuet; "I Bring You Heartease," by Branscombe; "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," by Bland; and "Old Uncle Moon" by Scott. Mrs. Kenneth Waite did in her usual finished manner "With Courty Grace," "Powder and Patches," and "In the Gay Old Time," all by Phillips.

Mrs. Rupert Sircorn was the accompanist.

Mrs. Sarah Lee Whorf, of Wintthrop, gave a very interesting talk on quilts, covering the early history of patchwork, and tracing it back to the sixth century B. C. and then up to the present time.

There was actual quilting on the stage by the four incorporators of the Workshop: Mrs. Charles G. Wetherbee, Mrs. Grosvenor D.W. Marcy, Mrs. Edwin F. Gibbs and Miss Marion H. Dorr.

Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club

The first meeting of the Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club was held on Monday evening, October 2nd, at the home of the president, Mrs. Walter E. Evans, of 29 Thurston rd.

Mrs. Evans greeted the Club members with words of welcome, after which was the usual business meeting.

Mrs. Thomas L. Aiken gave her report as delegate to the State Federation Annual Meeting held at Swampscott, and Mrs. Albert Proctor gave a report of the Newton Federation Annual Meeting.

A social hour followed and refreshments were served by Mrs. Percy Marden, chairman of the Hospitality committee.

Newton Citizens' Club Is Active

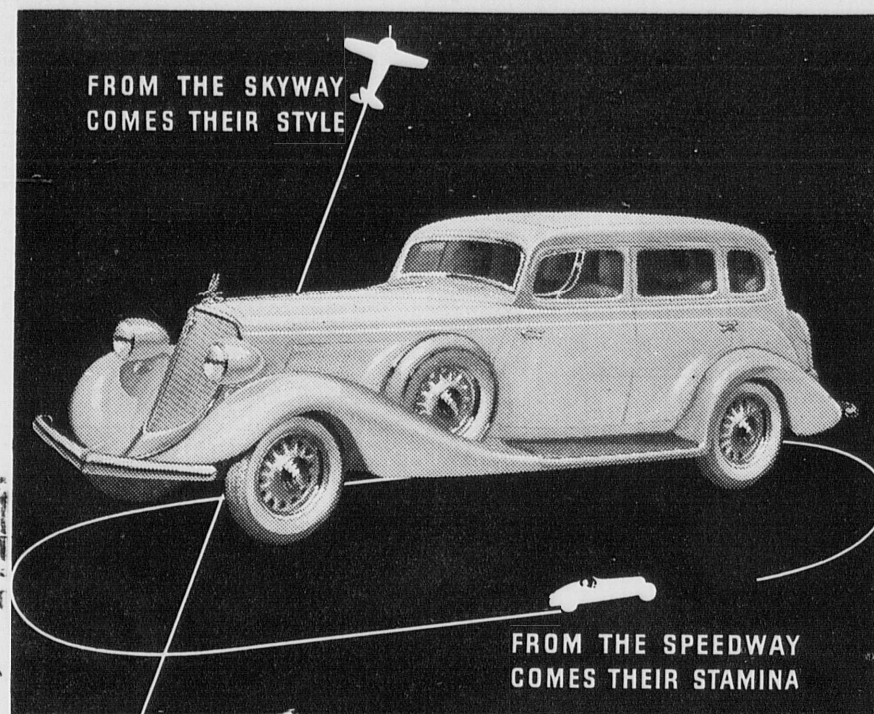

Members of the Newton Citizens' Club are actively preparing plans for coming months. The executive committee has been conducting a membership drive with the aid of club members and nearly 300 new applications have been brought in. The program committee is arranging some interesting meetings prior to the State and city elections. They plan to have as speakers most of the candidates for elective offices at the coming municipal contest. It has been the custom of the club to hold open meetings on the second Wednesday of each month at Columbus Hall, Adams and Watertown sts., Nonantum, and all citizens interested in the coming State and city campaigns are invited to attend these meetings.

At the meeting of the Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night the names of six Newton residents were drawn; these men to serve as Jurors at the sessions of the Superior Court starting at Cambridge on Nov. 6. Two who will serve in the civil business session are—Daniel J. Welch, 125 Edinboro st.; Charles M. Olcott, 119 Gramere st. The four who will serve in criminal business sessions are—Delbert Rhind, 267 Upland rd.; Roger A. Phinney, 293 Fuller st.; Leslie H. Allen, 20 Bacon pl.; John J. Ryan, 113 Edinboro st.

The Startling New STUDEBAKERS OF 1934

Sensationally designed! $645
Sensationally priced!

AND UP, AT THE FACTORY

STUDEBAKER is presenting the lowest priced fine cars in American motoring history in these startling new Studebakers of 1934!

Studebaker has stepped down into new fields of low price and stepped up traditional Studebaker quality in so doing.

The armor-plated bodies of these new Studebakers of 1934 are sensational in their beauty, strength and quiet. They go farther than any standard production bodies in the world in approximating the air-curve symmetry of the latest giant speed planes.

Appealing outside, they're utterly alluring when you open the doors... with capacious seats, luxurious tailored upholstery and the finest fittings ever provided in cars so low priced. A new ventilating system assures real comfort—allows opening of windshield.

These new Studebakers have that stamina and brilliance of performance which enabled five 85% stock Studebakers to finish among the first twelve in the great Indianapolis Speedway race on May 30 last—and to go through that entire contest without a single adjustment or repair!

They have uncanny "mechanical brains" that make driving almost entirely automatic.

The test of driving will fully convince you that no car you can buy is nearly as good a "buy" as these startling new low-priced Studebakers. The new Dictator Six is $645. The new Commander Eight is $845. The new President Eight is $1045!

Come in today and take out one of these new Studebakers of 1934 for a convincing trial drive.

THE DICTATOR as low as $645

THE COMMANDER as low as $845

THE PRESIDENT as low as $1045

Prices at the factory. Bumpers and spare tires extra

Continuance of these amazing low introductory prices is not assured. Now is the time to take advantage of them before possible revision upward is made necessary by higher costs of materials.

Creator of Cub Program Will Speak At Newton Centre Next Monday

On Purpose and Workings of Newer Scout Movement Being Advanced Here

"Who are those youngsters running around in a blue uniform, with a yellow neckerchief and the little blue skull cap?" is getting to be a common inquiry in person and by telephone, on the part of parents in Newton, at the office of Norumbega Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America. Before they can be answered, there is always an immediate second question, something like this: "Are they Junior Boy Scouts and can my boy join?"

The answer is they are Cubs, members of the organization of the Boy Scouts of America for boys nine, ten and eleven years of age. Of course, the questions are natural ones, for Cubbing is a new program. It is about three years old in the United States and about two years old in Newton. As the leaders are gradually learning, "what it is all about," the membership has been growing, until today the office of Norumbega Council is being deluged with inquiries about the Cub program.

At the present time there are slightly over 100 Cubs in Norumbega Council actually enrolled, but the popularity of the program is attested by the fact that one of the present Packs had applications to join from about sixty boys at a recent meeting!

At the present time Pack 22 is connected with Grace Church in Newton with Mr. Morrell as Cub Master; Pack 7 in West Newton has Mr. W. R. Speirs as Cubmaster; Pack 20, in Trinity Church, Newton Centre, has Mr. Carroll Hoffman as Cubmaster; Pack 19, Congregational Church Newton Centre, has Mr. Lord as Cubmaster, just having taken office. Pack 6 of Waban has Mr. W. Bradford Gove, II, as Cubmaster. Packs are also in prospect in Auburndale, Pack 2 to be connected with Troop 2 at the Centenary Church and Pack 15 with Troop 15 at the Burr School.

The present policy of the Cub Division of Norumbega Council is to have the Cub Packs in with Troops. The Pack has its own Committee and leadership, but the philosophy of Cubbing calls for the Cubs to know into which Troops they are going when the "go up" as it is called. This will lead eventually to having a "Group" in each institution; for example, the Nonantum Athletic Association at present sponsors Troop 3, which has a Troop Committee and a Scoutmaster; Mr. William Jassett is working on a Cub Pack, which the N. A. A. will also sponsor and it will be known as Pack 3; with its own Pack Committee and Cubmaster; later there will probably be Seascout Patrol 3 and Rover Crew 3. The whole organization will be called Group 3 of the N. A. A. and the programs will all be coordinated by joint meetings of Committee Chairmen and leaders of the various units. Cubs will go into Troop 3 from Pack 3; Scouts, who like Seascouting, into Seascout Patrol 3 and older fellows into Rover Crew, or Patrol 3. The Seascouts will not only have their own program but will give service in Junior leadership to the Cubs and Scouts and the Rovers the same. The entire program will be explained and its working and purpose set forth by the creator of the Cub Program, Dr. H. W. Hurt, at the

Tickets are now being issued by people, fathers and mothers and Cubmasters connected with present Packs. All parents and boy-workers who are interested are cordially invited to attend. Places at dinner may be reserved by calling the office of Norumbega Council, Newton North 7410, or writing there, 259 Walnut street, Newtonville. To those who wish to come later, Dr. Hurt starts speaking about 7:45 at the Club and all are welcome then. The Chairman of the Meeting will be Mr. Elmer F. Ellsworth, Deputy Commissioner of

District Governor Of Kiwanis Clubs Speaks in Newton

Tuesday noon, the Newton Kiwanis Club was host to Gov.-elect of Kiwanis New England District, Wesley E. Enman, of St. Johnsbury, Vermont. The 77 Kiwanians and their guests present represented the clubs of Belmont, Boston, Brookline, Cambridge, Needham, Somerville, Waltham, Wellesley, and Arlington, in addition to our own Newton Club. Gov.-elect Enman will head the New England District for the ensuing year, a district which embraces 93 Kiwanis clubs of as many cities and towns from the northernmost point of Maine to the most southern part of Connecticut.

The meeting was honored by the presence of Lt. Gov. Everett W. Ireland of the Kiwanis Fifth District, superintendent of the Somerville schools, and Lt. Gov.-elect Albert W. Wunderly, Boston and Arlington lawyer.

The honored guest was the speaker of the day and was introduced by Immediate Past Lt. Gov. James P. Gallagher of the Newton Club. Mr. Enman, in a highly interesting and instructive as well as encouraging manner, discussed the outstanding aims and policies of Kiwanis in New England for the year 1934.

One item of particular interest to Newton Rotarians and Kiwanians was the announcement by Pres. George L. White of the Newton Kiwanis Club that on Tuesday, October 24, there is to be a joint meeting of the two local service clubs together with the wives of the members at the Charles River Country Club.

Candidates For Local Offices Still Increasing

Proctor Opposes Holden, Gordon for Re-Election—Bryant for School Committee

Edward O. Proctor of 78 Glen ave., Newton Centre will be a candidate for Alderman-at-Large from Ward 6. He will contest the election with Sydney B. Holden of Braeland ave. Mr. Holden has been Ward Alderman from Ward 6 for the past 4 years, but this year seeks election as Alderman-at-Large. Mr. Proctor graduated from Yale University in 1909 and from Harvard Law School in 1912. He has since practiced law in Boston except during the World War when he served with the A. E. F. as a Lieutenant in France. He has been a resident of Newton for many years, is married and has three children. He is president of the Jefferson Club of Newton and was recently re-elected to this office.

John H. Gordon of Auburndale ave., Auburndale has changed his mind and will again be a candidate for Alderman-at-Large from Ward 4. Gordon, who has been an Alderman from Ward 4 for the past ten years, stated some time ago that he would not run again. He has now decided to run and his nomination papers are being circulated. John P. Brocklesby of Murray rd., Auburndale announced his candidacy for this office a couple of months ago. Silvanus Smith of Woodland rd., Auburndale, former Ward Alderman from Ward 4, has been mentioned as a probable candidate for the office or for that of Ward Alderman. So far, Mr. Smith has made no announcement.

Harry E. Bryant of 22 Prescott st., Newtonville will be a candidate for the office of School Committeeman from Ward 2. Bryant is a school teacher himself. He is a member of the English High School in Boston. In 1927 he was a candidate for the office against George H. Tracy. Mr. Tracy won that contest and was re-elected in 1930. Mr. Tracy has not announced whether or not he will again be a candidate this year. Nomination papers have already been filed for Nelson B. Vanderhof of Dexter rd., Newtonville.

Harold A. Murray of 181 Pearl st., Newton will be a candidate for Ward Alderman from Ward 1. Murray will oppose William A. Sproat, the present incumbent. He ran unsuccessfully against Sproat two years ago.

Man Killed By Tractor At Oak Hill City Farm

William Bright, 32, of 13 Hammill place, Newton Centre, was fatally injured on Monday afternoon at the farm at Oak Hill which has been operated by the city to give work to unemployed men. The men who worked on this farm were paid $12 weekly by the Welfare Department. The farm has been under the supervision of the Playground Department. Bright was driving a tractor on a lot of his balance. He fell off his seat and was crushed by the right rear wheel. The accident happened at 2:30. Bright was rushed to the Newton Hospital and died at 5:30. He received a fractured pelvis and internal injuries. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Helen Hartman Bright, and two children. He is also survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bright of Sumner st., Newton Centre; and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Fearnley of Watertown and Mrs. Catherine Inverizzi of Needham. His funeral service was held yesterday morning at Sacred Heart Church, Newton Centre; burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham.

Meat Poisons Newton Residents

Ham and bacon served at a dinner by a family in Chestnut Hill recently are supposed to have caused eight residents of this city to be seized with trichinosis. The case reported to the Newton Board of Health during the past two weeks are the first in this city for many years; only twice in the past 40 years has the disease been reported in Newton. The names of the persons stricken with the disease were not revealed. Trichinosis is alleged to be caused by improperly cured meat. The meat eaten at the Chestnut Hill residence was purchased at a market in Boston.

Parent-Teachers Asso. Meets Oct. 24

Convention to Be Held at Newton High School

An unusual plan in connection with the convention of the Massachusetts Parent-Teacher Association has been devised which in addition to reducing the expense to members and assisting them to obtain the benefits of the convention should also be of considerable interest to Newton parents. The convention of the State association will be held in Springfield and will be followed with "continuation conventions" in Newton, Fall River, and Haverhill. The Newton meeting will be held at the high school and will begin at 2:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, October 24th. All parents and friends of Newton school children are cordially invited. There will be a small individual registration fee of 25 cents. Afternoon and evening sessions will be held with supper to be served at the high school at 6:30 at a charge of $1.00. Reservations for the supper should be made immediately at the State office of the Association, 80 Boylston st., Boston. The Newton convention will be conducted under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association of Newton. Mrs. Philip M. Wentworth is general chairman of arrangements. Local chairmen are Mrs. R. D. Curtis, president of the John Ward Association, and Mrs. Harry Friedman, president of the Newton Centre School Association, and Mr. Tressler W. Callahan, president of the John W. Weeks Junior High Association.

Among the chief speakers of the convention will be Mrs. B. F. Langworthy, first vice-president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, Miss Alice Sowers, associate chairman of the Parent Education Committee of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, Mr. Cheney C. Jones, superintendent of the Home for Little Wanderers, Boston, and Mr. John Lund, superintendent of the Newton Schools.

Mrs. B. F. Langworthy, the First Vice-President of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers since 1930 has been actively engaged in parent-teacher work for more than twenty years. She has been president of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers, chairman of the Chicago Council of parent-teacher associations and president of the River Forest Parent-Teacher association. She is a trustee of Winnetka, where she resides, a director of the Illinois League of Women Voters and a former president of the Woman's City Club of Chicago. She holds office in the Illinois Central Hygiene League, the Cook County School of Nursing and the Juvenile Protective Association.

She has recently represented the National Congress of Parents and Teachers on the programs of the Chicago Conference of the National Educational Association, the Institute of Public Affairs at the University of Virginia and the International Congress of Women.

Miss Alice Sowers is the National Association Chairman for Parent Education for the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

A native of Ohio, she received her B.S. degrees at Miami University, her M.A. degrees at the University of Cincinnati, and the degree of Ph.D. at Cornell University.

Miss Sowers interprets Parent Education to the community, holds conferences to develop Parent Education leadership and to plan programs for study groups. Miss Sowers' work is made possible for the National Congress through a gift from the Spelman Foundation.

The program follows:
Opening Session
2:30—Mrs. Philip M. Wentworth, presiding. Greetings: Mr. Samuel Paul, Principal Mason School. Report of the State Convention, Mrs. Paul Kelsey. Music: Mothersingers from Belmont, Lexington, Newton and Waltham; Mrs. Bernard Gorkinle at the piano.

Garcelon Named President of the Boston Garden

Well Known Newton Man Long Identified With Sporting Events

Last week Saturday announcement was made of the election of William F. Garcelon of Newton as president of the Boston Garden by the board of directors of the Garden corporation. Mr. Garcelon, a Boston lawyer and business man, has been prominent for more than twenty-five years being closely identified with sports and sporting events in Boston and New England.

Mr. Garcelon, a native of Lewiston, Maine, is a graduate of Bates College in the class of 1899 and of the Harvard Law School in 1905. He is vice-president of the Boston Athletic Association and chairman of the athletic committee of that organization; president and organizer of the New England Golf Association and was chairman of the New England Athletic Commission of the War Camp Community Service which so successfully promoted a series of Army-Navy football games during the war. His connection with sporting events began in football and baseball at Bates College and continued as a member of the track team at Harvard. Later he acted as voluntary coach of the hurdlers at Cambridge and continued his interest in various sporting events until 1908 when he became graduate treasurer of the Harvard A. A. Serving in this capacity for five years his interest in athletics was increased. He has served as president of the Commonwealth Country Club and is a past president of the Mass. Golf Association in which he held various other offices.

He was a member of the State Legislature about twenty years ago serving in the House of Representatives as a member from Newton. For some years he was politically active in behalf of Republican leaders of the time and while still maintaining an interest in political matters his many activities preclude a more active participation. His business activities in addition to his law practice include the following: vice-president of the Armstrong Co.; treasurer of the American Tool Co.; director of American News Co. of New York; director White-Smith Music Publishing Co.; chairman New England Shippers Advisory Board; and trustee, Boston Five Cents Savings Bank.

President Garcelon will continue his law practice and will not give up his other business connections. He will assume his new duties at once, succeeding to the position of administrative head of the Garden, formerly held by the late Joseph T. Gilman of Newtonville. He will serve in a general supervisory capacity, it was stated by the directors, with the active direction of the Garden affairs under vice-president and general manager Harold J. Diblee, who was elected by the directors to that position at the same meeting.

Newton Students On MIT Dean's List

A number of the Newton students at M. I. T. are on the Dean's List of high scholastic standing for the term which closed last June. The group is led by Harrison C. Carlson, now a senior, and Richard F. Jarrell, now a junior. These two are students of the first honor rank in their respective classes. Carlson is one of twenty-three students of his class who number about 3.7 per cent of the total class. Jarrell is one of thirty-three students who comprise 6.5 per cent of the class of 1935.

Other students from Newton in the Class of 1934 who are on the Dean's List are William L. Doten, Jr., and Chester A. Tindbury of second honor rank and John M. Hitchcock and Edward C. Taylor of third honor rank.

In the Class of 1935 with Richard Jarrell are Richard F. Bailey and George W. Bartlett of second honor ranking and Randall C. Smith of third honor ranking.

Vincent T. Estabrook and Elmer W. Davis are the two members of last year's freshman class from Newton who are students of second and third rank respectively. The eleven boys mentioned all graduated from the Newton High School.

Two other members of the class of 1935 who attained third honor ranking were Donaldson R. McMullin of Waban who attended Newton High and Beacon School and William Dunn, a Newton High graduate, now living in Somerville.

Community Chest Teams Are Now Organizing For Coming Drive For Funds

Enthusiastic Group of Leaders and Team Captains Meets at Brae Burn Country Club Tuesday

Pointing toward the opening of the $213,000 Newton Community Chest campaign on Nov. 1st, an enthusiastic group of 125 Village Chairmen, Majors, and Team Captains in the soliciting organization met at the Brae Burn Country Club on Tuesday evening to plan the appeal of the Chest to every resident of Newton.

Stressing the fact that the relief of the unfortunate through the use of municipal, state, and federal funds is only a part of the task of making recovery possible for families whose lives have been disrupted by depression, Leon B. Rogers, President of the Chest, explained briefly the work of each of the Chest's fourteen member agencies and called upon the team captains to have their soliciting groups completed in time for a general meeting of all workers at the Newton High School on the evening of Oct. 31st.

Mr. Rogers also said that the official campaign literature had already been mailed to a substantial number of Newton people, so that the way had been paved for the solicitation of all selected individuals prior to November 1st.

Copies of the campaign folder, entitled "To Meet a Hunger for More than Food," were distributed to everyone present. "Let us make no mistake," the campaign literature reads in part. "Our obligation is not merely to keep people alive, but to meet their hunger for something more than food—to keep them, in Walter Lippman's penetrating words, from despair, from hideous boredom, from the crushing sense of not being wanted, of having no place in society."

With reference to the subject of public and private relief, the folder reads: "Unemployment has increased the need for relief well beyond the point where private agencies can assume the larger part of the burden. Today, in Newton as elsewhere, the city bears the burden of the expense. There is, however, an irreducible minimum of relief which can be accomplished only through private agencies. There are three reasons for this. "First, public relief must, for the protection of the taxpayers, conform to certain legal rules. Such rules are necessary but they mean that many who need help must go elsewhere. The other day one of our Chest agencies gave a man fifty cents for a haircut. The city could not have done this—but how wise it was, when a good appearance meant a job for that man.

"In the second place, many people in desperate circumstances would rather starve than request public aid. To maintain the morale of this group, to help them rebuild their lives, some other form of relief is essential. Finally, the relief work of our Chest agencies must be supported because so much of it is preventive relief. We all know the necessity for preventive medicine; we need no further explanation to understand the necessity for preventive relief."

Preparations for the campaign are now making rapid progress. Tomorrow the Boy Scouts will distribute 1,000 display posters, and on Monday large banners will be hung across the city streets at five strategic locations. A Village Chairman has been appointed for every village except Newton Lower Falls. In Newton, James B. Melcher is serving as Chairman. In Waban the chairmanship has been assigned to Clifford W. Walker. In Nonantum, William F. Joyce has undertaken to lead the Chest forces. Other Chairmen are Mrs. Walter B. Godsoe in Newton Highlands, Fred M. Rust in Newtonville, A. Leslie Harwood, Jr., in Newton Centre, and Mrs. R. M. Saltonstall and Col. John Alden Degen in Chestnut Hill.

A group of nearly 70 prominent citizens are sponsoring the Chest campaign through their membership in the Endorsing Committee, the Chairman of which is Mayor Sinclair Weeks. The other members of this Committee are:

Donald Angier, Mrs. William H. Best, Stanley M. Bolster, Mrs. Dwight S. Brigham, Edward I. Brown, Edwin P. Brown, Mrs. Allison Burr, Mrs. Hubert L. Carter, James R. Chandler, Hon. Edwin O. Childs, Mrs. Ernest C. Cobb, Herbert M. Cole.

Charles C. Dasey, William J. Davidson, Frank A. Day, Jr., Frederick J. Driscoll, Rev. D. Brewer Eddy, Eben H. Ellison, Cyrus Y. Ferris, Charles B. Floyd, Edward J. Frost, Frederic D. Fuller.

John H. Gordon, S. Harold Greene, Robert H. Gross, Moses H. Gulesian, Henry I. Harriman, Charles E. Hatfield, Mrs. Ralph C. Henry, Dr. Everett C. Herrick, Donald M. Hill, Seward W. Hardy Mitchell, John Moir, Harry E. Noyes, Mrs. Irving O. Palmer, J. Earle Parker, Mrs. Mary H. Remick, William H. Rice, James L. Richards, Charles E. Riley, Fred W. Rust.

Mrs. Endicott P. Saltonstall, Frank A. Schirmer, Rev. Lawrence W. Slatery, Mrs. Ellis Spear, Jr., E. Ray Spears, Right Reverend Francis J. Spellman, Charles E. Spencer, Jr., Mrs. Frank H. Stuart, Dr. Edward T. Sullivan, Rupert C. Thompson, Jr., Charles E. Valentine, Edwin S. Webster, Hon. Alonzo R. Weed, Henry A. Wentworth, Thomas Weston, Thomas W. White, Dr. Guy M. Winslow.

St. Commissioner Stuart Inspects N. Y. Incinerator

Street Commissioner George E. Stuart, accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Frances Stuart, who is chief clerk at the Street Department office in City Hall, went to New York on Tuesday where he will inspect an incinerator in that city. The information obtained by Mr. Stuart is expected to be helpful in determining plans for the incinerator which will be erected in Newton in the near future.

Newtonville Man Receives Black Hand Threat

John Proia who conducts a grocery store at the corner of Adams st. and Linwood ave., Newtonville, received a letter on Tuesday demanding $600 and containing a threat that his life would be taken if this sum were not paid. The letter, which was mailed in Boston, was turned over to the Newton police.

To the People of Newton

Mrs. Grosvenor Marcy, Chairman of the Newton committee on badges and awards, entertained members of her committee at her home on Monday afternoon of this week.

Mrs. Walter Godsoe, secretary of the committee, reported that during the Scout year, October 1932 to June 1933, 1150 merit badges were awarded to the Newton Girl Scouts. Of these, 40 were group badges. This committee sponsors the different tests which are given to the Girl Scouts. Each member sponsors a certain group of tests getting the examiner and arranging the time and place of the tests.

The members of the committee are as follows: Mrs. Grosvenor Marcy of Newton Highlands, chairman; Mrs. E. W. Bartram of Waban has charge of First Class Work; Mrs. C. M. Bigelow of West Newton, Dressmaker, Needlewoman; Mrs. W. W. Bigelow of West Newton, Junior Citizen, World Knowledge, Pathfinder, and World Interpreter; Mrs. Fred Bond of Newton Centre, Child Nurse, Health Winner, Home Nurse, and First Aid; Mrs. Harold Bond, Newtonville, Journalist and Scribe; Mrs. R. Burnett, Waban, Athlete, Dancer, Horsewoman, Archery, and Pioneer; Mrs. Albert Everts, Newtonville, Electrician, Cyclist, Motorist, and Handywoman; Mrs. Howard Fessenden, Newton Centre, Homemaker; Mrs. Walter Godsoe, Newton Highlands, Wild Flower Finder, Tree Finder, Bird Finder and Garden Flower Finder; Mrs. G. Bancroft Hall, Needham, Signaller and Telegrapher; Mrs. James Melcher, Newton, has charge of Musician and Minstrel; Mrs. Dana Sylvester, Newton Highlands, Canner and Cook; Mrs. Robert Waller, Newton, Hostess House-keeper, and Landlady; and Mrs. Ruthena Warren, Newton Highlands, Artist, Photographer and Craftsman.

Troop 2 of Newton celebrated the holiday last week by going to Wingoheek Beach. Mrs. Arthur D. Vose had charge of the 17 girls on the outing.

Camp Mary Day is being used every week-end for overnight hikes. The village cabins on the ridge are in great demand and more Fall overnight hiking is being done than ever before.

An all-Newton get together of council, committee members, and leaders will be held at the home of Mrs. Walton S. Redfield, Commissioner for the Newton Girl Scouts, Thursday afternoon, Oct. 26.

Among the new officers who have been welcomed in to the Girl Scout Council this year are: Mrs. Joseph Brann of Newtonville has Troop 1; Mrs. M. P. Wheeler also of Newtonville is Captain of Troop 2. Waban has a new Captain for Troop 4—Miss Marjorie Puddington. Mrs. George Reel of Newtonville is leader for Troop 7, Newton Upper Falls. Troop 20 of Newton has Miss Edith Hinds of Needham for its leader. Auburndale has two new leaders: Miss Julia Bacon of West Newton for Troop 8 and Mrs. G. A. Webster of Auburndale for Troop 9. Newton Highlands welcomed Miss Lilla Cavannah as Captain of Troop 21.

Weeks Junior H. S.

The teachers and the students of the John W. Weeks Junior High School are anxious to see a large number of parents and friends attending the first Parent-Teacher Association meeting of the 1933-1934 season, to be held on Friday evening, October 20, at eight o'clock in the school auditorium. The speakers will be Mr. John Lund, the Superintendent of Schools, and Mr. Herbert Landry, the Director of the Department of Guidance and Measurements in the Newton schools. Mr. Lund will have a message to the parents and mothers will be interested to hear.

The boys of the I.H.F. Division will present the assembly program on October 25. The keynote of the program will be Science of Today. Three boys will tell of their scientific experiences at the Century of Progress Exposition.

There will also be a big dramatic scene in which several of the world's most famous scientists and explorers will be represented.

The men teachers of the John W. Weeks Junior High School met with several instructors of the other junior high schools of Newton on Tuesday afternoon, October 17, to inspect the Newton Trade School in the Technical Building in Newtonville. The men had an opportunity to get acquainted with the work of the Trade School and to see some of their former students preparing for the occupations. Among the speakers during the latter half of the program were Mr. John Lund, the Superintendent of Schools; Mr. Robert O. Small, Director of Vocational Education; State Department of Education; and Mr. George H. Tracy, a member of the School Committee. Mr. James Forbes, the Director of the Trade School, presided at the meeting.

It was like old times to welcome Mr. Ulysses G. Wheeler, the former Superintendent of Schools in Newton, at luncheon in the school on Wednesday.

The first soccer game of the season was played on the Weeks field on Thursday afternoon, October 12. Two visiting teams came from the Levi Warren Junior High School in West Newton. Both games resulted in 1-1 ties.

The women teachers of the school attended the dinner of the Newton High School Women's Club at the Wayside Inn at Sudbury on Wednesday afternoon, October 18. Miss Ruth Twiss of the Newton High School, who was formerly in charge of the commercial work at the John W. Weeks Junior High School, is the new president of the club.

The members of the school and several guests found that "A Day Without Latin" can be very inconvenient, if not uncomfortable. In the assembly program of October 18, Mark Messier, Martha Stephenson, Ruth Randolph, and James Desaiy presented a play proving that Latin is more valuable in our daily life than most of us realize. Anne Livingstone was chairman of the assembly. Alice Kimball told the Story of the Calendar and Phillip Phaneuf described A Day with a Roman. A famous scene from history, Raleigh's Cloak was dramatized in Latin with Edith Pratt in the role of Queen Elizabeth and Walter Williams as the gallant Sir Walter Raleigh. They were assisted by Julia Mather and Helen Hermann. Other students who helped make the program a success were Tom Dooling, Harold Shapiro, Teresa Caruso, and Howard Crabtree.

Day Jr. High School

Mr. John Lund and Mr. Herbert Landry talked to parents on the "marks" situation in the school auditorium on Tuesday of this week. There were present a goodly number of parents who appeared to listen with marked interest. After the meeting teachers were available for conferences with the parents.

On October 11th the boys' varsity and second teams played their first soccer games of the season. The varsity lost to Bigelow, but the second team fared better, defeating Fessenden 1-0. The eighth grade team defeated the Bigelow eighth 3-0 on October 13th.

The girls' soccer teams have commenced their practices in the school yard. Besides the regular seventh, eighth and ninth grade teams there are also division teams. One division may challenge any other. The play-off occurs on Friday afternoons.

Geraldine Wisbach was the winner of the girls' singles tennis tournament. The girls' doubles tournament is being arranged now.

Mr. John Cronan, always a welcome guest at the school, was the speaker in the October 18th assembly. He told the story of "Oliver Twist" in a most entertaining way.

Local News

The Newton NRA Compliance Board, with its office at 277 Washington st., Newton, is ready to help you at any time. Rupert C. Thompson is the chairman and is aided by George P. Hatch, Sydney B. Holden, J. Ernest Gibson, and James A. Waters. Already many people have visited the office seeking information or making complaints. If you have any question about the NRA which you wish explained, or any complaint to make, call N. N. 2639, the Compliance Office, open daily from 9 until 5, or report it to any member of the Board. They will be glad to help you.

Already the Board has been appealed to for speakers. Rupert C. Thompson spoke before the Barbers' Association in Columbus Hall on October 3 about their individual code and what was expected of them.

On Sunday evening, October 15, Mr. Thompson spoke to the members of Chl Rho, a young people's association, of Trinity Church in Newton Centre. He explained different phases of the NRA and a discussion followed.

The Board will be glad to supply speakers at any time, but would appreciate a few days' notice.

The Boy Scouts are to do their part to aid the NRA Campaign by canvassing the homes where the Blue Eagle is not displayed. If you have not already signed, do so now. Let them report Newton consumers as signed up, one hundred per cent.

The following announcement comes from Washington:

"A two-edged executive order designed to force compliance with the Blue Eagle provisions of the Presidential agreement was issued tonight by President Roosevelt, October 17.

The order called for a fine of $500 and six months' imprisonment for any person falsely representing himself to be operating under the agreement, while displaying the Blue Eagle insignia, without complying with its provisions."

SCHOOL FOR THOSE SEEKING POSITIONS

The 22 men and women, including some from the Newtons, who make up the first group of those who are attending the School For Those Seeking Positions, will soon complete their work. This is the new School to help the forgotten "white collar" men and women to not only find a job, but to find the right job and then to get ahead. It is the latest and newest experiment in business education and was started by Mr. Babson as an experiment to see what can be done to help people get jobs when jobs are scarce.

The quota set for the first group was 20, but some of the men and women were so interested in the work that they brought their friends who were accepted. The idea is to keep the group small, so that every one can receive personal attention.

At 10:35 a. m. and 1:00 p. m. these young men and women tell their stories over radio station WBOS. It is probably the first time in history that anyone has ever applied for a job by radio.

They are now spending their afternoons calling on prospective employers. The next day they discuss their experiences and are given suggestions. Instead of merely asking for a job for themselves, they present a "catalogue" of everyone in the school. Employers have been very much surprised to hear applicants for a job try to get a job for someone other than themselves.

The next group starts November 13. Already applications are being received. Again the Newtons are represented, and the enrollment is limited to a small group. It has been decided to guarantee to this group also, that if graduates do not secure a position within 60 days after the last radio broadcast, their entire tuition will be refunded.

The school, located on the beautiful campus of Babson Institute, is under the direction of Mr. Samuel P. Allison.

Sixty ladies enjoyed the hospitality of Lucy Jackson Chapter, D. A. R., Wednesday afternoon, October eleventh, at a bridge party given at the Chapter House. Attractive prizes were given and dainty refreshments were served from a table made beautiful with many garden flowers.

PENNY SALE

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, Bugle and Drum Corps will hold a penny sale at the V. F. W. Hall, 1244 Washington st., West Newton, on Tuesday evening, from 8 to 10 o'clock. A large supply of household articles are to be sold at penny prices, also a beautiful House prize to be given away.

Newton Dramatic Organizations

MOCK RADIO BROADCAST AT NEWTONVILLE

A group of members of the Woman's Association of the Central Congregational Church, under the management of Mrs. Edward P. Hendrick will present a novel entertainment in the form of a mock radio broadcast, at the Central Church, Newtonville, on Monday evening, October 23rd at 8:15 p. m.

Sholley, Elsie Greenwood, Virginia Kenway, Rebecca MacDowell Reed, Margaret W. Merrill, Ann W. Nichols, Eva Moore, Mae Robinson, Dorothy eighth and ninth is to be "The Truth About Blaydes" by A. A. Milne. This group was organized last winter and under the capable coaching of Mr. Mortimer Marble who has produced plays on Broadway, was signally successful.

THE PARISH PLAYERS

On Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Oct. 25th and 26th, the Parish Players of St. Paul's Church, Newton Highlands, will present a season with "The Youngest," by Philip Barry. The cast includes Mrs. Henry H. Skelton, Miss Betty Skelton, Mrs. Robert A. Lloyd, Miss Elizabeth Follett, Mrs. Lloyd Yeager, William J. Newby, Donald Tarbell, Edgar Swail, and William Chapple. Mr. Dan Smith of Waterbury is the coach. Mr. Charles Hawkes of Saxon road is the newly elected president of the organization.

EDUCATIONAL BROADCASTS

The Department of Education of the State of Massachusetts has announced a series of radio addresses under the general topic of "Spotlighting Education." The first address will be given next week Tuesday at 5 p. m. With other addresses to follow each week on Tuesday and Thursday at the same hour over station WNAC. Plans have been made for twelve prominent superintendents of schools to be among the early speakers in the program which will continue through December 28th.

Mr. John Lund, superintendent of the Newton schools, will speak at the broadcast on December 2nd on "The School of Tomorrow."

During Education Week, Nov. 6-12, inclusive, a daily program will be offered and during the meetings of the N. E. Superintendents of Schools Association, the Massachusetts Superintendents Association, and the New England Teacher Training Association on Nov. 15, 16 and 17, daily programs will also be presented.

SPONSOR CHILDREN'S PLAYS

The Boston University Women's Council is sponsoring for the third season a series of six plays for children. They will be staged at the Repertory Theatre by Clare Tree Major's Children's Theatre of New York. The opening play of the season will be "The Five Little Peppers" from Margaret Sydney's famous book on Saturday, November 4th. Among the Newton women active on the committee are Mrs. Henry I. Harriman, Mrs. Metcalf W. Melcher, Mrs. Leroy Miner, Mrs. Howard LeSourd, and Mrs. Herbert Blair.

Ames Is Elected County Council Legion Officer

A large delegation from Newton Post No. 48, American Legion, went to Woburn last Sunday to attend the meeting of Middlesex County Council of the Legion. Newton Post No. 48 was represented by a delegation of 12 members and a short parade was held which terminated at the Banks School where the meeting was held. Upon arrival at the school the band gave a short concert on the lawn.

The first one held since the Department Convention at Holyoke in August, and inasmuch as the Junior Vice Commander was to be elected at this meeting, some 450 Legionnaires were in attendance. Newton Post was deeply interested in this election as Past Commander Harold D. (Sailor) Ames was a candidate for this office as was Past Commander Cunneen of Framingham and Commander Phelan of Watertown.

After the tabulation of the votes it was announced that Past Commander Ames had been elected, and upon motion of his opponents the election was made unanimous. Junior Vice Commander Ames was then escorted to the platform and upon presentation to the delegates, thanked them for the honor which they had conferred upon him and gave County Commander Walsh his pledge to do all he could to assist him during the ensuing year. This is the first time in some ten years that Newton Post has had one of its members a County Officer.

SARAH HULL CH. D. R.

Sarah Hull Chapter, D. R., will meet at the Hunnewell Club in Newton Wednesday, October 25th, at 2:30 p. m. Mr. George G. Webster of Sharon will present "Street Scenes in the Orient" illustrated with lantern slides. Mrs. Martha Gifford Hadden will render several piano solos. The hostesses of the afternoon are: Mrs. George G. Webster, Mrs. George Agry, Mrs. J. Henry Bacon, Mrs. Mary T. Bushnell, Mrs. J. Albert Cole, Miss Emma F. Barker.

If you are going to have company and want to do just the proper thing, follow the advice of America's authority on etiquette, who writes every day in the Boston Globe—EMILY POST. See your newsdealer or newsboy and place a regular order for the Boston Daily and Sunday Globe—Advertisement.

NEWTON SHOW OF THE AIR

The sixth of a series of weekly broadcasts of The Newton Show of the Air, under the direction of Miss Estelle G. Marsh, Thursday evening, October 26th, from 7:15 to 9 p. m. brings an entirely new group of artists before the microphone over station WLEY of Lexington.

Mrs. Kenneth Hastings, violinist, is well known throughout the Newtons. She has been a member of the MacDowell Club and The Newton Symphony Orchestra for many years. Mrs. Watson Baker, cellist is also very popular in the Newtons and is a member of several clubs including the Newton Symphony and several quartettes. These artists will be accompanied by Mrs. Henry Stanley who after living and studying abroad is now a resident of the Newtons. She won the Mendelssohn Prize at the Cologne Conservatory.

The soloist of the evening is Raymond Simonds, popular tenor of the Jenny Concert Orchestra which broadcasts weekly over WEEI. He is also soloist at Temple Israel, Boston and the First Universalist Church, Lynn, Mass. He will be accompanied by his wife Miss Lucy Simonds who is also an accomplished pianist.

The theme song, "The Newton Show of the Air" composed by Marjorie Carleton, will be sung by Sylvia Church Pettys, soprano, accompanied by Mary Barr Snyder.

TO HEAR BROADCAST AT SEA

On Thursday, Oct. 19, Chief Officer Spencer Crossley of S.S. Steel Voyage will be two days out at sea on his way home from Honolulu. He will be listening in on the radio to hear the voice of his wife, Mrs. Barbara Crossley of Eastbourne rd., Newton Centre, as she broadcasts at 8 o'clock over station WBOS in the play, "Fury of the Jungle," which is one of a series of plays presented weekly by the Newton Dramatic Club under the direction of Mr. Merrill Hammond, Jr.

Several candidates are in the field for the various offices for the ensuing year, Comrade Patrick J. Cooney, S. V. C., will oppose Comrade George McNamee for Commander. Comrades Martin Stanton and John Hickey will contest for Senior Vice Commander, and those seeking Junior Vice Commander are Comrades Harold Elliott, Howard Woodbury and Thomas Shaughnessy. A similar number are aspiring to election as Officers of the Day. They are Comrades John Sears, Dan A. Purcell and Nicholas Bibbo. Those running unopposed are for Quartermaster, Joseph Arata; Post Advocate, Stewart Evans; Post Surgeon, Colleen Melisac; and Edward Lynch, chaplain.

In addition to these candidates several delegates and alternates to the County Council sessions are also to be elected. Commander David L. Keefe will call the meeting to order at 4 p. m. on this day after which the polls will open, remaining open until 8 p. m.

A series of turkey whist and 45 parties are being conducted by Post on each Thursday evening at V. F. W. Hall under the chairmanship of Comrade John Hickey.

Daly Post V. F. W.

The annual election of Officers of the Sergeant Eugene Joseph Daly Jr. Post No. 2384, V. F. W., will be conducted at the regular meeting on next Monday, Oct. 23, at V. F. W. Hall, West Newton.

Several candidates are in the field for the various offices for the ensuing year, Comrade Patrick J. Cooney, S. V. C., will oppose Comrade George McNamee for Commander. STEARNS SCHOOL CENTRE

The Board of Directors of the Stearns School Centre met on Monday, October 16th, in the recreation room of the Stearns School, Newton.

An outline of group activities for both children and adults was given by Miss Helen Sandstrom. Due to an increase in registration for classes in cooking and sewing, an effort will be made to procure leaders from training schools to direct these groups. It is earnestly hoped that graduates or students from schools of home economics will volunteer to assist in this work and that they will cooperate with Miss Sandstrom, the director at the Center. The Aurora Club will begin a course in home nursing, to be given by Miss Norcross, American Red Cross instructor. The Senior Girls' Club will meet bi-weekly under the direction of Mrs. Frederick A. White. The Mothers' Club have made plans for meetings with both social and instructive programs, and they will be assisted by Mrs. H. Louis George.

The Stearns School Centre is a charter member organization of the Community Chest and has pledged to remain in the Chest for the year 1933-34 as a character-building agency.

WHAT COLUMBUS DAY MEANS TO ME

By William Lynch
How History repeats itself! No matter how great or interesting are the actions of a man today, there is somewhere recorded in history a replica of astonishing similitude.

In 1492, a man left Spain with a small fleet of three ships which he called the "Nina," the "Pinta," and the "Santa Maria," to see what lands lay beyond the horizon. This man, Columbus, commenced upon what was at that time, popularly termed a "fool's quest." He was, however, firmly convinced of the theory propounded by Pythagoras which centuries previous as he started out on the hazardous journey of the century. For two months, this pioneer battled storms, currents, hunger, thirst and various other privations. Amongst his crew and within himself was a torturing anxiety. Whither were they going? Would they ever land? Would they ever return? These questions were glaring in front of their eyes. They were indelibly printed on each sail. Each wave cast them upon their ears with maddening rhythm. However, led by the undaunted Columbus, they kept their faith in God and persevered until finally victory rewarded their efforts with a smile. Like the clear note of a bugle at reveille, came the cry of the lookout, "Land Ahead!" A new vigor possessed the crew. They toiled and labored with a new power and a new hope until a short time later, on October twelfth the Bahama Islands were reached. Thus had Columbus opened a new world, a new era, a new prosperity and a new civilization.

On March 4, 1933, a man was inaugurated President of the United States. His thoughts and theories were formed; his task was to put them into practice. He had rough seas to sail and well he realized it. His first task was therefore to secure seaworthy vessels. For six months he searched until he shrewd eye found them and he called his ships the "Blue Eagle," "Co-operation" and "Fair-play." The eyes of the world were upon him. His people looked on with anxious hopeful eyes while for two months he battled doubt, adversity. But like Columbus, he has persevered! He has hoped in God and instilled into his people a new confidence and a new vigor. He is showing them a new deal. When they elected him, his people had the faith that the confident Isabella had in Columbus and like him, he is answering their faith in him. Since his election, he has been exerting every effort for the Nation, and now as October twelfth approaches, he sees just ahead the "Bahamas of Prosperity." True, he will not have reached the mainland, but he will have established the policies which will serve as a platform on which to raise the structure. Indeed, he will have started more than Prosperity—he will have begun a new era, a new prosperity and a new deal. Truly he is our modern Columbus.

The one discovered the land; the other discovered the policy that is saving the land. And so on October twelfth, we honor two men, the Columbus of yesterday and the Columbus of today, Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Rotary Club

"A world force is creating trends in our business and social relationships and we are fearful of our experiences today as we were of the theory in the day of that greatest socialist, Eugene Debs," said Past District Governor Bruce McCullough, in speaking to the Newton Rotarians on "Rotarians and the New Deal" Monday at the Brae Burn Club.

The speaker was of the opinion that most of our maelstrom of strife resulted directly from the World War, when there was too much cotton and too many rags, too much wheat and too much hunger in many countries. This strong pervading world force was expressing itself in many countries; in Russia as Communism; in Japan, by a desire for territorial expansion in China; in Italy by Mussolini; in Germany by Hitler; and in America by the "New Deal."

Rotary has subscribed to a policy of service to society and in the new deal there is a new opportunity for service. Although we have various colorings of beliefs and desires, Rotarians in general understood the New Deal on the basis of human understanding.

The club had as guests: Edward Kemp, Somerville; Irving Hunt, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; Carl Christianson, Bedford; Walter Barnes, Boston; and Richard Young, Newton.

Highland Glee Club Starts Rehearsals

The Highland Glee Club had its first rehearsal of the 1933-34 season Monday evening, October 16th, at Trinity Parish House, Newton Centre.

A large number of active members were present and listened to plans presented by President George Wright for the Fall and Spring concerts.

A program for the December concert was approved enthusiastically by the members and preparation was begun to make this concert an outstanding event.

D. Ralph Maclean continues as Conductor and Karl Switzer as Pianist.

There will be an opportunity this season to add several more active members and also to include in the support of the Club new Associate Members who may be glad to assist a local musical organization which through many years of service has become an important institution in the City of Newton.

Legion Auxiliary Elects Officers

On Wednesday evening, Oct. 18, the Annual Meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, Newton, Unit No. 48, was held in the Memorial Building, Newton Centre. Mrs. Mary McCarthy, President, presided.

Yearly reports of Officers and Chairmen of Committees were read. Report of the National Convention in Chicago a week ago was given by Mrs. Francis Cannon.

The following officers were elected to serve during the coming year: President, Mrs. Helen E. Henderson; 1st Vice President, Mrs. Nona Kearney; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. Catherine Rogers; Secretary, Miss Sylvia Wilkers; Treasurer, Mrs. Helen K. Miller; Historian, Mrs. Mary Foran; Chaplain, Mrs. Mary Madigan; Sergeant-at-Arms, Mrs. Anna Beatrice; Executive Members: Mrs. Mary McCarthy, Mrs. Josephine Mullen, Mrs. Lucy Wilcox.

Installation of Officers will be held on November 15th.

A Whist and Bridge Party will be held in the Memorial Building, Newton Centre, on Friday evening, Oct. 20th, under the direction of Mrs. Canabiano. Proceeds of the party will be devoted to Welfare Work.

A Penny Sale for the benefit of the Auxiliary Drum and Bugle Corps will be held at the home of Mrs. Helen Irving, 51 Newell rd., Auburndale, on Friday evening, Oct. 27th.

LASELL JUNIOR COLLEGE

The trustees and the Corporation of Lasell Junior College held their annual meeting at the college in Auburndale on Wednesday. Following an afternoon session the forty-odd members remained for dinner. An increase of twelve in the college's enrollment over that of last year was reported by President Guy M. Winslow in his annual report. The Corporation is composed of former students of the college and meets but once a year.

Mayor Sinclair Weeks of Newton addressed the student body at the assembly yesterday. Today, Miss Mary Ward of the LeGallienne Company appearing at the Colonial Theatre, spoke on "The Theatre." The vesper speaker Sunday will be Rev. Rex S. Clement, Church of the Covenant, Boston.

The Autumn program of the Lasell Junior College Physical Education Department is now in full swing under direction of Miss Muriel McClelland. Marguerite Brandt, Waban, is head of hockey, and Dell Masterjohn, Haverstraw, N. Y., leader of soccer. Class teams will be chosen and preparations are being made for the Blue and White game which climaxes the season in November.

Vespers on Sunday will be under direction of Harold Schwab, assisted by Mrs. Walter Frye, mezzo-soprano of the Second Church, Dorchester, and Paul Baugus, violinist.

SCHOOL MARKS

The School Department through Superintendent John Lund has announced the abandonment of "marks" for pupils in the elementary and junior high school grades. Much favorable comment has been received by parents and others and it is possible that the new method of ranking students may be advanced further into the high schools. The new plan is admittedly somewhat of an experiment and as such should be given a thorough tryout before its failings, which may be revealed, and which in the course of time may be corrected, are criticised too severely.

We do not hesitate to favor the step that is now being undertaken at the present time. The much used and much abused so-called "marking" system is in a competitive sense unfair as Superintendent Lund points out. In past years there has been a tendency toward standardization in school policies which it is plainly seen cannot be carried too far through the fact that education deals with human beings.

Under the new plan, which incidentally is not a leap in the dark and which has been gone into thoroughly by a committee of teachers, the additional individual attention pupils will have should react to their advantage. No longer will there be an arbitrary mark imposed upon a student for this or that failure or the inability to keep up with others of a class, but instead a method of intelligent reasoning and individual attention to each particular problem. We believe that many of the parents of our Newton school children see the matter in a similar light and that they stand ready to offer the parental co-operation necessary to insure the success of the new step in education.

ANOTHER SPEED RECORD IN THE MAKING?

On October 15th the so-called "Lame Duck" amendment to the Constitution of the United States became operative. This amendment eliminates the lame duck session of Congress which has been the object of much discussion for some years and advances the inauguration date of the President to January instead of March 4th, besides making other minor changes regarding the sessions of Congress. History was made in the adoption of the amendment in that the entire forty-eight states that make up the union were unanimous in ratifying it. History was also made in that it was adopted in the speediest time of any of the previous amendments.

The speed with which the individual states are ratifying the repeal of the eighteenth amendment may mean that history is again in the making. It is possible that again the entire forty-eight states may be unanimous in the discarding of the "noble experiment" although it is perhaps doubtful that it will be accomplished with the speed with which the lame duck session of Congress was abolished.

ELECTION NEWS

As the municipal election approaches more and more interest is being centered upon it. Before getting down to facts there is a matter which we believe of considerable interest to Newton voters. We desire to have our position clearly understood. In a paragraph at the head of this column we state that the editorial policy of the GRAPHIC is confined to this column alone and that contributions and announcements, whether signed or unsigned, and which may be printed elsewhere, in no way should be regarded as indicating the opinions of the GRAPHIC management. We cannot place too much emphasis on this fact.

As the leading news medium of the city it is our intention to treat all candidates alike in the publishing of various announcements connected with the individual campaigns. When the proper time comes we will take a definite stand and offer facts, figures, and reasons as to our preference for the candidate we believe should fill the office which he seeks.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Probation after Death" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 22.

The Golden Text is: "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them" (Revelation 14:13).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and he himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away" (Revelation 21:3, 4).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Revelator was on our plane of existence, while yet beholding what the eye cannot see,—that which is invisible to the uninspired thought. This testimony of Holy Writ sustains the fact in Science, that the heavens and earth to one human consciousness, that consciousness which God bestows, are spiritual, while to another, the unillumined human mind, the vision is received gifts of two bouquets of flowers."

SCHOOL CHATS

An authoritative article each week covering important and interesting phases of public school organization and activity. Prepared under the direction of the School Department.

FIRST ARTICLE

ANNOUNCING AN IMPORTANT EDUCATIONAL EXPERIMENT

The American ideal of education which has developed with the ideal of democracy demands procedures which will bring out in each individual his finest qualities that thru education every child shall have the opportunity for the fullest development of his individual powers.

The schools of Newton have a high place among those of cities of like size and character because of their readiness to develop methods devised to constantly improve opportunities for children. The citizens of Newton have always been interested in forward-looking action, and have been ready to welcome any change in educational procedure which would make an appreciable difference in the individual pupil's outlook on life, make him more content to pursue his academic affairs, and help him to develop as a worthwhile member of society.

After a number of months of study various faculty groups, in conjunction with the principals and superintendent, have decided to do away with the old marking system. (In the elementary and junior high schools for the present.)

During the past decade, educators, parents, and many pupils have questioned the value of marks. Scores of experiments have been tried which definitely prove the following facts:

1. Marks are unfair to the child.
2. They foster unhealthy competition.
3. Marks do not give parents any important knowledge of their children.

As a part of the plan, new types of testing procedure will give the parents a better knowledge of their child's progress, and the teacher an opportunity to render a greater service in accordance with the individual needs and capacity of the child.

Adults are not judged primarily by their scholastic ability, but rather by their individual contribution to the good of society as a whole. Since the school seeks to provide life-like situations, it is felt that by abolishing the present marking system, with its artificial devices, a step in advance toward the creation of an ideal society within the school walls will be made. Subsequent articles will describe in more detail the theories and procedures to be carried forward under the new plan.

ONE THING AND ANOTHER

By L. D. G. Bentley

When some public officials start to stamp out corruption it is an act of courage while with others it is merely a tap dance.

Oddments

People who leave their cars out all night in front of their houses aren't going to agree with the surmise of a friend of mine. Still, I think it should be passed along and hope that it may be appreciated. On Columbus Day, shortly after breakfast, this friend and I were riding through the city and passed a house where a car stood at the curb, with all lights going. "I wonder—" I began. He interrupted, giving me a scornful look, with, "They rolled home so woozy this morning they didn't dare to try to get into the garage."

A two-cent stamp takes your letter to 102 offices in the Boston Postal District, including the one in which it is mailed. This I discovered by consulting a list of stations and branches in the Boston Postal District. Ten of the stations are in this city, which has more than any other municipality in the district outside from Boston. Some of the places are put down as "contract stations" and these include Deer Island, the Federal Reserve Bank, U. S. Naval Hospital and U. S. Receiving Ship. Study of these facts hasn't stirred me to writing letters in order to take advantage of the lower rates. If the mails carried correspondence free I doubt if I would write any more letters than I do. Economy in ink and stationery is one of my pet practices.

Relieving the "Pinch"

Unless a lot of folks are much more flush than they pretend, partial payment of real estate tax bills should mean considerable to a large number. Some of the most far-seeing men with whom I have an intimate acquaintance tell me that the law passed by this year's Legislature, although a temporary one, should be of great help to home-owners of slender means and even more to those whose resources are so scant as to cause real worry and distress.

I didn't expect to find any allusion to partial payment in this year's tax bills because the plan will involve a tremendous amount of additional bookkeeping and doubtless be regarded as an out-and-out nuisance at the City Collector's office. Nevertheless, the intention is to aid property-holders confronted with real difficulties regardless of the extra clerical labor involved.

This column is not set up to expound or even interpret the law so any who are interested are advised to check up with City Hall. However, men who should know have approved the results of my study of the voluminous Chapter 254 which, in section 52, permits a person who owes a tax bill to make a partial payment of not less than 10 percent, but provides that such amount shall not be less than $10. This is the law for the present year and also next year. Beginning in 1935 the tax rate will be determined earlier and payments are to be divided—half in July and half in October. If things are more prosperous then, as the law-makers evidently expect them to be, it will be necessary to raise 50 percent. The same thing is to apply, beginning that year, to the State income tax.

The whole idea is to obtain for cities and towns some real money, even if not the full amount of a tax bill, and prevent municipalities from taking on a vast amount of real estate on which no taxes have been paid.

Fair Warning

Peering into the future seems to occupy the attention of many. Great, small and mediocre intellects are concentrated on the expected repeal of the 18th Amendment, the campaign for Mayor and other problems considered of vital importance. Consequently one must step fast to keep up with them. Not satisfied to trail, I am all for jumping far ahead, if possible. There's ambition for you. In my leaping and bounding I find I have gotten as far as next April when this old State of ours is to have the first of a double set of political primaries. Maybe you'd forgotten all about it and yet you may have been one of the vast army that voted for the preprimary convention system of selecting State-wide candidates.

Strikes me I am getting into a school-teacherish mood this week, but pedagogues may snicker at that one day. How he flatters himself. Nevertheless, I am striving to impart knowledge and that's why this little effusion is likely to contain a few things which you may not have heard. My best ideas, I'll admit, are trivial, so this won't make anybody's head ache.

Here we are—we, who are registered voters—going to the polls next April to pick out delegates for a June convention of our political party, whichever it may be. These delegates are going to elect the party's candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Auditor and Attorney-General to be voted for at the September primaries. Now the candidates O. K'd by the delegates will place alongside their names on the ballots in September the fact that the convention has endorsed them. Nevertheless, any other person may be a candidate and there is no reason why he may not get enough votes to become the party candidate. The September primaries will settle that, of course.

The novelty of this whole business is the April primary and the fact that delegates to elect and Newton Democrats 7. There are based on the vote for the party's candidate for Governor at the last State election and means, in case you don't want to do any figuring for yourself, that there are almost twice as many Republicans as Democrats in Newton.

Before dismissing this class I would wish to remind you that you've got a race at the polls for April 24 next year and also at that time you vote for ward and city committee members under this new law.

Letters To The Editor

PURE (?) WATER

To the Editor:

Without even consulting the dictionary as to what the female of "jackass" is, I will line up against Mr. Gallagher and with W. H. who wrote such an intelligent letter regarding Newton water.

Until I came to Newton eight years ago, I had used Metropolitan water, and the first time I opened my faucet and got dirty water I confess I was amazed. Soon the street outside was flooded and for hours our gutters were swirling rivers and Monday laundering was out of the question. From time to time this performance has been repeated. During the past few weeks we have been subjected to a new taste, not quite pleasant enough for a mouth wash and not at all quenching to the thirst. When I called the department to ask if there was something WE could put in the water to counteract the taste I was told there was nothing wrong with it. It is pure—no organic matter in it, no vegetable matter in it—absolutely pure! That is as it should be, of course, but if it IS pure why the Chlorine?

I notice the Mr. Gallagher lives in Ward 1. Let him come over to Ward six and try our water. The water system, the source of our supply and the political machinery involved to bring water to my tap are of no interest to me as long as the product is good. Any man in public office who cannot take justifiable criticism, without vulgar reaction, hardly promises much in the way of improving our water. Something is wrong somewhere and a change should be made either politically or chemically or both. In the mean time, until Newton water is uniform, let good may we have Metropolitan water?

Very truly,
MARION M. JAKES.
Newton Centre, October 15.

ANSWERS DR. GALLAGHER

Editor Newton Graphic:

Dear Sir:

I thank you for publishing my letter calling for a "new deal" on the Newton water question in your issue of October 7th. I read with interest, in your issue of October 14th, remarks credited to Dr. T. Morton Gallagher, esteemed member of the Board of Aldermen at the Board meeting held October 9th, with reference to the comments made by the writer in the letter above referred to, together with caustic characterization of the writer.

I have the highest regard for Dr. Gallagher as a citizen—one learned in medicine and as one of our City legislators. However, I am compelled to say that in my opinion the Doctor is gaining nothing by calling names. Such procedure is usually omitted from courteous and gentlemanly debate as well as from intelligent discussion of questions vital to the welfare of the City and its inhabitants.

I stand ready, willing and able to prove by a preponderance of truthful evidence, every assertion made by me in my letter published in your October 7th issue.

If the Doctor and any of the members of our City government are interested in a survey of the water situation to the end that the inhabitants of the City of Newton may have water fit for human consumption as well as other domestic uses, I would suggest the following procedure, which, in itself, will be inexpensive and will show conclusively the respective attitudes, experiences and opinions of the citizens of our City regarding our water supply:

Set a time and place for a meeting to be presided over by His Honor, the Mayor, and the Board of Aldermen and invite the people of Newton to attend; arrange for the Water Commissioner or a member of the City Government to give a concise report as to the source of our water supply, the method of collecting and delivering that water to the taxpayers and those holding under the taxpayers, as tenants, including the various steps from obtaining the water supply to including its delivery, including such chemical treatment as the supply is subjected to from time to time and the reason for such chemical treatment.

After such a report from the Executive Department, give the water users an opportunity to comment thereon, testify as to their experiences and as to whether or not they are satisfied that we are getting water fit for domestic purposes and in keeping with the high standards of the various departments of the City of Newton.

On other important questions regarding the welfare of the City and

Hodgdon States Platform in Open Letter to Citizens

Former Alderman Walter A. Hodgdon, a candidate for mayor at the coming city election in December has set forth his platform in an open letter to the citizens of Newton as follows:

It is time for us to consider the future welfare of our City and all its people and to correct the intolerable conditions which have existed for four years during the regime of Mayor Weeks.

Sinclair Weeks is utterly devoid of that leadership essential to the faithful performance of his duties as Mayor. In fact the real duties of his office have been left to persons not elected by the people.

He does not understand what this depression means to the common man and the small taxpayer. His actions prove this and the environment he lives in is not conducive to a sympathetic understanding of the prevailing needs of our people.

A paragraph of an article in the Newton Graphic of Friday, October 13, substantiates this. It reads as follows:

"Then at the psychological moment the Mayor will spread before the voters a Campaign Committee that will be a knock-out. It will contain nothing else but prominent Aldermen, ex-Aldermen, bank presidents, society lions and lionesses, business giants, etc."

Mayor Weeks has consistently neglected to perform his full duty towards those on the Soldiers Relief and Welfare Lists. His policy means pauperization for many. His commissary method of food distribution is a reversion to serfdom. A continuation of his methods may mean disease and death from undernourishment for many already in a weakened condition particularly the aged and little children.

Economy in the larger expenditures and a business like method of buying all supplies by one Purchasing Department would enable the City to treat our unemployed like human beings without an increase in taxes.

When elected Mayor I will perform my full duty personally and will not be interested in building a political machine for future elections. I am not a politician nor a political manipulator and will not talk to the people through the usual political hanger-on, ward and precinct leader, or paid workers. I intend to talk to the voters directly and at this time would like to announce those things I believe necessary to a better governed Newton.

1. Humanization of all welfare work.

E. XPLORED "TROPICAL VALLEY" IN NORTH

Dr. J. Norman Henry of Philadelphia will be the speaker at the meeting of the Episcopal Club of Massachusetts on the evening of October 23rd at the Copley Plaza Hotel. Dr. Henry will tell about his expedition to the exploring section of northern British Columbia in 1931. On several trips to the Indian northwest he had heard from Indian guides of a tropical valley where the temperature is mild and water does not freeze where the surrounding country is at "middegrees below zero" where tropical plants and flowers grow in profusion. Rumors of fabulous deposits of gold, and other wonders were included in the reports and although disbelievers of exploring eventually led him to return to seek the valley. His interesting experiences he will tell with moving pictures and photographs following the dinner meeting of the club.
—Mr. James C. Irwin of Newtonville, president of the club, will preside.

Newton Federation

The Executive Board of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs will hold its first meeting of the season on Monday morning, the 23rd of October, at 10 o'clock, at the Newton Library. Mrs. Charles C. Willson, president, will preside. A full quota of delegates is expected to attend, with important matters of the coming year to be considered.

Shakespeare Club

The Shakespeare Club of Newton Highlands will meet at the home of Mrs. H. E. Durgin, in Norwell, tomorrow, the 21st, where Luncheon will be enjoyed. The program, Acts I and II of Midsummer Night's Dream, will be directed by Mrs. F. S. Keith.

Newton Highlands C. L. S. C.

Mrs. Francis A. Rugg, of 113 Wood-cliff road, will be hostess for the Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. on Monday, the 23rd. For the program two books by Mary Lee Davis: "Uncle Sam's Attic" and "We Are Alaskans," will be reviewed by Mrs. Hiram A. Miller. Current Events will be discussed by Mrs. Mark Ward and Miss Marian White.

Waban Woman's Club

The season's activities of the Waban Woman's Club will begin on Monday, October 23rd, when the Annual Philanthropic Bridge is to be held in the Neighborhood Club House at 1:30 p. m. The arrangements for this year for this social event are in charge of Mrs. Frederick L. Putnam, who with Mrs. William R. Ewing has planned a most delightful afternoon. Dessert will be served at 1:30, and the remainder of the afternoon devoted to cards. The proceeds from this bridge form the Philanthropic Fund of the Club, and therefore needs the interest and cooperation of every member in order that the fund may be large enough to meet the ever-increasing demands upon it.

The Art committee, of which Mrs. Walter E. Newbert is chairman, plans to exhibit work done by this committee in previous years, and to provide an opportunity for members to join any of the various classes for the coming year. Knitting, Tray and Furniture Painting and Screen Making are a few of the many interesting classes offered by this active committee.

West Newton Women's Educational Club

The Travel Class of the West Newton Women's Educational Club has planned an ambitious program on the study of Germany for this year. The second meeting of the Travel Class will be held on October 23rd at the home of Mrs. Francis E. Nowers, with Mrs. Harry S. Wells as assistant hostess. The first part, "German History," will be read by Mrs. Star A. Burdick, and the second, "The Rhine," will be read by Mrs. William A. Richardson.

On Thursday, November 2nd, the Scholarship Bridge, Mrs. David O. Warner, chairman, will be held at the Bonnar Art Studio in Newtonville at 2 p. m.

The second regular meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club, which will be held on October 27th, will be an All-Day meeting under the auspices of the Social Welfare department of the Federation committee. The morning, from 9:30 a. m. to 12:15 p. m., will be devoted to sewing for the Reformatory for Women at Framingham. There are at least sixty babies and small children at this institution who are very much in need of clothing. This is a very worthwhile project and three hours' sewing will provide many small garments for these babies. After luncheon at 12:30 p. m., Dr. Miriam Van Waters, Superintendent of the Reformatory, will discuss some of its problems.

Auburndale Woman's Club

The first meeting of the season 1933-34 of the Auburndale Woman's Club will be held at the Auburndale Club House on Tuesday, October 24th, and is a "Get Together Day." At 11 a. m., Mr. Lockwood Myrick, Jr., formerly Assistant Professor of Philosophy in the University of Hawaii, will speak on "The Theoretical Education of a Philosopher." Mr. Myrick is a very interesting speaker and all Club members will welcome this opportunity to hear him.

At 12 noon there will be an Interlude and at 12:45 Luncheon will be served under the direction of the Hospitality committee. Mrs. George W. St. Amant, chairman. Club members may bring guests to the luncheon, the cost for each guest being fifty cents.

At 2 p. m. the business meeting will be held, with Mrs. Ernest F. Drew, the president, presiding. At its conclusion, 2:30 p. m., the Day chairmen, Mrs. Howard P. Converse and Mrs. Charles E. Valentine who have charge of the afternoon program, will present as the speaker Prof. J. Anton de Haas, whose subject will be "International Questions of Today."

Dr. de Haas, a naturalized citizen of this country, is the William Ziegler Professor of International Relationships at the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration. The afternoon program will be an open meeting and Club members are privileged to bring their friends to hear this talented speaker.

The Literature committee, of which

Mrs. J. A. Furbish is chairman, offers a course in Current Events, the dates for these lectures being October 26th, November 9th, November 23rd, and December 7th. The meetings will be held at the Burr School Hall at 3 p. m. Course tickets are one dollar, and may be obtained from any member of the Literature committee. Professor Brewer C. Whitmore will be the speaker for these Current Events programs.

Newton Highlands Garden Club

The October meeting of the Newton Highlands Garden Club—which is a unit of the Woman's Club—will be held at the Workshop, on Columbus street, on Wednesday, the 25th, at 2 p. m. The topic of the afternoon, "Success with House Plants," will be discussed by Mrs. Ernest J. Weaver and Mrs. H. A. Mohr. There will be an exhibit and sale of house plants, and tea will be served by Mrs. Don J. Edwards, assisted by Mrs. J. J. Fog and Mrs. G. D. W. Marcy.

This season the Garden Club will be under the leadership of Mrs. Elizabeth Newton, president; Mrs. Robert Bonner, secretary; Mrs. J. F. Elliott, treasurer, and Mrs. Ernest J. Weaver, chairman of the Program committee. An interesting and helpful year is anticipated.

Newton Community Club

The Art committee of the Newton Community Club has arranged for several group visits to the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, during the coming season, these to be made under the guidance of Mrs. Mary P. Sayward, who needs no introduction to those at all familiar with the Museum. The first subject, Tapestries, will be featured on the visit of Thursday, October 26th. Those who plan to go are to meet at the Underwood School at 10:30 a. m., or are to be at the Huntington Avenue entrance to the Museum at 11 o'clock, to join this group, for an interesting hour under Mrs. Sayward's guidance.

Those who wish to attend are asked to notify the Art chairman, Miss Florence C. Bacon, Newton North 0788-M. Transportation will be provided. Groups are limited to twenty, and it is hoped to have the full number attend at each visit.

Newtonville Woman's Club

One of the Club's greatest joys comes with the realization that each spring it is able to present to some Newtonville young woman a generous scholarship for her further education. The Scholarship money is raised each fall by the Education committee when it holds the Annual Scholarship Bridge. This year the tickets are lower than usual, 75 cents, in consideration of slim purses, but the party will be just as enjoyable as the committee can make it. It will be a desert bridge on October 27th, with an especially attractive prize for each table. Mrs. George A. Edmonds, chairman of the committee, has delegated the management of this affair to Mrs. George L. Curtis, who will be assisted by the other members of the committee.

The Drama committee, Mrs. Percy E. Woodward, chairman, includes in its program of activities two afternoon Play Readings with silver teas and two evening Play Readings to be followed by dancing. The first of these will be at 2:15 o'clock on October 26th, at the Club House. These afternoon readings were particularly enjoyed last season, and following the same plan this year, Club members may invite friends.

Mrs. George H. Tracy reports the success of the series of vanishing bridges held since last spring by her Ways and Means committee, who took this method of raising money to finance the preliminary work connected with the Club Bazaar which is to take place November 15th and 16th, from 10:30 a. m. to 10:30 p. m.

In connection with "Club Day" of November 21st, the Art committee will hold an Exhibit of Old Glass. Mrs. Carl G. Cutler, chairman, N. Y. 0322-M, asks that anyone willing to lend pieces for this display communicate with her.

Belmont Woman's Club

Under the direction of Mrs. Carl L. Schrader, the Belmont Woman's Club (661 Pleasant street) is giving a monster Fall Festival on October 27th from noon until midnight.

Elaborate formality will be cast aside, and simplicity will rule; for one day the atmosphere is to be "back to the Farm." The main attraction is a Country Auction, on the grounds of the Club House, weather permitting, otherwise at the Town Hall at 2 p. m. There will be a real auctioneer, one who will provide fun for his audience. All types of things will be sold, some genuine antiques.

Among other interesting features there will be a Flower Market, a Book Mart, an Art Table, Penny Sale, Corn Game, New England Kitchen, and an amusing "Cat, Dog, and Doll Show." All entries will be peaceful, for the animals are to be of every type, but they must not walk about or bark. Prizes will be awarded for the best entry.

A Harvest Supper will be served at the Unitarian Parish House on Concord avenue, and later at the Town Hall a rousing entertainment will be given. The Town Hall will become the Barn of "Ephraim Snodgrass" and his "Goode Wife Matilda" who will entertain their guests with dances, games, and instrumental music of an older New England period. Old-fashioned dancing will follow the show.

Chance tickets will be sold all through the day, and at 9:30 p. m.

the winners will be announced. Vendors of cigarettes and candy will sell throughout the day.

Admission to the grounds, to the Barn of the Club House, and to the Club House itself is free, but a small fee will be asked for the "Cat, Dog, and Doll Show." A small fee will be asked also for the Town Hall entertainment, and a small fee for the supper. For the supper, tickets must be procured in advance, as only a limited number of suppers will be provided. All day some entertainment will be offered, the features will be: Auction at 2 p. m.; supper at 6 p. m.; buying over the "Pot of Luck" (chances) 9:30 p. m. and dancing from 10 to 12 p. m.

Autumn coloring, and farm products will furnish the decoration note, and help to make this as colorful an affair as the Belmont Woman's Club has ever given.

Newton clubwomen may like to motor over to Belmont and enjoy this fascinating affair. They will, at any rate, be interested to know of it since the former State president, Mrs. Schrader, has it in charge.

Newton Centre Woman's Club

The opening fall meeting of the Newton Centre Woman's Club will be held on Friday afternoon, October 27th, Mrs. Alden H. Speare, the new president, will call the short business meeting to order promptly at 2 p. m. At 3 p. m. a real musical treat is in store for those who attend, as Olive Macy Appleton, Soprano, a graduate of note of the New England Conservatory of Music, who has been heard with pleasure at Newton Centre before, will sing.

Sharing honors with her will be Byron Hatfield, Baritone. Mr. Hatfield is soloist in the Church of the Strangers, and at St. Andrew's in New York City.

Another artist of interest will be Mr. Armen Carapapian, violinist. Mr. Carapapian is an Armenian from Teheran, Persia.

Mrs. M. H. Gulesian, chairman of the Music committee, has charge of the arrangements for the afternoon. Mrs. Gulesian and Mrs. Montague Ford will be the accompanists.

Following the Musical, tea will be served, with Mrs. Kelsey C. Atticks, and Mrs. Thomas S. Rowlett the tea hostesses. Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. Alden H. Speare, president of the Club, and Mrs. J. Arthur Snyder, chairman of the Hospitality committee.

The first of the monthly lectures on Current Events by Dr. Samuel McCausley Lindsey will be given on Thursday, November 2nd, at 10 a. m.

The Dramatic committee announces a most interesting program for the season beginning with a series of Play Readings, the first one to be on Friday evening, November 3rd.

The Club Chorus began work on September 20th under the inspiring leadership of Madame Apolline Blair.

State Federation

RADIO. On Saturday, October 21st, Mrs. Ernestine Perry, Women's Club Editor of the Springfield Union will speak to the topic "A Bit of the Old South"; and Mrs. Hazel H. Albertson to the topic "Cogs in the Wheel," on the radio broadcast of the State Federation, over WBZ, at 11:15 a. m. to 11:45. Music will be supplied for the program by Ethel Hardy Smith, Lyric Soprano.

FALL MEETING. Three significant resolutions were adopted by the State Federation, with over 500 clubwomen representing the affiliated clubs recorded as delegates, at the Fall Meeting held at Great Barrington, on Tuesday, October 10th, in Mahaiwe Theatre. The first was endorsement of the NRA program. The second was opposition to the return of the saloon. And the third was approval of disarmament and of the Kellogg pact, with a vote to cable this endorsement of disarmament to Arthur Henderson, at Geneva, prior to the reopening of the Arms Conference on October 15th.

Mrs. Frank P. Bennett, president of the Federation, in her address, declared that "the widespread changes fostered by the NRA will lead to a better social consciousness and a new economic order; and that a citizen's first duty is to help the President's NRA program."

Dr. Stanley High, speaker of the afternoon, referred to the NRA "as the making of a new government in America." Dr. High, speaking to the topic "Revolutions at Home and Abroad," described conditions in the European countries, and compared the results of experiments there with the progress being made today in the United States; he stated that Adolf Hitler is being hailed as a Messiah by the German people, who have been made to believe by the present dictator that the German army was never defeated, but that their downfall was caused by conditions back home.

Congressman Allen T. Treadway, principal speaker of the morning session, gave interesting reviews of the activities of the last Congress, in the legislation enacted, and their great significance; and declared that the recovery program reverses the usual procedure in economics in this country by extending aid to employees rather than only to employers.

One of Newton's Juniors gave a report, among those of the list of meetings scheduled for the business program. Miss Martha Wright, president of the Newton Centre Junior Woman's Club, told of club work among the Juniors.

Mrs. Henry W. Hildreth, of Winchester, third vice-president of the State Federation, in a report on Roadside Beautification, stated that 60 per cent of the tourists are seeking recreation and desire better roadsides and vistas, and she described various roadside programs for beautification in different states.

At noon about 350 delegates attended a banquet at the Berkshire Inn while others enjoyed box lunches in various nearby beauty spots; and the afternoon began with a pleasing musical program for their entertainment before the business session at the theatre.

RECENT EVENTS

Newton Centre Junior Woman's Club

The first meeting of the Newton Centre Junior Woman's Club was held Wednesday evening, October 11th, at the Club House. Miss Helen Eyre, a talented young reader, gave several groups of readings, followed by music. Miss Martha Wright, the president, outlined the charity work to be accomplished this season, and told of work already done.

Two dozen dolls have been dressed and sent to the State Federation Veterans committee, to be used for the children of veterans at Christmas time.

Clothes and other articles are being collected for the Grenfell Mission, in which the Newton Centre Juniors are particularly interested.

A reception to new members, with cider and doughnuts as refreshments ended the evening. Miss Hannah Bond had charge of arrangements.

All girls of senior high school age and daughters of Newton Centre Woman's Club members are invited to join this group.

West Newton Women's Educational Club

The first regular meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club was held on Friday, October 13th, at the Second Church in West Newton. The members enjoyed the readings of a very talented young student of the drama, Miss Eleanor Walker, a graduate of the Leland Powers School. Her interpretation of the one act plays, "Suppressed Desires" and "Dear Departed" was excellent, and the readings of the poems of Miss Millay and of the short story, "Naught" ty Stars" were equally effective. An informal reception was held later, and tea was served. Mrs. Carl Thomas is chairman of the Hospitality committee for this year.

The West Newton Women's Educational Club was well represented at the Autumn Meeting of the State Federation, held on October 10th, at Great Barrington. The following members were present: Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, president of the Club, Mrs. Joseph A. Otis, Mrs. Herman R. Place, Mrs. Louise Filene, Mrs. George H. Jackson, Mrs. Victor P. Ratzburg, and Mrs. Guy C. Holbrook.

Woman's Club of Newton Highlands

The Rev. Randolph Merrill of Newtonville was the first speaker at the regular meeting of the Woman's Club of Newton Highlands on Tuesday, October 17th, at 2:30 p. m. in the Congregational Parish House. Mr. Merrill explained to the Club briefly and concisely why the Community Chest is the intelligent way to support the welfare and character-building organizations of Newton.

Mrs. Willard H. Eaton rendered two piano solos very artistically: Liszt's "Liebestraum" and Chopin's "Polonaise."

The noted sculptor, Anna Coleman Ladd, followed Mrs. Eaton and she compared the creative soul of Chopin to that of the true sculptor or painter, art being very close to their beating hearts. Mrs. Ladd spoke of modernistic work as childish, moronic, stupid and not true art. She gave a witty outline of the problems met by a sculptor in portraiture-building and said they must be masters of plumbing, carpentry, psychology, sociology, physiology, and comparative religions. Mrs. Ladd described sculpture as a thing of serenity, joy, stillness, and peace. In closing she mentioned particularly her inspiration in doing the "Vision" and the Three Saints, "Margaret of Scotland, Empress Helena and Elizabeth of Hungary" and she invited those who were interested to come to the platform and see pictures of her principal statues and bronzes. Mrs. Ladd was very charming and with her wit and bit of French mannerism had the audience with her every minute.

Newtonville Woman's Club

The fiftieth year since the founding of the Newtonville Woman's Club and the second year in its new home was ushered in by a reception to about two hundred and fifty of its members on the afternoon of Tuesday, the 17th of October, from 2:30 to 5:00 o'clock, at the Club House, 61 Washington park.

Mrs. Edwin P. Crawe, the newly elected president received, assisted by Mrs. Bion M. Weatherhead, Mrs. Frank E. Morris, Mrs. Edwin P. McGill, and Mrs. H. Clayton Pearson. Those pouring were Mrs. Clifford B. Whitney, Mrs. Howard C. Thomas, Mrs. Adam Haug, and Mrs. Fred M. Blanchard.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

OF REAL ESTATE

By virtue of the power of sale con-made in a certain mortgage deed given by Charles I. Bucknam to William H. Brewster dated October 1, 1895 with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 4964, Page 449, of which mortgage deed the subject of the present deed is a part, for breach of the condition of said mortgage deed, and for the purpose of releasing the subject of the present deed from the said mortgage deed, the production on the parcel of land first hereinafter described on Monday, the 15th day of October, 1906, of a duly authenticated and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and the same described substantially as follows, to wit: A certain lot of land, with the buildings thereon in that part of Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, bounded and described as follows:

Plots 1 and 2 are a certain lot of land situated on the Eastern side of Dunstan Street, and being lot 3 as shown on a plan of the Jermain Estate in West Newton, Massachusetts, filed in the veyer, date November 7, 1877, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Plan Book 44, Plan 35, as follows: Bounded on the North by the following: Westerly by said Dunstan Street fifty-six and 67/100 (56.67) feet; Northernly by Chesapeake Brook one hundred and thirty and 1/3 (131.7) feet; Easterly by land now or formerly of Jennison eighty-two and 4/100 (82.4) feet, and Southerly by a lot of said town of one hundred and twenty-nine and 5/10 (129.5) feet; containing 8990 square feet, be all or any of said measurements more or less. Being the same as was conveyed to me by Richard H. Hunt et al by deed dated February 8, 1917, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 418, Page 440, and hereby conveyed, subject to and with the benefit of the provisions of an agreement dated April 1, 1924 and recorded with said Deeds, Book 4716, Page 411.

Second. A parcel of land situated on the Easterly side of Dunstan Street, being lot 7 as shown on the above mentioned plan, bounded and described as follows: Westerly by said Dunstan Street sixty (60) feet;

Northerly by lot 9 as shown on said plan one hundred twenty-nine and 53/100 (129.53) feet; Easterly by land now or formerly of Jennison city and 60 feet; and Southerly by lot 10 as shown on said plan one hundred twenty-nine and 7/10 (129.7) feet; containing 7776 square feet of land, be all or any of said measurements more or less. Being the same premises conveyed to me by Richard H. Hunt et al, Trustees, by deed dated December 10, 1920, and recorded with

tioned plan, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point one hundred and five (105) feet Northerly from Washington Street on said Dunstan Street and running Easterly by land formerly of Henry

H. Hunt and in part by land now or late of Ellen F. G. Talbot one hundred thirty and 71/100 (130.71) feet to land now or formerly of Furbush, thence turning and running Northerly by said land of Furbush sixty (60) feet to other land formerly of said Hunt Estate, being lot 7 on said plan, thence running and being conveyed by said last mentioned land one hundred twenty-nine and 7/10 (129.7) feet to the Easterly line of said Dunstan Street; thence turning and running Southerly by said Dunstan Street sixty (60) feet to the point of beginning. Being the same premises conveyed by Me. M. M. and E. M. Hussey by deed dated July 23, 1924, and herewith to be recorded. Said premises are conveyed subject to a prior mortgage given by me to Fred-Erick L. Olmsted et al, Trustees, for $10,000.00.

Said premises will be sold subject to outstanding tax titles, unpaid taxes, municipal liens and assessments.
$500.00 will be required in cash at time and place of sale; other terms announced at sale.

Y. M. C. A.

Nearly two hundred members and their friends came out on Wednesday evening, Oct. 18th, to enjoy the first social event at the Newton
Y. M. C. A., for the fall and winter season.

The program started with a Volley Ball game by the Business Men in the gymnasium, followed by Class Work by the Seniors, and two Wrestling bouts between George La-Rocque and Capt. Joseph Arsenault, and Leo Cormier and Murock
Weathers. The Squash and Hand Ball Courts were busy all evening with matches between members of the Association, except the feature event which was an exhibition between Tom Jansen and Ralph Stuart.

In the swimming pool the Junior and Senior Swimming Teams put on an exhibition of swimming and diving. Of special interest was the plunging and underwater swimming demonstrated by George King and John P. Maloney. The Bowling Alleys were open and were busy all evening. A feature was an informal match between teams representing the Newton Y. M. C. A. and the Hunnewell Hill section.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Jowett of Newton Centre have moved to the Hunnewell Hill section.

Excellent music was furnished by the Musette Trio, consisting of Miss Florence Strickland, Violin; Mrs. Horace Guild, Cello; and Miss Dorothy Chadwell, Piano. Mrs. Raymond Tucker captained the social side of the proceedings, furnishing delectable and dainty refreshments. Members of the Social committee costumed in white and lavender, busied themselves in timely serving.

The colorful foliage and bright autumn flowers used in decorating, formed a most naturalistic stage for the get-together.

Results of the faithful interest and aggressiveness of Mrs. H. Clayton Pearson and her House committee were admired in the work accomplished during the summer throughout the Club House and especially in the supper room and adjoining service rooms where the Art committee, whose chairman is Mrs. Carl C. Cutler, executed much of the actual decorating. A fine floor for dancing in the social room has also been added to the list of improvements.

A satisfactory evidence of the popularity of the programs, classes, and in the fact that notwithstanding the loss of members from removals and resignations, the Club this fall has practically its full quota of paid memberships.

Judging from the enthusiasm and the zeal of friendly participation which was all-pervading, the coming year bids fair to be an unparalleled success.

DeMolay Conclave In Newtonville

On Saturday last, Oct. 14th, delegates to the number of three hundred and sixty-seven, from the thirty-five Chapters of the Order of De Molay in Massachusetts, convened at the Masonic Temple in Newtonville for their tenth annual conclave. The session opened at 9 o'clock in the morning and continued through the day and evening. A banquet was held at 6:30. Among the invited guests were Leon W. Weir, Deputy of the Grand Council of the Order of De Molay in Massachusetts; Francis G.
Hanson, the organizer of the first Chapter of the Order in Massachusetts, in 1922; Hon. Roy V. Collins, Acting Mayor of Newton in the absence of Mayor Weeks; and Carl B.
Graves, Presiding Master of Dalhousie Lodge of Masons in Newtonville.

During the banquet music was furnished by a group from the De Molay Band of Newton, assisted by Miss Jeanne Budding, of Auburndale, with her illuminated baton twirling.

The Conclave was under the direction of the De Molay State Officers, headed by Richard C. Lefavour as State Master Councilor. A new State Constitution was adopted and various items of other accumulated business taken care of. Most of the business of the Conclave was handled in conferences by groups of Advisers, Councilors and Scribes, and it was interesting to observe how readily those young fellows dropped their high spirits for the time being and buckled down to business.

On the previous evening, in connection with the Conclave, twenty-two De Molays from fifteen Chapters in the Massachusetts jurisdiction received the Degree of Legionnaire of the De Molay Legion of Honor, the highest award obtainable in De Molay. This honor is given only to those who have given exceptional service to the Order, and is granted only on the recommendation of the Advisory Councils. Personal solicitations automatically bars a De Molay from receiving this honor. Among those made Legionnaires were two young men from the local Chapter, Arnold E. Nichols, of Newtonville, and Charles E. Smith, of Newton.

The Order of De Molay is not in any way a junior Masonic fraternity, and membership in De Molay does not assure a boy membership in any other organization. The first De Molay Chapter in Massachusetts was organized in February, 1922, since which time 16,415 young men have been initiated into the Order in the State, and have had inculcated in their minds the precepts of filial love, reverence, courtesy, comradeship, fidelity, cleanliness and patriotism, which should make for better citizenship.

—Mrs. Ernest Hanscom of Grove
st. has returned from a motor trip through Canada.

—Little Billy Levitt of Cornell st. is confined to Newton Hospital as the result of a severe accident.

—Mrs. John Murphy, formerly of Lower Falls, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brindley of Grove st.

—Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Richardson of Vermont were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lurvey for the week end.

—Mrs. Esther Bacon of Concord st. left Thursday for Maine where she will attend the fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Lamond of Maine.

—The Lower Falls Community Club held their regular meeting on Monday evening in the Perrin Memorial Hall. The guest speaker of the evening was Ex-Mayor Edwin O. Childs.

Grenfell Will Speak Here on Labrador Life

At Newton Centre in Observation of Grenfell Week

One of the Newton activities during Grenfell Week in Boston will be held in Newton Centre at the First Baptist Church on Thursday, Nov. 2, at 8 p. m. Mr. Albert T. Gould, president of the New England Grenfell Association, is to introduce Sir Wilfred Grenfell who will give from intimate knowledge and personal experiences life stories of the far north, in Newfoundland and Labrador, of work carried on by the Grenfell mission.

The guests of the evening will be members of the New England Grenfell Association, past workers in Labrador field and friends of Lady Grenfell and Sir Wilfred, mostly from Newton. The ushers will be Loomis and Rowland Patrick, former volunteers in the mission work, for the platform guests. Those for the main body of the church will be young ladies who have served as volunteer workers on the Labrador coast. In charge of the exhibit of industrial work will be Miss Scattergood of Philadelphia and Miss Fuller of Stamford, Conn., ready to supply information regarding the work being done at St. Anthony and various stations on the coast.

The general activities of Grenfell Week in which Newton is assisting are the Little Labrador Bazaar in Boston, Monday and Tuesday, October 30 and 31, at the Park Square Building. The Bazaar shows several features distinctly of Labrador, such as "icebergs," "Labrador snow flakes," Grenfell cloth, "Huskie" puppets, a Labrador "mug up," "bake apples" and tables of Grenfell Labrador handicrafts. Newton and Milton are assisting on the food tables under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. Robert E. Apper and Mrs. Charles Wood Bond.

From a letter of Sir Wilfred Grenfell to an alumni group comes a message that fits the present occasion: "Christ put in His life work in lonely Galilee, not in crowded Jerusalem. Each of us, in our own corner, if it is as small and remote as Labrador, lights a candle that can never be put out. The thought of one hundred and fifty candle-powers scattered over the varying centres of Alumni came from, sent me to the Land of Nod that night with the peace of the optimist. I went to sleep with a night-cap unknown to licensed drink hall or 'speakeasy'; it was the confidence that you are still behind this venture in the North and that you are saying in action 'Curry On.' His Kingdom is coming, and the glory and fun of bringing it is entrusted to us."

Electric Iron Causes $3000 Fire

An overheated electric iron started a fire in an apartment at the house at 49 Grove street, Auburndale on Tuesday morning about 10 o'clock. The apartment, on the third floor, is occupied by James E. Pierce and family. The damage to the building and its furnishings is estimated at about $3000.

Fires on Monday included a chimney fire at 10:19 a. m. in the house at 1046 Chestnut st., Newton Upper Falls, occupied by George Sweet; a fire in the cellar of the house at 1624 Centre st., Newton Highlands, occupied by E. N. Lindgren at 9 p. m.; and at 11:25 p. m., a fire in an automobile on Centre st., Newton Centre. The car was owned by John DeMazza.

Ray Coppins Hurt In Auto Accident

Raymond G. Coppins of Edgartown was injured last Friday when the automobile in which he was riding hit a tree on Commonwealth avenue, near Auburn st., Auburndale. He was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance to be treated for a gash in his forehead and injuries to his back. The car was driven by Alexander Stewart of Newton st., Weston. It skidded and went out of control.

$115,000 For New Sewer in Charlemont Sec.

NRA Project to Employ Eighty For Eight Months

At the meeting of the Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night $115,000 were appropriated for the construction of a new trunk line sewer which will start at the Eliot street bridge on the Charles River at Newton Upper Falls and extend to Wallace street in the Charlemont section. A branch of this sewer will go towards South Meadow Brook. This work will be done as one of the NRA projects.

The only alderman to vote against appropriating this large sum of money was Alderman Temperley. He said that he is not opposed to the project, but he does object to voting any large sum of the taxpayers' money without having had some reasonable opportunity to consider such an important matter before voting on it. The sewer project did not come before the Board of Aldermen until Monday night, shortly before the vote was taken to spend $115,000 on it. Of this amount 30 per cent is to be given by the NRA, the balance, or about $85,000 will be paid by taxpayers of Newton. The discussion on this matter took place mostly behind closed doors when the Board met as a committee of the whole during the customary recess.

Temperley stated that the "closed session" discussion showed that only a small part of the proposed sewer will serve Charlemont; that its real purpose is for the development of the Oak Hill district. He said Charlemont will receive little benefit unless lateral sewers will be laid through that district. He said that while it may be the desire of the Mayor and the Aldermen to start public works to relieve unemployment, other public works can be started sooner than can this sewer project.

Alderman Murray said that $80,000 of the $115,000 the sewer will cost, will be paid for labor. It will give eight months work to 80 men; the work will continue through the coming winter, and Mayor Weeks may recommend that the sewer be continued to Oak Hill.

Alderman Sprout said he is glad to see some start made to provide employment and he advocated that the city start some projects on its own initiative to provide more employment instead of depending solely on the NRA program. He said appropriations ought to be made to resurface streets and repair sidewalks. Alderman Murray said the Public Works Committee will welcome suggestions from any alderman regarding any specific project.

Alderman Cronin said the Board of Aldermen ought to be interested in the welfare of the working men of the city and should plan projects to afford work for these men the entire year. He stated that sixty former employees of the Street Department were present in the hall; some of them have been looking for ten months. They want work, not welfare aid. Cronin revealed the information that laborers on the sewer project will be paid 40 cents per hour and will work six days each week. He said the work on the construction of the sewer should all be done by the city.

Alderman Temperley said there is plenty of work to be done in the city. Many streets are without sidewalks and children are menaced by automobiles; the Thompsonville playground should be finished and not left in its uncompleted condition after thousands of dollars have been spent on it. Alderman Holden said Mayor Weeks is working on plans for other projects which will be presented to the Board of Aldermen next week.

Want Business Building on Ave.

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night a petition was received from R. H. White Company of Boston for a permit to erect a building at 159 Commonwealth ave., Chestnut Hill for commercial purposes. This location is in a single residence zone opposite Boston College. The petition states that the building would be used for temporary purposes, but it is stated that it will be of steel and concrete construction. Any efforts to convert the avenue from a high class residence street to a business thoroughfare have always aroused determined opposition.

Newton Man On Directorship of Boston School

R. H. Blaisdell With Bryant & Stratton School 9 Years

At the annual meeting of the Bryant & Stratton Commercial School Corporation of Boston, Richard H. Blaisdell of Newton was elected a director. He is the son of the present active President of the School and has served in various capacities in both the Day and Evening Sessions for the past nine years. His career proves conclusively his value and qualifications for accepting such a responsibility.

Mr. Blaisdell was graduated from the Newton High School and immediately entered Bryant & Stratton School from which he graduated in 1920. The next year he entered Bowdoin College and was a member of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity. Later he was employed in the Bookkeeping

RICHARD H. BLAISDELL

Department of Estabrook and Company and in the Accounting Department of the United Fruit Company. This business experience, combined with two years' teaching experience in the McAllister School for Boys, gave him the necessary qualifications for the position of Assistant Instructor at the Bryant & Stratton Commercial School. Here he has served as Instructor in Bookkeeping, Examination Instructor, and for six years as Employment Manager. During his association with the Employment Department he has seen the voluntary calls for employment from business houses in this city increase more than fifty per cent in one year, and has made many valuable contacts with leading business executives. He is married and has two children and resides on Arlington street.

Civilizations of E.-W. Compared

Samuel Dennis, a young journalist, native of Colombo, Ceylon, who is touring the United States to familiarize himself with the conditions in this country from a newspaper man's point of view will speak on "The Mysterious East" at the Newtonville Methodist Church Friday, Nov. 3, at 8 p. m.

Mr. Dennis, who came to this country about a year ago has lectured in institutions of all kinds during his tour of 29 of the 48 states. He paints deftly a contrasting word picture of eastern and western civilization giving his impressions of America and its people and discussing the life of Ceylon and India and their people, correcting many misconceived notions concerning the Orient.

MAN KILLED ON PIKE AT NEWTON CENTRE

Alfonso Caruso, 50, of 293 Boylston st., Newton Centre, died at St. Elizabeth's Hospital on Monday of a fractured skull. He was hit on Saturday night at Boylston street and Langley rd., Newton Centre, by a car driven by Joseph Strachman of Framingham. Caruso is survived by his widow, four daughters and one son.

Warning

It has come to the notice of the Newton Compliance Board of the N. R. A. that in certain communities unauthorized persons are soliciting funds for the NRA. This board acts gratuitously and funds are not solicited from the public. Voluntary contributions by the Merchants of the City are dependent upon such money as is needed for necessary clerical and secretarial assistance as well as telephone service.

Large Audience Hears Creator Of Cub Program

Dr. Hurt Emphasizes Ways of Building Character

"Some people only say 'Well done' when they order steak!" said Dr. Hubert W. Hurt, the creator of the Cub program, in his address to 150 fathers and mothers on the new program of the Boy Scouts of America for boys 9, 10 and 11 years of age. Dr. Hurt stated that all scientific research indicated there are four things which humans can do to help build character, and only four; 1, example; 2, doing things with young people; 3, encouragement; and 4, expectancy of good. He explained the psychological basis of the Cub program, indicating how life is a widening thing, with its horizons pushed back year by year and experience increased. The Cub program is a home-centered program, for, so Dr. Hurt stated, the home and mother are the influences with the greatest effect on a boy in those years and, second, the neighborhood gang, the play group, is the next most important factor. Therefore, as he pointed out, the whole Cub program is built around the Den, which are the neighborhood playgrounds, with the Den Mother, one of the mothers of a Cub, working with them and helping them do the various things which are part of the program.

Following Dr. Hurt's address, there was a question-period from the floor, in which all sorts of questions were asked concerning the program and various problems which Cub masters have met in their work. Mr. Elmer Ellsworth, principal of the Peirce School District, and the Deputy Commissioner for Cubbing of Norumbega Council, presided at the dinner meeting.

Following the meeting, Deputy Commissioner Ellsworth announced that there would be a training course in inexpensive crafts for use in Cub Dens, starting Wednesday morning, October 25th, at the City Hall, at 10 o'clock.

The first session of the course was held on that date and Mr. W. R. Speirs, the Assistant Scout Executive, taught the Den mothers various crafts, which they were enthusiastic in learning. The course will be held each Wednesday morning at the same time and place, through November 15th. It is also open to any mothers who wish to learn crafts for use at home with their respective sons or daughters.

"Rats" Is Slogan For Hallowe'en

Rats, not ghosts will feature Hallowe'en Night in Middlesex County. A one-night community campaign against the rodents has been organized by A. F. MacDougall, county agricultural agent, and rat bait will be sold at cost in most of the cities and towns in the county. Mr. MacDougall says: "Place your rat baits Tuesday evening (Oct. 31st). Interest your neighbors in doing the same thing. Rout the rats out of Middlesex County."

In Newton the rat bait is on sale at the Board of Health office in City Hall. It is the latest and most scientific method to poison rats and is relatively harmless to humans, domestic animals and poultry. So, celebrate Hallowe'en by waging war on the rats in your neighborhood.

Civil War Veteran Well Known Here Has Passed Away

George M. Fiske Was Ardent Temperance Advocate

George M. Fiske of 438 Wolcott st., Auburndale, died on Oct. 23. He was born in Medfield in 1842. He was a descendant of Nathan Fiske, who came from Laxfield, England, in 1642, and settled in Watertown. At the age of 19, Mr. Fiske enlisted in the 42nd Massachusetts Infantry and served in the Civil War. In 1871 he became engaged in the manufacture of brick and terra cotta and became a national leader in that industry. His products were shipped all over the world. In his 87th year he completed a notable book entitled "The Evolution of Brick and Bricklaying in America."

In 1875 Mr. Fiske settled in Auburndale and for many years took a prominent part in civic and church affairs. He held about every office in Charles Ward Post, G. A. R., and was Vice Commander of Massachusetts Department, G. A. R. He was an ardent writer and worker in the cause of total abstinence and for many years was president of the Union Rescue Mission of Boston.

He is survived by one son, J. Parker B. Fiske of Auburndale; and a daughter, Mrs. Albert R. Bacon of Bedford. He is also survived by four grandchildren. Charles P. Fiske of New York; George A. Fiske of Auburndale; Robert B. Fiske of New York; and Helen Fiske of Auburndale; and four great-grandchildren.

His funeral service was held yesterday afternoon at his late home, Rev. Edward Payson Drew of West Newton officiated. Burial was in Newton Cemetery.

Speaker Makes Journey By Air

The popular, widely travelled, and noted speaker, Max Yergan, who addressed the Clafin Club at its first meeting Friday of last week, was forced to fly by airplane from Denver, Colo., to Chicago, Thursday morning, in order that he might get on a train out of Chicago in time to arrive for his appearance at the club Friday at 6:30 p. m.

The year for the club opened in a very auspicious way. Dinner was served to 86 of the 101 members. Dr. Laurence W. C. Emig offered the invocation and Carl S. Ell, Vice President, and Dean of Northeastern University, presided at the meeting. The address of Max Yergan on "Black Africa" was intensely interesting and instructive. He held his audience spellbound with his description of the interracial problems and race relationships in Africa.

The speaker was compelled to leave immediately for Boston in order to get to New York City for an engagement the next morning. Mr. Yergan will be in this country for the next few months, but leaves in March for another period of five years in Africa.

Mayor Recommends Large Project At Oak Hill

City Gets Offer to Exchange Land for New Street

On the docket for the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night was a recommendation from Mayor Weeks that the offer of the Oak Hill Trust Company and others of the gift of land to the city be accepted under the conditions specified. The Oak Hill Land Trust is headed by Arnold Hartmann of Rosalie rd. in that district. Mr. Hartmann, in conjunction with a few other owners of land in that district, has renewed an offer similar to one which he made a few years ago. He has been developing the Oak Hill district for some years and wants the co-operation of the city in this project.

The offer of land is to permit the construction of a broad street which will start at Parker st., near Parker ter. and run across open country to a point on Greenwood st. between Dudley rd. and Country Club rd. The street would be over a half mile long and 80 feet wide. The city would bear the expense of building this road. The land would be given by the owners. About midway along the road a community centre would be located on a plot of 30 acres to be donated by the Oak Hill Land Trust. This centre would include the location for a new school house to be erected by the city, and an adjoining playground. In front of the school adjoining these spaces are planned and would be a section which would be sold for a business zone. A street, 3700 feet long, would be built around the playground and school. The cost of this project to the city was not stated.

As a start in the development of the Oak Hill district the aldermen, on recommendation of the Mayor, appropriated $115,000 for the first section of a big sewer which will run from Haggerty's Corner (Eliot and Chestnut sts.) to Wallace st. in Charlemont section.

Seek Permit for Paint Factory At Nonantum

Next Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock a public hearing will be held at Newton City Hall before the Board of Appeal on the application of the First National Bank of Boston for the right to use the premises at 80 Bridge st., Nonantum, including the land and buildings thereon, and such additional buildings as may be erected, for the manufacture, storage and sale of paints, varnishes, lacquers and enamels.

The property in question is part of the old plant of the Saxony Worsteds Company and was occupied for some years by the Shepherd Worsteds Company. The buildings on it are in large part of frame construction. Adjoining parts of the former Saxony Worsteds Mill property are now used as a mattress factory, a cotton thread factory and a radio tube factory. Across Bridge st. from the proposed paint and enamel factory is a closely settled district of wooden houses. The North Congregational Church is located a few hundred feet away.

The application for this paint factory was refused by Buildings Commissioner Hageman because the zoning ordinance of Newton expressly forbids (under Section 560) any such industry. Manufacture of paints and varnishes was considered an objectionable industry by those who drew up the zoning ordinance because of the odors and fire hazard such a business would entail. There will be strong opposition from Nonantum against the application.

Community Chest Campaign Ready For Opening

Scouts To Deliver Literature Tomorrow

Church bells will ring tomorrow morning all over Newton at 10:00 o'clock as Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts start to deliver the official Newton Community Chest campaign literature to every home in Newton. Three days later at 8:00 o'clock on Tuesday evening, Oct. 31st, more than 1500 members of the soliciting organization will meet in the auditorium of the Newton High School to open the ten-day campaign of the Chest for $213,000.

Leon B. Rogers, President of the Community Chest, will preside at the meeting which will be held for the purpose of giving every worker necessary last-minute instructions. Mayor or Sinclair Weeks and Bishop Francis J. Spellman will speak briefly and there will be a brief period for questions and answers. Members of the Newton High School orchestra will play from 7:30 until 8:00 o'clock. It is expected that the meeting will be over by 9:00 o'clock or very soon thereafter.

More than 1,000 Community Chest posters have been placed on bulletin boards, in railroad stations, and in store windows, and large banners bearing the slogan "Rebuild Lives—Maintain Morale" now hang over the streets of Newton at five strategic locations.

A Speakers' Committee under the Chairmanship of Mrs. Virginia M. Hutchinson has been active in bringing the message of the Community Chest before all club meetings during the past month, and the organization of workers in every village is almost completed at this time.

Reports coming in to Chest headquarters from other cities where Community Chest campaigns have already been conducted this fall indicate that there should be every prospect of raising the $213,000 needed in Newton. In Lincoln, Nebraska, the goal has been over-subscribed by more than $11,000, while Chest campaigns in Nashua, New Hampshire, and Elgin, Illinois, have also gone over the top within the last few weeks. In Seattle more than half a million dollars has been raised, and Community Chest leaders in many other cities are optimistic that their respective goals will be reached. The same thing, it is earnestly hoped, will be true of Newton.

Landlord Deprives Tenants of Water

David J. McDonald of West Newton st., Boston, owner of the house at 175A Cypress st., Newton Centre, was in the Newton court on Wednesday charged with depriving two tenants in his house of water. The tenants are Mrs. Alice Taylor and Mrs. Salvatore Russo and their families. It was charged that on Oct. 6, McDonald, in an effort to force the tenants to leave the house, shut off the water. Complaints were made to the Board of Health and on Oct. 9 the water was again turned on after the Board of Health had ordered McDonald to do so. Judge Brown, who was on the bench, fined McDonald $5.

BROCKTON UPSETS NEWTON 14 TO 0

Brockton High ran its string of games without defeat to 21 last Saturday by upsetting the invading Newton High eleven 14 to 0 in the first of what is expected to be a prolonged series of annual games between the two schools. The long string of Brockton victories has been checked by a few of the contests of which a scoreless battle with Medford High occurred this season. In addition Brockton has compiled the remarkable record of playing 33 games without defeat on its own home grounds, its last defeat there being early in the 1929 season.

The orange and black Newton eleven was handicapped by the loss of Captain Charley Thompson and Sanderson Sloane, a factor which may well have meant the difference between a defeat and a tie game for Newton. The Newton team put up a gallant battle but succumbed on both occasions to a rather consistent offense of the Shoe city eleven. Brockton, defending state champions of the 1932 season, is regarded in schoolboy football circles as a team which has a strong defense but a none too potent offense. Captain Thompson of Newton has showed himself to be one of the outstanding centers in schoolboy football this season. Had he been able to play it is possible that his defensive ability might have been sufficient to check the Brockton offense at the critical time. Sloane, the best punter on the Newton squad, would have been of great value to Coach Sanborn's outfit in keeping the Brockton offense farther from a scoring position. Thompson was troubled by an ailment which at first was thought might be appendicitis but which was later determined to be a misplaced rib causing considerable discomfort. Thompson's father, a practicing physician, has devised a special brace or jacket which will permit the Newton captain to play in tomorrow's game with Quincy.

In defeating Newton the Brockton team capitalized on two scoring opportunities. The first came in the second period when the Shoe City team forced its way deep into Newton territory. With the ball on the Newton 5-yard line Wychunas, Brockton star back, plunged his way through the line to score the initial touchdown. Captain Astuto kicked the point. In the final session after the two teams had battled back and forth near midfield Brockton took the ball on its 18-yard line and started a long march to the Newton 16-yard stripe. Here Parakis dropped back about ten yards and shot a 25-yard pass to Captain Astuto on the goal line for the second touchdown. Astuto again kicked the point after.

Unless Coach Sanborn's charges become handicapped by further injuries the Newton eleven will go into its final game against Brockton as the favorite. This should make little difference, however, as season's records may well be disregarded when Newton and Brockton face each other. The deep rivalry between the two is so intensified that both rise to inspirational heights and in actual combat almost always put on an evenly contested battle.

Newton Show of the Air

The seventh of the series of week-day broadcasts of the Newton Show of the Air over station WLEY, Lexington, will be presented Thursday, Nov. 2nd, from 7:15 to 9 p. m., under the direction of Estelle G. Marsh. The artists of the evening include the long-promised Newton favorites Dr. Cecil Clark and Harold Billings in their very clever skits, which make worries forgotten as they amble along with a little bit of this and a little bit of that.

Mrs. Paul Revere Knight better known as Kitty Knight the Children's Entertainer finds time in her busy calendar of engagements to bring her unique program for the little ones as well as the grown-ups.

Barbara Brett, violinist, a pupil of Mary Pucciarelli's, accompanied by Virginia Kenway, will make her bow before the microphone of WLEY. Dr. Anton R. Fried, well-known Newton violinist, returns by popular demand with some carefully picked selections. Dr. Fried will be accompanied as usual by pianist Lillian West.

The Newton Show of the Air soloist, Sylvia Church Pettys, and Mary Barr Snyder, pianist and accompanist, add much to the program.

NEWTON SHOULD REGAIN WINNING PATH TOMORROW

Entertaining Quincy High at the Dickinson Stadium tomorrow afternoon the Newton High football team should regain the winning path to make it an even break in the six games this season. With the half-way mark of the 1933 season passed last Saturday and having won but two of the five games to date Coach Sanborn has a task ahead to bring the team through with an even rating for the season.

Quincy has won but one of its five games this season, defeating a weak Brookline eleven 19 to 6. It has played one tie game with the Tufts College junior varsity and has dropped three games: to Leominster 42 to 0, Melrose 6 to 0, and Lynn Classical 13 to 0. Thus Newton should find itself tomorrow and chalk up another victory.

Following the Quincy game comes the drive down the season's stretch against Rindge, Manchester (N. H.), Waltham and Brookline in that order. The game with Rindge at Russell Field, North Cambridge, will have considerable bearing on the ultimate resting place of the 1933 Suburban league title. Rindge has defeated both Cambridge Latin and Brookline and needs only a win from Newton to assure itself of the honor or a tie with Newton for a tie with the orange and black for the title. Newton has defeated Cambridge Latin, which eleven is out of the running, and unless unexpected and surprising developments take place should win from Brookline on Thanksgiving Day and thus needs to hurdle Rindge in order to stay in the running.

Manchester has been undefeated and unscathed upon this season and would seem to carry too many guns for the Newton ship although the orange and black will put up its customary display of defensive strength as an underdog on Armistice Day.

The following week Newton will meet the fast traveling Waltham eleven which slowly this season but which Coach Jack Leary has brought along to a position where it is a contender for state honors. Defeating Haverhill last Saturday gave the Waltham team a boost which may well give it the confidence to wind up the season with a clean slate as it has won all its five games to date. However, one of several teams may upset the Watch City outfit as it has yet to face, in addition to Newton, Brockton, Manchester and other strong outfits.

Unless Coach Sanborn's charges become handicapped by further injuries the Newton eleven will go into its final game against Brookline as the favorite. This should make little difference, however, as season's records may well be disregarded when Newton and Brookline face each other. The deep rivalry between the two is so intensified that both rise to inspirational heights and in actual combat almost always put on an evenly contested battle.

Supt. Lund Speaks On Abolition of School Marks

The first meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of the John W. Weeks Junior High School was held last Friday evening, October 20, in the school auditorium. Mr. Trevelyan, the president introduced Mr. John Lund, the superintendent of schools, who in turn introduced Mr. Herbert Landry, the new director of the Department of Guidance and Research.

Both Mr. Landry and Mr. Lund explained the aim and the purpose of the Newton Schools in dispensing with the obsolete system of marks, honors, and report cards. Several of the 420 parents who were present took part in the critical and lively discussion which followed Mr. Lund's remarks. Some who came to condemn, left with a better understanding of the change which has taken place in this phase of administrative policy in the schools, and a spirit of optimistic co-operation.

In addressing the association, Superintendent Lund summed up the broad purposes of the plan as follows: "Too often administrative devices and procedures defeat the major purposes of education. Schools must build character. The school situation and school experiences must be organized and arranged that the child may develop desirable and worthwhile habits and attitudes. The marking system with its emphasis on honors and awards has definitely tended to stimulate wrong attitudes, habits and aims. Thousands of boys and girls are being taught to beat the game. Education must come to mean something more than sharpened tools for the fight for each to get as much as he can against the increasing competition of others. This attitude has bedeviled our whole socio-economic life. The school must take its stand squarely against the jungle law type of competition.

School reports in Newton's schools from now on will indicate real accomplishment instead of relative standing. They will be diagnostic rather than purely laudatory or condemnatory. Parents and teachers together will understand individual children better and together help the child to develop just as far as he can go.

The whole aim and purpose of the new plan is to make of the school a happy place where pupils and teachers may work together, sharing a rich experience to the end that every child may grow in wisdom, understanding and skill, each to the limit of his capacity."

American Legion

Newton Post No. 48, American Legion, held its regular monthly meeting at the Memorial Building which was attended by some 200 members. The observance of Armistice Day was the chief topic of interest. As in the past the Post is arranging to have speakers appear at the Newton Schools to address the pupils on what this day means to the American people. On Sunday, Nov. 5th, the Post will attend church services at the Methodist Episcopal Church on Centre st., Newton; and on Sunday evening will journey to Providence, R. I. to attend services at the Elmwood Baptist Church as guests of the Rev. Herbert A. McCormie, former chaplain of the Post.

On Friday evening, Nov. 10th, an Armistice Eve ball will be held at the Armory in West Newton under the sponsorship of the Post, its Band and the Auxiliary, and plans are being perfected to make this event one of the outstanding of the year. On Armistice Day the Post will participate in the parade which will be held at Woburn, and which will be the official celebration of the Department of Massachusetts.

Commander Robert L. Cunningham and Past Commander Julius B. Ramm reported on the National Convention at Chicago, and Past Commander Harold D. Ames, who was recently elected to the office of Junior Vice Commander of Middlesex County, addressed the meeting.

A rather unusual request was made at the meeting when it was announced that a child in the city was suffering from an illness which required a blood transfusion and its parents were not financially able to secure such treatment. However, Comrades William A. Davidson, Daniel P. Murphy and Edward Stoehrer volunteered to submit to a transfusion should their blood be of the required type. The action of these members was received with an ovation from those present.

Recent Engagements

At a bridge luncheon given recently, Robert A. Cox of Newton announced the engagement of his sister, Miss Helen Louise Cox of Newton Highlands to Charles Henry Sampson, also of Newton Highlands. Miss Cox is a graduate of the Chandler Secretarial School of Boston and for the past four years has been secretary to Dr. Frank Palmer Speare, president of Northeastern University. Mr. Sampson, a graduate of the University of Maine and of Harvard University, is the headmaster of the Huntington School for Boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Natho of Lynn, Massachusetts, announce the engagement of their daughter Doris to Mr. Manuel Gulesian of Mattapan. Miss Natho is at present the popular teacher of Science in the Bigelow Junior High School, and also a member of the staff of the Trinity Church School in Boston. She is a graduate of Teachers College, Salem, Massachusetts, and has studied at Boston University. An early summer wedding is planned.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Doggett of 504 California st., Newtonville, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Madeline Andros Doggett to Mr. Edward Gordon Alexander on Friday evening, October 20, at 8:30. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edgar H. Chandler, a brother-in-law of the bride, at his home in Jamaica Plain, where he is pastor of Central Congregational Church. The double ring service was used and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride is a graduate of the Newton High School, the Boston University School of Religious Education and the Nurses Training School of Boston. The groom is an alumnus of Keystone Academy and of Colgate University. He has also studied in the Andover-Newton Theological Seminary. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will live at 80 Revere st., Boston.

KELLAWAY—STURTEVANT

Miss Bertha Allen Sturtevant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin P. Sturtevant of 140 Pleasant st., Whitman, and Mr. Arthur Kendall Kellaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Kellaway of 19 Wymann st., Waban, were united in marriage at the First Congregational Church, Whitman, by the pastor, Rev. Harold Capron, on Thursday afternoon, October 26. The ceremony took place at four o'clock in the presence of the immediate families. The bride was attended by her cousin, Mrs. Reginald Leach of East Bridgewater, as matron of honor and the groom was attended by Mr. Dudley P. Rhodes of Waban.

A wedding reception followed by a buffet supper which was attended by the immediate relatives was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Kellaway left for a short wedding trip and upon their return will reside at 17 Gannett st., Brockton.

YOUNG—BROWN

A wedding of interest to Newton people took place on Saturday, October 27th, at Plainfield, New Jersey, when Miss Helen Voorhees Brown became the bride of Lewis Joseph Young of Newton, New Hampshire, son of Mrs. Nicholas Young, formerly of Newton. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen H. Voorhees. They will make their home in Newton, New Hampshire.

HAMMOND—HERLIHY

Ruth Josephine Herlihy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Herlihy of Walnut st., Newtonville, was married on Saturday evening, October 21st to William Henry Hammond of Forest Hills, L. I., New York. A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the Belmont Spring Country Club, at which guests were present from New York and Philadelphia.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white lace with cap shaped veil embroidered with seed pearls and caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bride roses and valley lilies. Her only attendant, Lucille P. Herlihy, was gown in Bellini blue chiffon velvet with hat to match and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Edward Herlihy was the best man. The couple will make their home in Forest Hills, Long Island, New York.

"REBUILD LIVES—MAINTAIN MORALE"

The second annual campaign of the Newton Community Chest begins next Wednesday, November first, with the fitting slogan—"Rebuild Lives—Maintain Morale." That slogan describes the vital necessity for the work performed by the Community Chest far better than a multitude of words and high sounding phrases. In periods such as we have been passing through during the past few years and will face this coming winter a Community Chest fills in the gap between the work of the private agency and that of the public agency. There are many things the tax dollar cannot do, although the municipal, state and federal governments are bending every effort at the present time to relieve the existing conditions.

Although the depression is not over we have a new economic background this year. Indications are that we are on the way to recovery but in the coming months the scourge of winter, the gnawing pangs of hunger, the prevalence of diseases must be faced. Hunger and deprivation of the past few years has weakened the resistance of many and we cannot—we must not—let those lives be wasted. We must rebuild them and maintain the morale of those in need until conditions enable them to help themselves.

About seventy-five cents of every dollar you give to the Community Chest will be used for the care of the sick and aged and for relief and family welfare. About sixteen cents will go to the character-building agencies. And the small remainder, less than ten cents, will go to administration and other contingent expenses of the campaign.

The character-building agencies are a vital part of the community. They are as important as education. They teach our youth the right way of living and enable our youth to take its place in the future development of the community. Last Tuesday, George L. White, President of the Kiwanis Club, appealed for support of the Community Chest in brief remarks to the joint meeting of that organization and the Rotary Club. We quote his closing words pertaining to character-building agencies. "Thank God these agencies need no defense. Youth keeps active. Unless worthwhile activities are found something else will be found. The Chest agencies make the good things possible. The building of a bridge may be delayed but the moulding of youth permits of no postponement. It must be done today. To curtail such work is unthinkable. Too many times in too many ways in the past few years we substituted retrenchment for courage. Let's make no such substitution in the task ahead. The courage and the will to succeed knows no retreat. Let's do our part—give our share—and above all inspire others to do likewise."

MRS. EMMA J. FERRIS

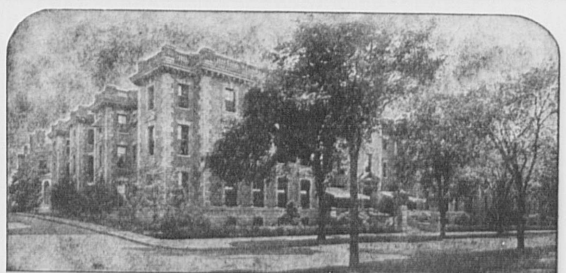

Mrs. Emma J. Ferris of Newton, widow of Colonel Alexander M. Ferris, died on Oct. 25, after a lingering illness. Mrs. Ferris was in her 90th year. During the Civil War she accompanied Col. Ferris on some of his campaigns in the South and brought him back North when he was wounded. In 1896 she organized Sarah Hall Chapter, D. R., and was its Regent for 5 years. She later became Honorary Regent for life. She was Historian-General of D. R. National Society and chairman of the national committee of the D. R., which secured the ground and funds for the erection of the monument at Valley Forge in memory of the soldiers who died there. This marked the beginning of the national park at Valley Forge. She was a member of the Daughters of 1812, Dames of the Loyal Legion, and had been active in women's clubs in Newton.

Her funeral service will be held at the chapel in Channing Church, Newton, on Saturday at 11 a. m. Rev. Alfred F. Cole will officiate. Mrs. Ferris is survived by one grandson, William M. Ferris, Jr., of Boston.

THE PUPIL LOOKS AT THE NEW DEAL

During the past week the students of Newton have hailed with both pleasure and thoughtfulness the abolishment of the traditional marking system.

The following are typical of remarks made by students after the new system was explained to them: "I like the new system because I can do the work for my work's sake and not have to think of what mark the teacher will give me." "The fellow who really has to work to get his lessons will count for just as much as the one to whom lessons come easily." "We won't have to look at an Honor Roll which reminds us that except a few are not very smart." "I don't feel discouraged now when I make a mistake, because the teacher won't be putting a mark against me in her little book." "I feel freer and happier." "I don't worry about my work now." "I don't have to worry about the others teasing me because I only got C's." "I like the privacy of the new system." "You don't have to worry about taking your report card home to your father and mother." "I'm working for myself and not for a report card." "The parents didn't get all the news by a report card." "Report cards made me almost sick just before they came out." "People who got on the Honor Roll thought they were so smart they didn't need to work any more." "Last year I received a blue card, and not only I knew about it, but everybody, and they poked fun at me and thought I wouldn't learn anything just because of one blue card." "I would like to try to beat myself instead of others."

Last winter a progressive teacher tried an experiment. The teacher explained that for a week they would conduct the class without marks. Everyone was to do just as he or she pleased, but there was to be absolutely no mark. The teacher reported that the class worked with a distinct increase in energy and purpose. After the experiment, over 80% of the pupils were enthusiastic about the new idea.

Many pupils have said that they feel under the new system they know more about their own standing from day to day, because each paper gives them a chance to check up their own mistakes.

One student said, "When Johnny or Mary came home with an A or B, that was a great honor. But when they brought a D or F they went in the front door saying to themselves, 'The moment that seems a year.'"

One eighth grade boy summed up the situation rather tersely with this statement, "I think the new deal will become more and more appreciated as the children realize they are not working for a piece of felt or to get their names on a certificate."

ONE THING AND ANOTHER

Figures show fewer nuts in 1933. However, the year is not over and there are those who plan to rejoice in repeal.

It takes character or whatever you may wish to call it to make light of adversity. An example of "sportsmanship" came to my attention only the other day. A young man, whose salary cuts were pretty severe and which have not been restored, was greeted by a more prosperous "pal" who said, as they stood shoulder to shoulder, "See here, old top, I'm getting taller than you are." The luckless one smiled. "You're wrong," he replied, "that's because the bottoms of my shoes are nearly worn off."

One morning last week in the B. & A. depot at West Newton I observed among those who were waiting for a Boston train, leaving shortly after 9 o'clock, a young woman who appeared to be a student. She was reading and at the same time smoking a cigarette. A trifle unconventional, I thought, especially for the women's side of the waiting room. That very same morning, sitting alone on a bench on Boston Common, was another young woman, also smoking a cigarette. That, too, struck me as out of the ordinary. O. no, I'm not censorious, merely baffled.

"Joe" Bartlett's Many Jobs

Some day when you are "rushed to death" with work, pause and look over the task which our own fellow citizen, City Solicitor Joseph W. Bartlett, has undertaken as chairman of the State Emergency Finance Board. After seeing for yourself what he has willingly tackled, without a penny of pay, you'll probably get the idea that the ordinarily busy man has it "soft."

When Mr. Bartlett accepted the appointment from Governor Ely he knew he would have plenty to do. I doubt if he had any notion how the work would increase in scope and volume. Nevertheless, he tackled it. If anything, his smile broadens as some new problem is put before him. Mr. Bartlett is one of the few City Solicitors who closely watches everything the Legislature does. This has given him a knowledge of affairs both at the State House and in the various cities and towns of the Commonwealth.

The board of which he is the head has two major functions. One is to approve the lending of State money to any city or town that may find itself "broke" or nearly so, and the other is to pass upon projects that cities and towns wish to undertake with funds from Federal grants.

It is safe to bet that "Joe" Bartlett knows in detail all the troubles of municipalities confronted with financial difficulties. They want to borrow money and its up to the board to find out if the loan is reasonable and necessary. The same thing goes with local public works projects. These are complicated enough, but then his board has a lot more than that to do.

Take the cured pork consignment of 19 carloads from the Federal authorities. Every pound of that must be accounted for by the board of which "Joe" is chairman. They had to re-register that C. C. C. camp—fully 3500 young men. Letters came from many mothers who wanted to know what their sons should take to camp, and all were answered.

As far as correspondence goes, there is a deluge every day. Official letters from Washington and various cities and towns of the State constitute only part of the work. Letters of advice and criticism are not in-

Political Campaign Cards—P.W.C.

Human nature is a funny thing, isn't it? Most of us are so naively conscious of all our virtues and accomplishments, but a bit dense and oblivious to our faults and shortcomings. It is the other fellow who is handicapped by those things.

For example, take the average political campaign card, especially in Boston elections. The photograph of the candidate usually favors him. Candid friends can scarcely recognize it. If he is getting on in years, a photograph taken ten years ago will be dug out of the files and used. Even a movie star could take lessons from some of our politicians.

Passing on to the reading matter, can you recall any card which did not state that the candidate was unusually capable, honest, fearless and independent? The bosses are always against him—yes, they may even be afraid of him. Of course, the candidate himself may become a boss ten years later, but the situation will be presented differently then. The times will call for an experienced statesman—a man with a proven record—and our friend will tag himself and be "it." It's just the old gag. The man frequent. It's an almost overwhelming task.

"Joe" Bartlett is the last man to claim credit for what the State Emergency Finance Board is doing. He'll tell you how the other members, the secretary, clerks and stenographers are giving every minute of their time and ounce of their strength in the effort to put cities and towns on their feet again. And they're making the grade, too, 'though it be a stiff one.

The Candidates' Haloween

One way of making a big success of your Haloween party, that is, if you are planning one, would be to invite the various candidates for public office to attend. Those who did not vote are usually ready to appear at places where an impromptu rally may be held. Furthermore, house-to-house canvassing, which might be combined nicely with a Haloween gathering. Most anybody who has time to get names could spare an hour or so amusing your guests.

These campaign hints are offered for what they are worth, if anything, and include the suggestion that a candidate who can lead in indoor games will likely prove himself a leader in more serious matters. Personally, I have always had the greatest respect for the person who, with hands tied behind him, can successfully "hob" apples. My own experience has invariably led to a bump on the chin and on at least one occasion to a gory nose. The fettered man who picks an apple out of a tub of water with one quick plunge would get my vote regardless of his party or even his fitness for the office. Some candidates are said to have their hands tied anyway. If true, they should be expert "hobbers."

I should not favor having "ghosts" at your party if you want to keep the candidates in a happy frame of mind. There are too many spectres abroad as it is as far as the average office-seeker is concerned. To have somebody dressed as a spook might make him jittery, which might be fun for the rest of the crowd but hardly enjoyable for a politician. The "four neurosis" is certainly not recommended.

Possibly you have already sent out invitations for Haloween or, if not, accepted one to a party at a friend's. I can't be expected to anticipate all circumstances and really submit these few hints by way of variety, which, after all, is the spice of life even in these spacy times.

JOSEPHINE M. SHAW

Josephine M. Shaw of 51 Waban ave., Waban, died on Oct. 23rd, in her 86th year. She was a granddaughter of Lemuel Shaw, a former chief justice of Massachusetts. For the past 10 years she had resided with Dr. and Mrs. Earle E. Bossey at Waban. During her lifetime she was active in philanthropic work. Her funeral service was held yesterday at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Waban. Burial was in Mount Auburn.

HIGHLANDS MAN DIES OF LOCK-JAW

John McCallion, 33, of 1175 Walnut st., Newton Highlands, died at the Newton Hospital on Sunday of lockjaw. This dread disease resulted from an injury to an elbow when McCallion fell off his bicycle. McCallion had been employed at the Saco-Lowell plant at Upper Falls. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Agnes McCallion.

who is running for office is a statesman—the other fellow, especially the most feared opponent—is the politician or political boss! No one can kid himself better than the average pol, but the smart pol can always kid thousands of voters at the same time.

So much for generalities. Let us turn now to Newton politics. Up to date, no Weeks campaign card has been issued (at least not publicly). Therefore we can only examine the card of the Mayor's leading opponent, Thomas W. White. Parenthetically it would seem that the contest is pretty much Weeks vs. White, with the other three candidates, Hodgdon, Sullivan and Drake dividing up 10-15% of the total vote.

Consider now the implications of the statements on White's campaign card. The card states: "He should be elected Mayor because: He will be a full-time Mayor available to all the People."

Well, well! So Weeks is a part-time Mayor available only to a portion of the people. Sounds bad, doesn't it? Suppose, however, you investigated at City Hall and discovered that there never has been a full-time Mayor for at least 24 years? Takes some of the curse off, doesn't it?

Again, White will be "available to all the people," implying that Weeks is not. Very very bad, if true. I shall be most interested, however, to see if Candidate White can prove that charge. It so happens that a close friend of the Mayor's—well known to me—calls on him at City Hall every so often and invariably takes his place in line in the ante-room and waits.

Passing on, we have a statement announcing White's ability and integrity. Obviously there is no implication or innuendo here because the Mayor's harshest enemy could hardly question his ability or integrity.

The next affirmative statement implies that the Mayor is a snob and that he places the Dollar above Humanity. Let it ride. The unthinking voter may fall for this but the thinking voter (still in the great majority in Newton) will discard it promptly.

The next implication is that the Mayor is not fully aware of present practices that need correction. How come? The Mayor is a pretty smart man—otherwise he wouldn't have been our Mayor for four years (and quite probably six). Does any thinking citizen really believe that Weeks thinks that he has made no mistakes and that the City Hall machinery (human, I mean) is perfect? Ridiculous. Is it not likely, however, that some of the men and some of the methods and practices in question came into the picture long before our present Mayor assumed office?

The last statement on White's card implies that the Mayor believes in mortgaging the future by bond issues, by reducing contractual salaries and by using up fiscal reserves to produce a temporary reduction of a few cents on the tax rate. These are matters of financial and economic policy regarding which there is an honest difference of opinion among men who may be even wiser and more astute than either Weeks or White. Not such a terrible indictment after all, then, is it?

In closing, let's stop being too serious for a moment and make note of the fact that White, quite unintentionally, played a joke on himself by placing five (count 'em) little black marks on his card. To be sure, they are not on the side which sets forth his public record, but the Weeks forces might be tempted to suggest (laughingly, of course), that this was a mistake made by the much-abused printer!

The chairman, Mr. Angier, spoke of how the Chapter Red Cross activities were becoming an accepted part of the life of the City—instruction in Life Saving, Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick, First Aid, making and distribution of garments, transporting of physically incapacitated to hospitals and clinics, and recently Nutrition as the Chapter Nutritionist is helping the City with menus for the food issued by the commissary system and in planning the weekly food budget allowed. Outside Newton members are doing good work in the Bedford Hospital, Braille for the blind, and sending cheer at Christmas to men in service in foreign parts. All this work is made possible by the conscientious loyal volunteers who devote so many hours to Red Cross service.

It was also mentioned that the Red Cross Regional Conference held recently at the Brae Burn was considered the most successful this year in New England. Each year the Chapter sends two junior delegates and chaperone to the Annual Convention in Washington and most interesting reports were given of this trip by Dorothy Goldstein of the Weeks Junior High and Thelma Cutter of the Bigelow Junior High.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

The children of the twenty-nine public schools in Newton are enrolled 100 percent in the Junior Red Cross. The pupils in two private and two parochial schools have also joined the organizations. During the school year 1932-1933, they have been interested in doing the following service work:

About one hundred undernourished children were supplied with milk. Glasses were furnished to fifty-three boys and girls. A contribution was sent to Ellsworth, Me., at the time of the great fire. Home economics classes made dresses and other articles of clothing from material furnished by the Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross. At Christmas time toys were collected, put in good order and sent to hospitals and homes. Braille Christmas cards, with original cover designs by the Juniors, were sent to schools for the

By Edward H. Powers

It was interesting at the meeting of the Aldermen on Monday night to observe the solicitude which is now being shown by members of the city government for the unemployed. Some of the members of the City Government who now appear quite concerned over the plight of the men who have been out of work for many months, have not displayed equal compassion in past months. Election Day is on December 12.

Two attempts are being made to break down the zoning ordinance of this city. One is the application for a paint and enamel factory in the thickly settled Nonantum district. Such an objectionable industry is forbidden by the zoning ordinance. The other assault on zoning is the petition of a large Boston store for a commercial building on Commonwealth ave. Although the petition states that this building is for temporary purposes, the structure would be constructed of steel and concrete. In our opinion the granting of this petition would be the opening wedge for the perversion of Newton's finest avenue to business purposes. Persons residing in neighborhoods adjoining gravel pits, where temporary permits were given some years ago, know too well what temporary means.

In the winter of 1918-1919 the writer was in Trier, Germany, with the Army of Occupation. Trier is on the Mosel River not far from the boundary of Luxembourg. It is the oldest city in Germany. In ancient days it was the seat of government of the Roman Empire in Germany. It is an extremely interesting old place. The ravages of the war were painfully apparent in Trier. The people of the city were undernourished. There had been a scarcity of food during the long years of the war. Most of the population had no meat to eat, no milk, no butter, and little of the other necessary foods. The ancient market place, located in the principle square in the heart of Trier, gave plain evidence of the lack of food. In addition to the limited supply of vegetables offered by farmers from the surrounding country, women displayed baskets of potato peelings for sale. These peelings were purchased by persons too poor to buy vegetables. The purchasers boiled the peelings and made soup from them. This harrowing condition aroused the sympathy of the Americans for the poor people who had been reduced to such circumstances. During the fifteen years which have elapsed this incident had been forgotten. It was recalled to our memory last week when we read of circulars which had been sent to unemployed receiving aid from the City of Newton. Among other advice given to these folks in adverse circumstances was the suggestion that they boil the vegetables received by them in as little water as possible so that they can use the liquid which remains after the cooking for soup.

Two Rallies For White Are Held

Campaign rallies in the interest of Thomas W. White were held this week at Newtonville and Newton Centre on Monday evening and last night. They were under the auspices of the White Campaign Committee. Mr. White spoke at both meetings and assured his workers of a clean, vigorous campaign, based up on facts.

He promised a pure drinking water supply to take effect early next year; a complete reorganization of the Welfare program with authority and control definitized and centralized under a proper board of review and the publicity of cases avoided; a conserving of the city's fiscal resources with all necessary economies but not at the expense of education. He asked for an Independent Board of the women of the city to give grave consideration to mortgaging the future by bond issues and to consider, at the same time, the whole financial setup before further burdening the real estate owners of the city.

TRIO BROADCASTS FOR COMMUNITY CHEST

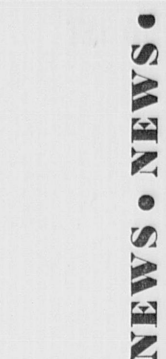

On next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, the trio from the Clafin Branch of the All Newton Music School will play selections over WBSO on the Newton Community Chest program. There will also be a cello solo on this program by a pupil of the music school.

This trio is much in demand, having played last Thursday evening at the Pastor's Reception in the Eliot Church, Newton, and playing again on Sunday evening, Oct. 29, at the Young People's Meeting in the Central Congregational Church, Newtonville. Miss Irene Forte, violin instructor at the Clafin Branch, trains the trio.

PARAMOUNT THEATRE, NEWTON

Claudette Colbert in Paramount's "Torch Singer" is the feature at the Paramount Theatre, Newton beginning on Sunday for a four-day run. In the cast are Ricardo Cortez, David Manners, Lydia Robert, and Baby LeRoy. Ralph Ringer and Leo Robin have written a number of new songs for this picture, varying from a lullaby to those of the "torch" type.

The story, adapted from Grace Perkins' "Mike" which ran in Liberty Magazine, is Paramount's response to Miss Colbert's demand for stories of women who toy with the emotions of men. Miss Colbert plays the role of "Mimi" Benton, once simply Sally Trent, now the toast of night clubs, as dangerous as she is alluring. She is trying to even the score with life which previously beset her with misfortune. Spurning the love of the man who deserted her how she finds the answer to her problem furnishes a gripping climax to the story.

High School Notes

Enrollment figures made public last week indicated 2312 pupils in Newton High School this year, 1008 of them being new to the school this year. This figure has been exceeded in the past only in 1931 when ninth grade classes in the senior high school brought the total slightly over 2400. Since school opened in September 131 pupils entered from outside schools, largely private. Placement tests and records from the schools previously attended resulted in 54 enrollments in class X, the sophomore group, 28 in class XI, and 27 in the senior class. Five were classified as post graduates and 17 in grade IX. The present senior class numbers 566, the junior class 761, the sophomore class 889. There are 37 post graduates and 68 pupils in grade IX.

Weeks Junior H. S.

The assembly program of Wednesday, October 25, was excellent demonstration of the adaptability of science and drama. The pupils and teachers were enabled, through the facilities of III F's "television" set which was explained and operated by John Noble and James Ingalls, to witness a dinner of "The Explorers' Club at the Century of Progress." Dean Proctor as Dr. Roy Chapman Andrews was the toastmaster of the brilliant affair. He introduced many of the famous explorers and scientists present. Among the speakers were Dr. Frederick S. Dallenbaugh, who was portrayed by Samuel Hudson; Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, Ernest Coughlan; Admiral Byrd, Horace Holt; Dr. William Beebe, Kenneth Nelson, Otto Streve, the astronomer, Harvard Crabtree, Dr. Auguste Piccard, Robert Woodruff, Dr. Robert A. Millikan, Edward Hunter, Dr. Edwin R. Frost, Howard Gross, Dr. Raymond Witman, Raymond Wisner. William Kosina was the master of ceremonies who presented Admiral Byrd with a real black kitten with white paws and the name of "Snowshoes." Philip Phaneuf represented the Weeks Junior High School at this great occasion. Robert Whelden was stage manager.

Bigelow Junior H. S.

During the regular assembly period on Friday, October 20, some of the classes listened to the Damrosch broadcast in the school auditorium. At the assembly on Friday, October 27, "POP Baker and his Hill-Billies" furnished the entertainment which consisted for the most part, of a re-
